YONDER IS THE STATE TOURNAMENT SITE

Pictured above are the ten beautiful alleys of the Albany Lanes where the annual state championships will get under way tonight with three squads of teams leading off followed by doubles and singles action tomorrow. The Albany Lanes, under the able management of Toya Lindblad, have been groomed into perfect condition and it is our prediction that there will be several new records established in the meet this year. Two teams from the University Mercantile league will be the lead off teams for Salem this year. The Dyer & Sons Insurance and Ramage's Beverages, will bowl tonight at 7:00 and 9:15 p.m., respectively. Good luck to both of you!

SPRING HANDICAP STARTS EARLY

Getting under way this next week will be the first annual Capitol Alleys Spring Handicap Classic composed of three big events, mixed doubles, men's doubles, and men's singles. The two double events will be for three games and the singles will be for four. In the mixed doubles there will be a team limit of 370 per team with 70% 200 scratch for men and 70% 180 scratch for the ladies with averages of December 31st. Men's doubles same as mixed doubles with the exception there will be a 390 limit on the teams.

This is a little discouraging to me because it means Buzz Fazio and I will be too strong to bowl. Such is life! In the singles you can bowl as many times as you wish but no two consecutive series on the same pair of alleys. Also, you can cash as many times as you place but only once in the top ten. For full details, see posters or ask Duane or Dick.

MORE POWER TO THE P.U.C.

It seems we have differences other than political among the members of the state employees. Some time ago the discussion between two of the teams from the Public Utilities Commission reached the stalemate stage so they took to the alleys Thursday night to settle the argument. The PUC team composed of Dave Ringland, Wheeler English, Bob Hollis, Wayne Straw, and Rudy Meffert knocked down 2647 pins to win the match over the PUC Utilities team composed of Bob Putman, Frank Kirby, Bob Woodburn, Fred Mehl, and Jim Jefferson who shot 2468. The Motors gang was led by Rudy Meffert who contributed a 206 game and a 538 series to the assault.

Disa & Data... Big scores for the week turned in by John Bone with 617 in the Classic League. Dick Phipps with 617 in the Commercial No. 2, Bob Ryan with 613 in the same league, Wally Carlson with 604 in the University Mercantile, Ed Logan with 239, 203, and 225 for a huge 667 in the Capitol Mercantile No. 1 league. Ev Clark with 855 high in the majors, Don Poulin 836, Pinsky Hartwell 825, and Tom Brennan 809, all in the majors. Having a heck of a time getting any strikes was Ray Gunn who finally settled with a 185 all-spare game...

Bigwheel for the ladies was Charlotte Possel who put together games of 187, 170, and 204 for a 561 series, a new high for the ladies Classic league at the U-Bowl... Ace Fish picking the 4-6-10 split Thursday night. Hasn't anyone ever told you it's impossible to pick that split, Ace? ... Don LeBond leaving the 1-5-6 and converting by hitting all three pins with the ball. Try it some time... Bob "Junior" Ryan continuing his hot streak with a tremendous 684 in pot games during the week... Ed Richards of the Cannery Local team leaving the 1-2-3-5-9... You must have been throwing a real "digger" on that one Ed... Most confused bowler of the week must have been Jim "Shiftless" Sheldon. Monday night in the Commercial No. 1 he turned in a fine 576 performance for the three game series. Then, Wednesday night in the majors, he shot the almost unbelievable series of 118, 135, 137, and 158 for 548, a cool 28 pins under his three game effort. Better run your ball through the cleaning solvent, Jim... Sunday night at 7:30 will find the annual war between the big ball boys and the duck pin artists under way with the first of a home and home match at the B & A alleys. A team from the Capitol will be firing against the duck pin all-stars at that time.

B & B Banter... Making the big noise this last week was Herb Uenast who fired a new alley record in open play by connecting for a 278 game. Starting with six strikes in a row, Herb left the 6 pin in the seventh frame, spared, then got four more strikes before finishing with a nine pin count on his last ball. Previous high game was set by Emery Alderman in 1952 when he counted 274... First half champs in the City League are the Modern Woodmen five composed of Les Dolge, Carol Capps, Earl Theilade, Howard Smith, and Fred Haase. First half champs in the Commercial league are the Mick's Sign Shop boys. Team members are Herb "278" Neinstad, Andy Goldsby, Chuck "Straight Ball Neinstad", Ed Davis and Tom Wood... Men's Top Ten are: Howard Smith, 159; Arnie Meyer 154; Jerry Davis 154; Fred Haase 154; Les Dolge 153; Glen Blanton 152; Herb Neinstad 152; Mel Neinstad 151; Keith Kaye 150; Bill Campbell 149; and Harold Johnson 149. Ladies Top Ten are: Alma Penny 152; Mary Polinski 149; Maxine Frye 142; Martha Fejes 139; Gladys Wood 131; Ella May Schaff 130; Dee Gauthier 128; Alvina Haase 123; Shirley Barnett 121; and Helen Randle 117... Salem Top Ten—Dick Phipps 200; Pinsky Hartwell 194; Larry Oslund 190; Tom Brennan 189; John Glodt 188; Frank Evans 187; Dean Henderson 187; Bob Ryan 185; Bob White 184; Tony Prudente 184. All are from the Major league except Prudente from the Classic.

Ladies Big Six—Ginny Garbarino 163; Charlotte Possel 163; Dot Albright 160; Phyllis Curry 159; Fran Aleshire 159; and Kay Krejci with 154, all from the Ladies Classic league.

Our salute this week goes to Ed Talbot, who will be bowling tonight with the Dyer & Sons Insurance in the state tournament. Ed's wife is ill so he has no one to run his coffee shop. Rather than leave his team in a hole trying to find a last minute substitute, Ed decided to close down the place and go bowl in the state. Congratulations, Ed, if everyone made the effort to bowl that you would never have such a thing as tardiness or substitutions.

Vikings Cut Big Deficit Near Finish

By PAUL HARVEY, III

The Eugene Axemen led the way Friday night to down Salem high 63-52 in Big Six play at Eugene. The Vikings were behind from almost the start as they took their second league loss against three wins.

Three points by Eugene center Norm Willoughby gave the Axemen an early 3-0 lead but Salem bounced back to tie it up on a field goal by Tom Pickens and a free throw by Bob Wolf. Then Eugene took the lead 6-3 on three free shots.

Herb Triplett banged in a field goal and Gordy Domogalla a free throw and it was six-all. The Axemen quickly broke away with four field goals and two free throws for a 16-6 lead. The quarter score was 16-8.

Hank Kuchera's Eugene squad lengthened their lead in the second quarter as they scored 16 points to Harold Hauk's Vikings. Wendell Raser's five points in the second period led Eugene to a 32-20 halftime lead.

Eugene enjoyed its greatest lead toward the end of the third quarter with Willoughby hitting for three field goals and Eugene led 51-31 with one quarter left in the game.

Salem just couldn't hit in the third period as they made but two field goals for 11 points while the Axemen were getting eight field goals and 19 points. Domogalla and Wolf each had a field goal in the quarter.

The Vikings were stronger in the final quarter as they cut down the Eugene margin nine points. Jim Knapp counted eight points as Salem was getting 21. The Axemen had 12 in the final quarter.

The winning Axemen had 23 field goals to 14 for the Vikings. Salem made 24 or 38 free throws while Eugene made 17 of 30.

Knapp led the Vikings in scoring with four field goals and seven free throws for 15 points. Gordy Domogalla had 11 and Tom Pickens eight for the next two halves for the Vikings. Don Ainge, Rason, and Willoughby all had a dozen to pace the winners.

Tuesday Salem plays at home with the strong Albany Bulldogs. It will be a Big Six game and it's the first meeting of the two schools this year.

Berra Signs; Mantle, Ford, McDougald Still Hold Out

NEW YORK (AP)—Having bagged Yogi Berra, their leading slugger, the New York Yankees today sought to bring some of their other stars into the fold for 1954.

Berra, who batted .296 and clubbed 27 home runs last year, came to terms yesterday after a brief conference with asst. Gen'l Mgr. Roy Hamey. The hard-hitting catcher reportedly will receive $42,000—a $5,000 boost—for trying to help the bombers to their sixth straight world championship.

Now Hamey and George Weiss, general manager are expected to use their collective talents in attempts to sign Mickey Mantle, Gil McDougald and Whitey Ford. All three have expressed dissatisfaction with the contracts they've been offered.

The Brooklyn Dodgers, the Yankees' World Series opponents two years running, signed Joe Black, their great relief pitcher of 1952. Much to Black's relief he will receive the same salary—around $12,000—as he did last season.

"We don't like to cut a man for one bad year after he has had a good one," Vice-President Buzzy Bavasi explained. Black, used only sparingly, slumped to a 6-3 record in '53 after his brilliant 15-4 record the previous year.

The Detroit Tigers, with the signing of righthander Paul Foytack, brought their satisfied group to 16. The Milwaukee Braves received the signed contract of utility infielder Billy Klaus.

The Berra-Yankees get-together came as somewhat of a surprise—particularly to the catcher. He had previously returned the club's initial contract unsigned.

"It was so easy, maybe I should have asked for more," he said.

Boice to Sneak Monday to Salem Breakfast Club
Stories of famous sportsmen, how they got their start and some boners they have pulled will be the topic of a talk by Chuck Boice before the Salem Breakfast club Monday morning.

Poppenheim, Yamato Vs. Kameroff, Henning
Ivan Kameroff will contribute his roughness to the spectacular tactics of John Henning Tuesday night in a tag team wrestling match against the peculiar but effective combination of Kurt von Poppenheim and The Great Yamato.

This Salem Armory scrap will produce a team which will get a crack at the All-Southern tag team trophy now in the vise-like grip of the Gorky brothers, Soldat and Ivan.

The appearance of "The Mighty" Atlas, a national television star, will heighten the other main event, which also will be two out of three falls or a 45-minute limit.

Atlas will maneuver his 212 pounds of musculature against Danno McDonald of Nova Scotia in what should be a rousing attempt by Danno to muss the Atlas up.

A special event at 8:30 will match George Dusette of Montreal and Pepper Gomez of Pasadena. Gomez will be remembered as a participant in the Tacoma benefit football game between the wrestlers and the Seattle Ramblers. It also was named to the junior college All-America team while playing for Pasadena.
