

ASSOCIATED PRESS NEWS IN PICTURES

FASCINATING BUT DEADLY — "Sabre Knights" official Sabrejet formation team of U. S. Air Force, fly in tight diamond over Southern California desert during maneuver.

MARGARET HAS A KANGAROO — Here's the Australian twist to the old nursery rhyme as Margaret Lucas, 3, and her pet kangaroo, Hopalong, run through a field on the way to school, and meet for breakfast in her home near Sale, Victoria.

SPARKLING TOP — This coiffure shown in Paris is trimmed with jewels and includes a fireworks-producing mechanism which is designed to draw attention to hairdo.

TURNING BACK TIME — Two pioneer aviators watch Billy Parker pilot a 1913 pusher-type plane past marker at Kitty Hawk, N. C., where Wright brothers made first flight in 1903.

READY FOR DESCENT — Sylvia Greig, 23, is helped into a diving outfit complete with fins as she joins search for a missing boy's body in London's Grand Union Canal waters.

HISTORY IN MINIATURE — Charles Arguinet works in Paris on wood sculpture of Versailles Palace's "Ambassador's Staircase," in model collection depicting Falace's past.

HANDY AROUND OVEN — Donald E. MacDonald adds icing to cake he baked for his wedding to Betty M. Bowser. Church is model of one in Gardiner, Mo., where two were married.

BIG HEAD — This six-foot head appears to register a protest as it is set up for the Cologne, Germany, Museum for Health. When illuminated it demonstrates head and brain processes.

NEW ENVOY — U. Alexis Johnson, of Glendale, Cal., former Deputy Assistant Secretary of State, is the new Ambassador to Czechoslovakia, succeeding George Wadsworth.

THE VEST GOES WEST — Four cowhands on a Phoenix, Ariz., dude ranch pose in their fancy vests, an old Western fashion which is enjoying a return to favor among men.

LLAMA AND LOVELY — Nicole Maury holds llama that makes movie debut with her in "Legend of the Foot." Llama was brought to Hollywood from Peru where much of film was made.

SCORCHED DOUGH — Carter Kenagaard watches $100,000 go up in smoke in an incinerator of the Federal Reserve Bank in Chicago where worn-out paper money is destroyed.

EGYPT'S FIGHTING WOMEN — New military volunteers are these Egyptian university women, members of nation's national guard, swinging along in a drill training period.

BEAUTIFYING RAPID TRANSIT — Workers build what may appear to be a rural farmer's home but is in reality the subway station in the Dablen district of West Berlin.