

Busch-Culbertson Rites On Sunday Afternoon

Sprung flowers were used for the wedding Sunday afternoon at the First Methodist church when Miss Barbara June Culbertson and Robert Norman Busch were married. The Rev. Harold Black of the West Salem Methodist church performed the nuptials at 3:30 o'clock.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edgar M. Culbertson and Mr. Busch is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Roger H. Busch, Burlingame, Calif.

Herb Brower was the soloist and sang before an altar decorated with daffodils, acacia and lighted tapers. Josef Schmelker was the organist.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a wedding dress of French lace over satin with a flared skirt, and short train. The bodice was jeweled and there was a small Peter Pan collar. The fingertip veil of illusion fell from a jeweled lace cap. The bride carried a cascade arrangement of stephanotis surrounded by lace.

Miss Judie Burdette was maid of honor and wore a yellow lace over taffeta waltz length dress styled with a round neckline and cap sleeves. She carried a nosegay of violets with yellow rosebuds in the center.

Mrs. Eddie Young and Miss Janice Coffel were the bridesmaids and wore dresses styled like that of the maid of honor. They all wore lace caps trimmed with seed and teardrop pearls. Tom Carr, Burlingame, Calif., was the best man and the ushers were Dave Townsend, Ernest Snarr, Burlingame, Roille Elias, Sacramento, Calif., and John Burdett of Newport.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Culbertson wore a lace and taffeta navy blue afternoon dress with pink accessories. She wore a corsage of pink rosebuds and pink net. Mrs. Busch, the bridegroom's mother, wore a powder blue wool afternoon dress with pink accessories and a corsage of feathered pink carnations with blue tulle.

The reception followed in the Carrier room of the church. The bride's table was set with a lavender cloth and candles and violets on the table.

Mrs. Grant Hyames, an aunt of the bride, poured. Mrs. Roy C. Smith was at the punch table. Mrs. Ronald Cross assisted Miss Beulah Courtney of Portland in cutting the cake. Misses Margie Barge, Anna Mae Lockenour and Jody Boyer assisted. Miss Sandra Anderson passed the guest book. Linda Busch, sister of the bridegroom, passed the dream cakes.

Mrs. H. S. Wolverton and Mrs. W. H. Busch, grandmothers of the bridegroom, also assisted with the pouring.

For a trip through Oregon and California, the bride wore an aqua faille suit with black accessories. Her full length white coat was trimmed with black velvet. Her corsage was of stephanotis.

After February 1, the couple will be at home in Burlingame.
