Boise-Bozorth Wedding Today at Episcopal Church in Oregon City

A wedding of interest to a large group of friends in Salem and valley points took place this afternoon in St. Paul's Episcopal church, Oregon City, when Miss Janet Bozorth, daughter of Mrs. Squire S. Bozorth of Eugene and the late Dr. Bozorth, was married to Evan Breyman Boise, son of Mr. and Mrs. R. Breyman Boise of Salem. Officiating at the impressive 4 o'clock service was the Rev. Hal Gross, rector of St. Paul's in Oregon City, assisted by the Rev. George H. Swift, rector of St. Paul's Episcopal church in Salem.

Soloist was Mrs. Scott Adams (Elizabeth Nelson) of Portland, who sang "The Lord's Prayer." Acolyte for the service was the bride's brother, Squire Newland Bozorth. Church decorations were white chrysanthemums and candles.

The bride wore a beautiful wedding dress of imported lace and net. The bodice was of the nylon lace, the very bouffant skirt of imported net and extending into a train. The fingertip length veil of imported illusion net was held in place by a Mary Stuart nylon lace headpiece trimmed with pearls. The bride's bouquet was of white flowers, lilies and other blooms. R. Morris Holman of Oregon City, uncle of the bride, gave her in marriage.

Mrs. Vernon Johnson of Portland was matron of honor, Miss Florida Bozorth of Eugene, sister of the bride, the maid of honor. Both wore ice green net frocks designed with very full bouffant skirts, and matching slippers. Both carried bouquets of golden bronze carnations with matching headresses.

Newbury Close of Salem was best man. Ushering were Scott Adams, Portland, Daniel Fry, Jr., Robert Steeves and Ernest H. Miller, all of Salem.

The bride's mother wore a light beige faille suit with powder blue hat and gloves and corsage of tiger lily orchids. The bridegroom's mother wore a charcoal shantung suit with white hat and accessories and corsage of orchids.

The reception was arranged in the University club in Portland following the service. Invited to pour were Mrs. Herbert J. Darby, Mrs. Ralph Burgess, Portland, Mrs. Edward Wittmann, Seattle, the bride's sister, and Mrs. Robins Whittlesey of Vancouver, B. C., a cousin. Assisting were Mrs. Newbury Close of Salem, Mrs. William Barerer, Miss Caroline Bozorth, sister of the bride, Mrs. R. Morris Holman, Oregon City, aunt of the bride, Mrs. Norman Schoonover of Boise, Idaho, a cousin. The bride's table was all in white with white chrysanthemums and other flowers on the cake.

For traveling the bride selected a blue wool dress with black and blue velvet hat, black coat and accessories and corsage of white orchids.

Following a trip to Sun Valley, Idaho, the couple will be at home at 1045 Bellevue, Salem, after January 25.
