

Stayton Chief Enlists in Army Reserves

Joining the Army Reserves here last week was the chief of police of Stayton, Everett E. Norfleet, enlisted in the reserves as a private first class. Norfleet, who last August completed a three-year enlistment in the Oregon National Guard with Company D, 162nd Infantry Regiment, Salem, during World War II served for about a year and a half with the U.S. Navy. Three other men were enlisted in the army reserves last week and assigned to headquarters and headquarters battery of the 929th Field Artillery Battery. The trio are Pfc. Theodore W. Anderson, 1224 Chemeketa street, Salem; Pfc. Clayton S. Jacobs, 795 Churchdale avenue, Salem; and Cpl. Alan R. Hallowell, 700 South Church street, Salem. The 929th is part of the 104th division, Army Reserve unit, which presently is conducting a recruiting drive in Oregon.

Oregon Posse Has Election

Ralph Stangeby was re-elected captain of Oregon Mounted Posse, Governor's Guard, Saturday night in a meeting at the Marion Hotel. Most other officers were re-elected, including Jack Lindeman as first lieutenant and Rex Youngquist second lieutenant in charge of men. Sherm Boskrack was elected second lieutenant in charge of mounts. The parade group will elect a second lieutenant from their own number. The Posse elected Walter Zosel as representative to the Willamette Valley Horsemen's Association for three years. Gene Conklin, Ivan Sutton and Tom Allen were elected members of the board of directors.

Kidnap Breakfast For Girl Scouts

A kidnap breakfast for Girl Troop No. 92 (intermediate troop from Parish) was served at the home of Mrs. James Waite January 16. The girls were presented with badge sashes on which to place their insignias and badges earned. The following girls were present and received hostess badges and a drawing and painting badges: Shirley Boesh, Conie Collins, Beverley Frey, Travarlene Miller, Conie Rooney, Barbara Sanders, Sarah Stuart, Mary Beth Beckeneus, Roberta Wickman. All girls were awarded membership stars and Conie Collins, Beverley Frey, and Travarlene were presented with five year guards, from their leaders, Mrs. Carl Collins and Mrs. James Waite. Carol Randall, senior program aide, assisted.

4-H Leaders Meet At Keizer Thursday

Marion County 4-H Leaders will meet at Keizer School auditorium Thursday evening, January 21. A conflict of schedules at Central Howell brings about the change as announced by Bill Williams, president. Newcomers to the Leaders' Conference delegation list that was announced last week include Mrs. Melvin Zwicker, Aumsville; Mrs. C. J. Bentley and Mrs. George Van Deventer, Jefferson; and Mrs. Anthol Riney, Fruitland, will all be staying at the Benton Hotel, in Corvallis. Transportation and program plans will be discussed by those going to Corvallis next week at the meeting Thursday night. Any Marion County 4-H Leader desiring to go to 4-H Leaders Conference in Corvallis from January 26 to 28 should be at the meeting Thursday evening at Keizer.

North Howell

NORTH HOWELL—The North Howell home economics club met at the hall Tuesday, Jan. 12, with a 1:30 dessert luncheon. The business meeting was conducted by the new chairman, Mrs. Leo Peterson. The club decided to hold a rummage sale at the hall Tuesday, Feb. 12, from 2 to 4 p.m. The hostesses for the day were Mrs. Florence Espe and Mrs. Amy Beer. Mrs. Andrew Hall has been bedfast with the flu for a week, but is slowly improving. Mrs. William Addie is in the Salem General hospital where she underwent eye surgery Wednesday. She will be in the hospital for a week. While she is away her daughter, Mrs. Charles Waltman of Hebo, is staying at the Addie home. Mrs. Lewis Sawyer entertained the ladies of her circle from the Christian church of Silverton at her home on Tuesday, Jan. 12, at a dessert luncheon.
