FILET STARS

Ingredients: 2 1/2 cups sifted flour, 1 1/4 teaspoons baking powder, 1/2 teaspoon salt, 1/2 cup butter or margarine, 1 cup sugar, 1 teaspoon vanilla, 1 egg, 2 tablespoons milk, 1 egg white, 1/2 cup filberts (put through a rotary grater so they are finely chopped).

Method: Sift together flour, baking powder and salt. Cream butter, sugar and vanilla. Beat in egg thoroughly; then milk. Stir in flour mixture gradually with spoon, mixing well after each addition. Chill dough. Roll no more than one-quarter of the dough at a time to 1/8-inch thickness on floured board or prepared pastry cloth. Cut cookies with star-shaped (about 2 inches) cutter. Brush cookies with egg white; sprinkle with filberts. Place on ungreased baking sheet about 1/2-inch apart; bake in moderate (375F) oven 8 to 10 minutes, or until edges are lightly browned. Makes 6 1/2 dozen cookies.

Mr. Mainwaring Speaks for AAUW

"Let's Look at the World" was the topic discussed by Bernard Mainwaring, editor and publisher of the Capital Journal, at the luncheon meeting of Salem branch, American Association of University Women, Saturday, at the Marion hotel.

In his speech Mr. Mainwaring discussed briefly the present situation in a number of countries and gave his opinion as to the eventual outcome. He started with Korea, then Japan, and Nationalist China, on down through Southeast Asia, India, Pakistan, and the Near East, to Italy and other European countries. On the whole, his outlook was grim, but he concluded if we can maintain a strong front, particularly in Europe, without the destructiveness of a present-day war, eventually the vast empire in Russia will disintegrate. And therein lies our hope, for "the free man will beat the slave every time," he said.

Mrs. Lawrence C. Merriam introduced two new members, Mrs. Forrest W. Lemm, a transfer from Redding, Calif., and Mrs. Allen Johnson.

Mrs. Arthur Sprague announced that the March meeting will be an evening of music with Stanley Butler, professor of music at Willamett University, on the program.

PRINGLE PLEASANT Point Social club is meeting on Thursday at the home of Mrs. Homer Harrison, 733 Sunset. There will be a noon luncheon.
