

Not Enough English Jimmy Demaret of Klamisha Lake, N.Y., tries to "body English" the ball into the cup on the 18th green at San Diego, Calif., Open Golf Tournament. The ball stopped on the lip of the hole. (UP Telephoto)

Blames Dressen All was buddy-buddy between Dodger pitcher Joe Black (left) and former Brooklyn manager Chuck Dressen when they posed for this picture in 1952. Black, appearing at the Hickok Award dinner in Rochester, N.Y., charged Dressen with being the reason for his poor pitching performance in 1953. The Giant pitcher said it was Dressen's experiments with his pitching style, and not the "sophomore jinx," which "ruined me last season." (UP Telephoto)

Osburn to Pilot Spokane Again

SPOKANE — Don Osburn notified the Spokane Indians Monday he will be back as manager of the Western International League baseball club in 1954. Osburn, manager of the 1953 championship team, said he will return here Thursday and accompany owner Roy Hotchkiss to Lewiston, Idaho, for the weekend WIL meeting. Osburn was returned to the Indians by the Philadelphia Phillies, who have a working agreement with the Spokane club which provides the Phils train and assign nearly all the Indian players. Osburn's team last year won the second-half WIL championship and defeated Salem in the postseason playoff.

Seattle Upsets Oklahoma City

SEATTLE — The second installment of the Seattle University-Arnold Short basketball series goes on stage here Tuesday night with Short and his Oklahoma City University stable mates gunning for revenge. Short, virtually a cinch to make All-America honors, scored half of OCU's points Monday night, but the well-rounded Seattle University squad had too much soup for the Oklahomans and romped to a 79-64 victory. The locals had clear sledding over OCU, rated the No. 9 team in the country in the latest Associated Press poll, as they jumped off to a 9-0 lead with only a shade over two minutes gone in the game.

EAST LANSING, Mich. — Michigan State football players have done well in the Senior Bowl game at Montgomery, Ala. Al Dorow was named "most valuable" in 1952 and Don Dohoney the "outstanding linemen" in 1954.

EAST LANSING, Mich. — The all-time home attendance record for Michigan State basketball was set in 1947-48, when 88,750 saw ten home games. Biggest crowd that season was the 15,384 who witnessed the Kentucky game.

Hurley Finds Out About U of W Regents, Gets 'No'

By JACK HEWINS
Associated Press Sports Writer
SEATTLE (AP)—It is safe to assume that Deacon Jack Hurley and the University of Washington Board of Regents wouldn't see eye to eye if they were locked in a telephone booth and wearing bifocals. Hurley doesn't dislike any of the regents individually. He has enough hate to go around all seven with Harvey Cassill thrown in. Mr. Hurley will expound at length on the subject but we can't quote him directly in a family newspaper. As you may have heard at one time or another, Deacon Jack manages a boxer whose name is Harry "Kid" Matthews and Cassill manages the university athletic plant. Both are well acquainted with all the portraits on United States money, from Washington beyond Franklin and Grant. These two art lovers are not

EOCE Divides With Nazarenes

LA GRANDE — Eastern Oregon College of Education posted a 108-85 victory over Northwest Nazarene Monday night to even a two-game basketball series. The Nampa, Idaho, team won Saturday night's game at Nampa, 94-81. Ted Schadewitz, EOCE guard, was high scorer with 34 points. Darrel Reisch and Duane Peppley topped the visitors with 19 each. Eastern Oregon led 22-19, 46-35 and 74-60 at the quarters.

Detroit Stabbing Fatal After Grade Hoop Tilt

DETROIT — A street fight between two 12-year-old boys after a grade school basketball game ended Monday night in the stabbing death of one of them. James Horton, 12, died of a knife wound in the stomach on arrival at receiving hospital. Police held a 12-year-old fifth grade classmate for investigation of murder. Only last week school authorities banned all major high school athletics at night because of the icepick stabbing of Ross DeBoskey, 17, star basketball player, after a night basketball game. DeBoskey was badly hurt.

Down to Stay Danny Nardico (right), who almost landed a bout with Champion Rocky Marciano, goes down for the seventh time after a hard left from Charley Norkus of Jersey City. The referee stopped the bout after this flooring in the ninth round at Miami Beach. Nardico suffered one of the biggest upsets of the year as Norkus was awarded a TKO.

Church League Champions Win

Three first-half league champions opened the second half with victories last night in the Salem Church Basketball league. However, two of the champions which were moved to a higher league found the going tougher and lost. Champions winning were First Christian in the Senior league, Englewood EUB in Intermediate "B" and Nazarene in Junior "A". Suffering a loss in a higher classification was Evangelistic Temple, with an 8-0 record in Intermediate "B" but losing 25-24 to St. Mark Lutheran (4-4 in Intermediate "A"). Calvary Baptist of Junior "B" moved up and lost. Results last night: Senior League—First Christian 48, Free Methodist 47, Calvary Baptist 41, Nazarene 26; First Presbyterian 45, First EUB 27. Intermediate "A"—Englewood EUB 34, First Methodist 41; First Baptist 28, First Congregational 27; St. Mark Lutheran 26, Evangelistic Temple 24. Intermediate "B"—Nazarene 43, First Presbyterian 32; Ketter Community 48, West Salem Baptist 28; Halbert Memorial 47, South Salem Friends 21. Junior "A"—Nazarene 36, Englewood EUB 17; First Baptist 25, Calvary Baptist 20. Pitcher Frank Sullivan, Boston Red Sox rookie up from Albany of the Eastern League, is 6-6 1/2 and weighs 215. Monte Irvin of the New York Giants has a lifetime batting average of .309. His 1953 mark of .329 was his best in five big league seasons. In 50 American Bowling Congress tournaments, 409 bowlers have scored a 1900 all-events total. But only 46 have hit the 211 plus average more than once.

Plans to Enlarge Oregon Gridiron, Court Approved

PORTLAND — The State Board of Higher Education approved plans Monday to enlarge the seating capacity at the basketball court and football field at the University of Oregon. The board approved architects' plans to add 900-seat balcony to McArthur Court. The balcony and two exit towers will be on the west side of the building. Four posts now there will be removed. The estimated cost of the project is $137,000. Engineers' plans for Hayward Field call for lifting of the east grandstand 20 feet and addition of 4,700 seats in front of the grandstand. The seats would be removed in the spring to clear the cinder track. Contracts on both jobs will be awarded March 8. The work is to be completed in time for the next football and basketball seasons.

PCC Champion Beaten on Mat

KLAMATH FALLS — Gary McClain, Oregon State's Pacific Coats champion, was pinned in the opening match as the Staters lost, 19-11, in a wrestling contest with Oregon Tech Monday night. OTT's Larry Dryden, 123 pounds, pinned McClain. OTI won three more matches before Oregon State scored. The OSC Rocks were defeated, 32-9, by Klamath Falls High School in preliminary matches.

EAST LANSING, Mich. — Michigan State hockey defenseman John Polomsky invented a cold-weather trigger adapter for the M-1 rifle while with the Marines in Korea. It was adopted by the Armed Forces and earned him a

FANFARE

Fights Last Night

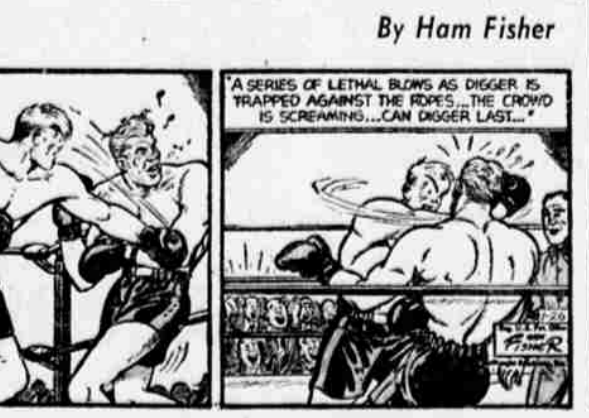

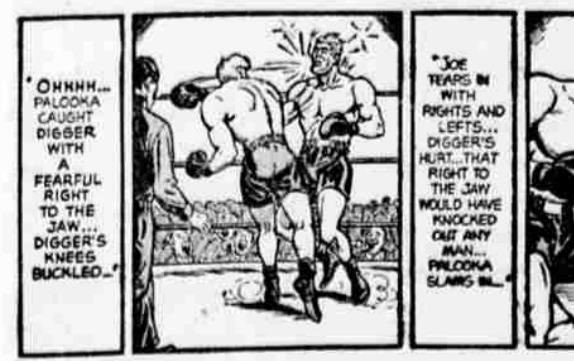

BROOKLYN — Tommy (Hurricane) Jackson, 194 1/2, New York, stopped Rex Layne, 202, Lewiston, Utah, 6. NOTTINGHAM, England — Bobby Dawson, 159, Paris, outpointed Yolande Pompey, 162, Trinidad, 10. MILWAUKEE — Ted Olla, 159 1/2, Milwaukee, outpointed Al Andrews, 151 1/2, Superior, Wis., 12. (Red Top) Davis, 129 1/2, Hartford, outpointed Jose Morell, 131 1/2, Puerto Rico, 10. PROVIDENCE, R. I. — Teddy (Red Top) Davis, 129 1/2, Hartford, outpointed Jose Morell, 131 1/2, Puerto Rico, 10. ST. LOUIS — Jesse Turner, 155 1/2, St. Louis, stopped Henry Henderson, 156, Kansas City, 4. DETROIT — Allie Gronik, 152, Detroit, outpointed Bill Suddeth, 149, Topeka, Kan., 8. MONTREAL — Armand Savoie, 137 1/2, Montreal, outpointed Houston Brown, 136 1/2, New York, 10. HOLYOKE, Mass. — Sammy Walker, 159, Springfield, stopped Willie Coleman, 154, Atlantic City, 7.

The Babe Back Babe Zaharias one of the greatest women athletes of all time, checks her starting time in the Tampa women's open golf tournament with McHenry Bolesta, pro at the Palma Ceia Club, in Tampa, Fla., shortly after she blasted the Ladies PGA, resigned from it and said she planned to set up her own group. She changed her mind the next day. (AP Wirephoto)

JOE PALOOKA

Some things don't change...

In this hectic, turbulent, fast-moving world some things remain constant and dear, the hamburger sandwich, the baseball bat and the taste of Olympia Beer.

So if you're distressed with the changing times, The "sensational," "different" and "new" and you look for a name that's always the same, just ask for Olympia Brew.

It's sparkling and bright, delicious and light, And always tastes like it should, it's the hops and the grains and the brewer's great pains... "It's the Water" that makes it so good.

"It's the Water" that flows in those underground streams That has given Olympia fame, that brings out the flavor that so many savor and always remains just the same.

Enjoy OLYMPIA BEER

"It's the Water" that makes the difference

Visitors welcome to "One of America's Exceptional Breweries," Olympia Brewing Company, Olympia, Wash., U. S. A. 9:30 to 4:30 every day