

Leaving for Alaska—Mrs. Bert A. Walker and daughter, Judy, above, will be leaving soon with Mr. Walker for Kodiak, Alaska, to make their home. Several affairs have been given in farewell to them, including a coffee for Mrs. Walker on Monday and a brunch for her this morning. Mrs. Walker has been active in several groups while living in Salem, especially the American Legion auxiliary and affiliated groups. (Kennell-Ellis studio picture)

FROM Peg in Washington

BY ALENE (PEG) PHILLIPS

Farewells to Mrs. Bert A. Walker were expressed by a large group of friends who called Monday morning for the informal coffee given by Mrs. Russell Beutler and Mrs. B. W. Stacey at the home of Mrs. Beutler. Mrs. Walker with Mr. Walker and their daughter, Judy, will leave this month for Kodiak, Alaska, to make their home. Heralding the coming of spring was the coffee table with its raspberry cloth and low arrangements of violets and yellow foxglove blooms, vigil lights in crystal gandelabra at the back of the table. Other early spring flowers decorated the home.

Among those greeted during our visit: Mrs. Carl Snyder, Mrs. Othel Lee, Mrs. Fred Gahndorf, Mrs. Glenn S. Paxson, Mrs. Carl Cover, Mrs. E. F. Kirkwood, Mrs. Arthur Erickson, Mrs. Chester Fritz, Mrs. Ray Rhoten, Mrs. E. H. Kennedy, Mrs. H. H. Conover, Mrs. Richard Chase, Mrs. George Spaur, Miss Hatlie Braisel, Mrs. Sidney Hoffman, Mrs. Edwin Keech, Mrs. Albert C. Gragg, Mrs. Harris Lietz, Mrs. Merle D. Travis, Mrs. Guy N. Hickok, Mrs. George Alexander, Mrs. Lois Keeney, Mrs. William Hugh Adams, Mrs. Francis T. Wade, Mrs. Farley Mogan, Mrs. Claude H. Post, Mrs. George Schroeder, Mrs. Leon Brown, Mrs. Gordon Skinner, Mrs. Ivan Merchant, Mrs. Wallace S. Wharton, Mrs. Phillip M. Brandt, Jr., Mrs. William C. Dyer, Jr.

From Washington, D.C., comes a special release from a former Salem resident, Mrs. Ernest Rostel, who heads public relations for the American Hearing Society with headquarters in the national capital. Mrs. Rostel announces competition for the Kenfield Memorial scholarship, awarded annually by the American Hearing society to a prospective teacher of lipreading, will open March 1. Application blanks may be obtained by writing to the society's national headquarters, 617-14th Street, N.W., Washington 5, D.C. Deadline for returning completed applications is May 1. Funds for the scholarship were subscribed in 1937 in memory of Miss Coralie N. Kenfield, San Francisco, nationally known for her methods in teaching lipreading. Winner of the award is entitled to take a teacher training course in lipreading at any school or university in the United States acceptable to the teachers committee of the society.
