SLIDE CLOSING HIGHWAY

The highway department said the Ore. coast highway at Brighton, between Rockaway and Nehalem beach.

The highway department said a detour is available by way of Miami river, the same detour available when an earlier slide closed the route recently.

Accidents killed about 94,000 Americans in 1953.

N.Y. Woman to Be Heard Here

Mrs. Oswald B. Lord, New York, U.S. representative on the United Nations Human Rights commission, will discuss this subject Wednesday, January 20 at 8 p.m. in Waller hall on the Willamette University campus.

She is appearing in west coast cities by courtesy of the World Affairs Council of the Foreign Policy association.

Mrs. Lord succeeded Mrs. Eleanor Roosevelt on the U.N. commission. She has had a long and distinguished career as a social worker. She is assistant regional director of the Office of Civilian Defense during World War II. For some time she was chairwoman of the U.S. Committee for the United Nations International Children's Emergency Fund. She was co-chairman of the National Citizens Committee for Eisenhower-Nixon in the 1952 campaign.

Interested citizens in Salem, Corvallis and Eugene are responsible for her coming to Salem, according to Eloise Ebert, state chairman of the international relations committee of the American Association of University Women, who with Dean Robert D. Gregg of Willamette University is co-chairman of arrangements.

Mrs. Lord will be introduced by Charles A. Sprague, former alternate delegate to the U.N. assembly. The public is invited.

Salem Heights

STLEM HEIGHTS—The Boys Scout troop 19's Jay patrol spent this last weekend camping at Silver Creek Falls.

First class advancements were worked. On the camp out were Jerry Burger, Olin Teston, Emmett Myers, Rodney Raymond, and William Rector. Adult supervisors were Errol Myers and Stanley Teston.

The troop committee met last week at the home of W. E. Rector to make plans for the explorer group to take a ski trip on the advance program for the Scouts. Present were Robert Norris, Stanley Teston, Bill Crandell, Frank Meecker, E. W. Rector and the scoutmaster, John Kinney.

Bonnie Hudson of Madrona Ave., age 16, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ora Hudson, was taken to Salem Memorial hospital Thursday evening. She has meningitis. Her condition is reported to be good.

The South Salem Suburban Chamber of Commerce will meet Wednesday, Jan. 20, at the China City restaurant for a dinner meeting at 7:00.

The Liberty - Salem Heights Home Extension Unit will meet Thursday, Jan. 21, at the Salem Heights Community hall at 1 p.m.

Mrs. Orville Raymond will be the project leader and will present simple home repairs. Each member attending is asked to bring a hammer, screw driver, pliers and a couple of blocks of wood.

HUMAN TOUCH

WINNIPEG, (AP) — Teachers must know their subjects. But they should also know their pupils, says Dr. J. M. Brown, Curriculum Director of the Manitoba Education Department. If a teacher intends to teach arithmetic, she must know arithmetic, but she must also know John," he said. "And John in many respects is very unlike arithmetic."

Sub Has Come Long Way Since Alexander's Day

Groton, Con. (AP) — Alexander the Great, who pined for more worlds to conquer, would gasp if he could be arised here Thursday to see what has happened to submarines since his time.

The world's first atomic-powered submarine, the USS Nautilus, was launched here Thursday by Mrs. Dwight D. Eisenhower at the shipyard of the Electric Boat Division of the General Dynamics Corp.

Step into the Electric Boat's library, reputed to be the biggest exclusively devoted to submarines and you learn that recorded history gives Alexander's name as the first to be linked to an undersea craft.

But Nautilus standards, it was not much of a boat. The Greek philosopher Aristotle described it as a diving bell. It was built for Alexander, 356-323 BC and used to spear a fleet attempting to lift the siege of Tyre.

The library staff, headed by Donald Shepard, has come up with a lot of other information pointing up the proud heritage that stretches behind the Nautilus.

For example: Leonardo da Vinci, the great Florentine inventor and artist of the Renaissance, planned an underwater warship. He was afraid it would make war more frightful.

King James I of England reputedly took a short ride in one. It was distinguished by an oil-soaked leather covering and propelled by oars. A Dutchman, Cornelius Van Drebbel, built it a century after Da Vinci's death.

Americans made more submarine history during the revolution. A Yale college student, David Bushnell, discovered how to explode gunpowder under water. To go with his discovery, he built a one-man submarine—a tiny oak vessel called the turtle.

Willamina Accepts Bid for Pipe Line

WILLAMINA—Bids for the construction of the overhead crossing of the Lady creek water line over the Yamhill river were opened by the city council Thursday and Thursday evening the bid of $850 for labor, only, submitted by the Gold Creek Logging Co., was accepted.

Construction of the steel towers and suspension cables will start immediately. The structure is planned to carry a six inch and a ten inch water main, but only the six inch main will be laid at present.

Originally the water main was laid on the stream bed of the Yamhill and the high water in December swept large boulders across the line, breaking it. Since that time the city has been supplied with water by nearly constant pumping from Willamina creek.

St. Paul Will Give Dimes Dance Jan. 27

ST. PAUL—A March of Dimes birthday will be given from 9:30 p.m. to 1 a.m., Wednesday, Jan. 27, at the St. Paul city hall, sponsored by the St. Paul city hall Auxiliary.

Musical will be furnished by Rex Teed and his modern dance band. Members of the committee in charge are Mesdames Jack Smith, and Ben Marshall, co-chairmen, Tom Smith, Peter M. Kirk, Jim Smith, Elmer Ernst, Don Bernard, and Gene Smith.
