

Cascade High Yearbook Tops

The Cascade Union High School yearbook, "The Cascadian," was awarded first class honor rating by the National Scholastic Press Association, according to word received from the 1953 All-American year book Critical Service, Fred P. Kildow, director.

The Cascadian was given this honor rating in the Thirty-third National Yearbook Critical Service of the National Scholastic Press Association at the University of Minnesota, School of Journalism, Nov. 1, 1953.

A Freshman-Sophomore party will be held Saturday, Jan. 23, in the Cascade High School gym from 7:30 to 10:30 p.m. General chairman is Cora Beaumont. The party will include ballroom and square dancing, and refreshments will be served.

The F.A. and F.H.A. of Cascade gave a party Tuesday, Jan. 19, from 7:00 to 9:30 p.m. Those serving on committees were Don Papke, Elton Beach, Bob Schaefer, Ramona Wheeler, Sharon Geisler, Jeanette Townsend, Alice Graves, Dick Gilbert, Cora Beaumont, Roberta Campbell, Rita Phillips, and Wayne Krenz.

Mrs. Eleanor DeCamp, Cascade home economics teacher, will be one of a group of administrators and teachers to travel to Bend, Feb. 2. She will take part in an evaluative study of Bend High School. Miss Gwen Lounsbury, student teacher from Oregon State College, will teach during Mrs. DeCamp's absence.

High Schools Get $100 From Contest

Salem Senior High School received $100 in cash as a result of the November, 1953, Kellogg Company Orange Bowl contest as Mrs. Leta Faught, 8074 Coyle Street, Detroit, Michigan, named Salem High School as her choice high school team to watch the Miami Orange Bowl New Year's Day.

A fourth prize winner, Mrs. Faught, (Leta Jean Evans), graduate of 1948, received a $25 United States Savings Bond and the school received the cash award.

The money will be added to the athletic fund to be used for a football scoreboard at a later date.

Father Kills Crippled Child

SEATTLE (AP)—The odds against Virginia Wagner's chances of enjoying normal adulthood were resolved Tuesday by her professional gambler father. He killed the crippled 11-year-old girl and himself in their plush Seattle apartment.

The father was Harry Andrew Wagner, 65, onetime card dealer in Las Vegas, Reno and Seattle gambling places. He last was seen alive feeding peaches to Virginia while the little girl, a victim of spastic paralysis, watched a television program.

That was the way Wagner's wife, Natalie, 38, left the pair when she went down to the apartment house laundry room. She returned a short while later to find Virginia lying on the couch, the father gone.

Believing the daughter was suffering from a brain hemorrhage, Mrs. Wagner called for aid and didn't learn until they reached the hospital the girl had been shot through the chest. And an hour after that she was told that Wagner's body had been found in the apartment incinerator room, a bullet through his head.

Coroner John P. Brill said it was a plain case of murder and suicide.

FRENCH RETAKE PORT SAIGON, Indochina (AP)—The French announced Wednesday marine commandos and infantry have retaken the key Mekong river port of Thakhek, evacuated by the French almost a month ago when the Communist-led Vietminh thrust across Laos in central Indochina.

In 1942, a Chinese junk sailed from China to the United States in 86 days with a crew of four.
