Oregon Ducks Ride First Place in Northern Division Today

Idaho, U-O Beat OSC, Huskies

Oregon held undisputed first place in the Pacific Coast Con-ference Northern Division basketball standings Saturday as Oregon State's Beavers, pre-season title favorites, mulled over wha' happened Friday night.

Oregon, now boasting a 4 - 1 record, just barely managed a 77-76 victory over Washington Friday night, and Oregon State took its second licking at the hands of Idaho, 70-55. of Idaho, 70-55.

of Idaho, 70-55.

The loss dumped the Beavers into third place with a 3-2 record and shoved Idaho into the challengers role at 4-2.

State share the cellar with 1 - 4 records. The Cougars were idle Friday night.

Oregon had its way during the first half of the Ducks - Huskies game at Eugene, but the Washingtons struck back in the second half and had the Ducks tied at 70-all before the Webfoots snapped to.

Jerry Ross walked off with high point honors with 17 for the Ducks. Dean Parsons dropped 14 through the net for the Huskies. Idaho, rated the division dark-horse before the teams started playing for keeps, played the part to the hilt. The Vandals punched the Beavers, Wade (Swede) Halbrook nothwithstanding, into the ropes after the opening buzzer and kept them there all the way. Halbrook did his scoring best to keep the Beavers in the game, with 35 points for his night's work, but the Vandals' team play, speed and clever ball handling more than offset Halbrook's per-
