THE MAIL MUST GO THROUGH

Last week we received a card in the mail which we feel should be answered in this column. The correspondent, (we couldn't tell from the signature whether it was a man or woman) undoubtedly sincerely feels that the killing of wild game is a horrible thing. The letter rebuked the local Jack Waltons for presenting the Jim Bond show, saying "it is very unfortunate that the Salem (WVA) branch has chosen to sponsor that brutal hunter, Jim Bond, who exemplifies all that is base in man's attitude toward other living creatures. You need to study the lesson of Bambi, instead of sponsoring a man who makes a butcher shop of the wilderness."

BOND STRESSES CONSERVATION

Obviously, this individual never has seen the Jim Bond show, which shows scarcely any killing at all, and stresses the study of wildlife more than hunting. Bond came to Salem after a six-day show in Portland, sponsored by a church group, whose ministers recommended the show as wholesome entertainment for the entire family. Jim Bond is a conservationist primarily and a hunter secondarily.

We would like to remind the critic that "Bambi," the Disney cartoon, was intended as entertainment, not as a lecture on naturalism. As a result of the picture, many over-sentimental folk have "rescued" deer which later grew up and disemboweled their owners.

"Also, facts will reveal that there are more deer in Oregon now than there were years ago—as a result of sportsman interest. If these animals were not systematically harvested, they would eventually reduce the available forage, and starve by the thousands. Without the "brutal hunter" deer and many other forms of wild game would have a hard time fighting for survival.

CONSIDER THE POOR COW FAMILY

If the writer of the bitterly critical card is reading this column, we suggest he or she look down at his or her shoes. Unless that person is wearing sandals or rubber boots, it is pretty certain that a member of the cow family gave up the ghost to provide a pair of those shoes. And it must get very tiring for the critic to eat nothing but vegetables—naturally such a person would not think of eating meat, fish or fowl. Undoubtedly, that person must go into a frenzy at the sight of fur coats. Remember the lesson of Bambi's Rabbit, Reddy Fox, et al., ad infinitum!

Certainly, there are "brutal hunters"—but they are a minority, growing less each year. Hunters and anglers spend millions annually, on one form or another, to produce crops of game—that would not, if left to itself, survive under the stress of modern civilization. It behooves an individual to study these facts, before letting sentimentality overcome good judgment.

Salem high's Vikings stopped the sixth-ranked Albany Bulldogs 68-44 here last night as the Vikings played their best ball of the year to beat the highly ranked Albany team. Salem center Bob Wulf helped hold high scoring 6.7 Dave Shelby to two field goals and Albany could get only nine to 23 for the Vikings.

Harold Hauk's Salem team controlled the backboards throughout the game although they didn't have as much height as the Bulldogs. Albany just couldn't hit its field goals.

A field goal and a free throw by Jim Knapp and a field goal by Wulf put Salem into a quick 5-0 lead in the opening moments of the game. With several minutes gone Albany moved the score to 7-6 but then Salem moved away for a 20-10 first quarter lead.

34-22 at Halftime

Jim Knapp led the Viking drive in the first quarter with six points while Gordy Domogalla and Wulf were getting four each. The visitors had two field goals in the initial quarter, both by reserve forward Don Stamps. Six free throws kept them from falling farther back.

The play slowed down in the second quarter slightly as neither team could hit at the start of the period. Salem extended their lead two points for a 34-22 halftime lead. Herb Triplett led the Vikings with seven points while Phil Burkland had four in the second quarter.

The Bulldogs fell completely out of the picture in the third quarter as the Vikings tallied 22 points to eleven for the Bulldogs and it was 56-33 with one quarter left in the game. In the third period Salem hit for seven field goals.

Domogalla led with a quarter mark of eight points, Knapp had five and Tom Pickens had four. In the final quarter neither team had much of an edge as play slowed down from the torrid pace of the third quarter.

Springer Leads Quarter

Salem reserves added another point to the Salem lead with Larry Springer leading Salem to 12 points for the quarter to 11 for the Bulldogs. Springer had five of the points, Emmott had the high scorer in the quarter for the losers with seven.

In the first half it was Wayne Erickson, Wulf and Pickens getting the majority of the rebounds and in the final half Burkland, Pickens and Wulf held control of the backboards. Shelby, a senior, had little luck in getting off shots and getting rebounds.

Knapp led the Vikings in scoring with 17 points on six field goals and 5 free throws. His teammate Gordy Domogalla had 12. For Albany Shelby had eleven and Stamps had eleven.

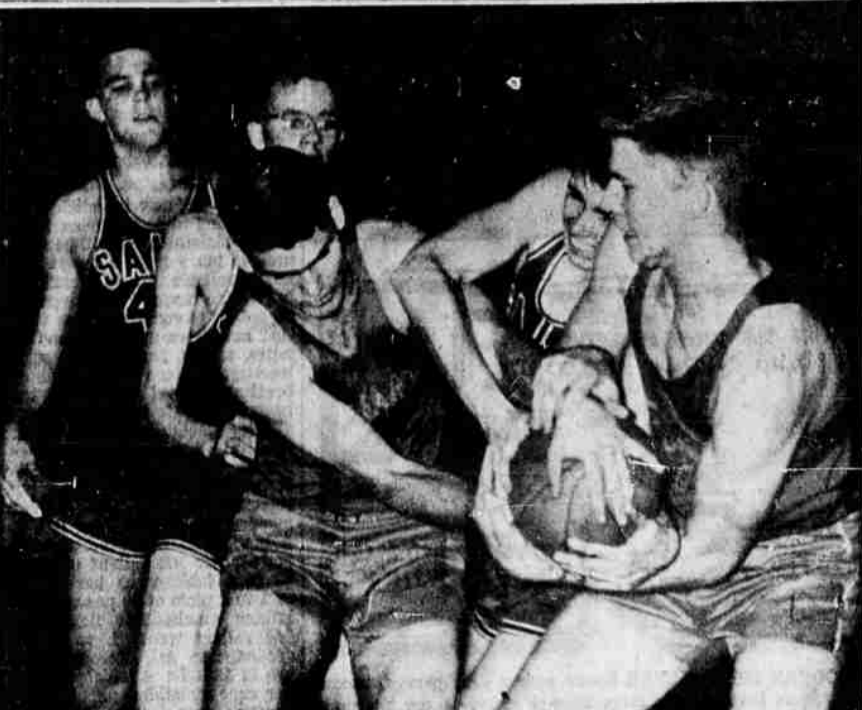

The Vikings missed 24 free throws in the game.

In the preliminary clash the Albany JV's scored an exciting 56-54 win over the Salem JV's. Salem led almost the entire first half but in the third quarter Albany overtook Salem for a 45-40 third quarter lead. Then Lee Gustafson's squad came back to take a 54-52 lead on Harry Santee's field goal with a minute left.

Marshfield Next

Hindger tied it up for Albany at 54-54 with less than a minute remaining but free throws by John Casbie and Moyer gave the visitors the win. Dan Luby led the Vikings in scoring with 12 while Don Zeh had eleven. Casbie had 17 for the winners.

Salem now practices for a weekend series with the Marshfield Pirates at Coos Bay. The games are Friday and Saturday in which the Vikings will be gunning to upset the strong Pirates.

Equally Divided The basketball was shared by three in this third quarter photo of the Salem-Albany game here last night won by Salem in an upset. Left to right are Bob Wulf and Don Crothers of Salem, Jerry Hazelwood of Albany, Wayne Erickson of Salem and Dave Shelby of Albany.

Moore Favored to Keep Title From Maxim Tonight

By BEN FUNK

MIAMI, Fla. (AP)—A moody, tight-lipped Archie Moore, although heavily beset by marital troubles, is a 2-1 favorite to defend his light-heavyweight championship successfully against jabbing Joey Maxim tonight in their 15-round outdoor fight in Miami Stadium.

Archie's wife Alice dealt the champ a legal blow that hurt him worse than anything the light-punching Maxim can throw when she filed a separate maintenance suit yesterday that tied up his purse and will keep him in Florida until a settlement is reached.

The action was particularly painful to Moore, 37, because it promises to be the richest payday of his 17-year career.

If predictions of a $100,000 gate hold up, his share will be in the neighborhood of $32,000. He is to receive 40 per cent and Maxim 20 per cent of the net pot, which will be sweetened by $50,000 in television and radio receipts.

Moore had been quiet and edgy even before his wife brought the legal action, possibly because of difficulty in making the 175-pound weight limit. During a strenuous two-week training program, he wore either heavy woollens or a plastic suit in the ring.

He had no weight trouble before. He scaled 172½ pounds when he lifted the title from Maxim in St. Louis Dec. 17, 1952, and 173½ when he defended it against Maxim in their return match in Ogden, Utah, last June 24.

Tonight's fight will be broadcast and telecast nationally by CBS starting at 10 p. m., EST.

Scattered showers were forecast, but nothing had enough to postpone the show. In event of heavy rain, the fight will be postponed a week and the semifinal between middleweights Bobby Dykes, Miami, and Johnny Lombardo, Mt. Carmel, Pa., will be staged in the Coral Gables Coliseum as the TV fight of the night.

Maxim has looked sharp and confident in his training sessions here and some competent observers are picking him to outbox Moore and become the first ex-light heavyweight champion to win back the title in the ring. Maxim says he'll weigh about 174 pounds.

FIGHT ON TELEVISION

The Archie Moore-Joey Maxim tangle for the world light-heavyweight title will be telecast tonight over station KOIN-TV of Portland starting at 7 o'clock Pacific time.

WVL Slate Cut in Half By Weather; Dallas Wins

WILLAMETTE VALLEY LEAGUE

W. L. Pct.	W. L. Pct.
Dallas 6 1 .857	Woodburn 3 3 .500
Estacada 3 1 .833	Mt. Angel 2 4 .333
Molalla 4 2 .667	Canby 1 6 .143
Molalla 4 2 .571	Woodburn 1 6 .143

Tuesday results: Dallas 76, Molalla 32; Woodburn 50, Canby 48; Sandy at Mt. Angel and Estacada at Silverton postponed.

Two postponements because of too much weather stifled Willamette Valley league play last night but the lead, Dallas, was able to win another to step ahead of idled Estacada.

Woodburn broke into the league victory column with a 50-49 edging of Canby to gain a tie for seventh with Canby.

Sandy-at-Mt. Angel is to be played tonight, and Estacada-at-Silverton was rescheduled for Saturday night.

Mush Brabour's Bulldogs were leading, 36-34, at the start of the final canto.

Jerry Plank scored 17 and Bob Higgins pushed through 10, counting his game winning foul shot, as they led the Woodburn scoring. Areland Bigham hit 17 and teammate Rayley added 14 as they led the losers.

Woodburn won the JV game, 47-32, led by Ahrens and Wade, worth who each had eight. Nyberg was high for Canby with seven.

Woodburn Tops Canby for 1st W.V.L. Victory

WOODBURN — The Woodburn Bulldogs scored their first Willamette Valley league win as they edged Canby, 50-49, here Tuesday night. Woodburn and Canby are now tied for the league cellar, each with one win-six loss record at the end of the first round of league play.

Bob Higgins, Woodburn guard, made the winning point on a free throw after the game was fouled when he was shooting, just before the final buzzer and he made his first shot at the free throw line count.

The entire second half had been nip and tuck with the score tied on almost every other basket. Canby had held a 13-8 first quarter lead but the Bulldogs closed the gap to a one point, 24-23, Canby halftime advantage.

Schools to Have Athletic Setup Again Next Year

A junior high school athletic program similar to that now in effect will be set up for 1954-55 term. This was indicated during Tuesday night's meeting of the directors by Supt. Walter E. Snyder after consulting with supervising personnel and coaches.

There will be no West Salem junior high school beginning with the 1954 fall term. The pupils will be transported to Leslie where they will be absorbed in the system there.

Leslie and Parrish will field two football teams each next fall with a round robin schedule of games in effect. A course of instruction in football fundamentals will be given 7th and 8th graders.

The basketball program will be continued to take care of all who wish to participate.

Yamoto, Von Poppenheim Squeeze Out Tag Victory

The stage was set for the return of the Gorky brothers to defend their tag team title next week after a victory last night over their nearest rivals in mean-barbings and sleeper holds were mixed with malice aforethought at the Salem Armory as The Great Yamato and Kurt von Poppenheim squeezed a decision from Ivan Kameroff and John Henning in the tag team finale. For three falls and 40 minutes the uproar continued until Yamato administered the anesthetic to Henning in the five-minute third fall to beat him.

Atlas Surprised

Danny McDonald surprised the muscled menace, the Mighty Atlas, to win the other main event from the vain and indignant strongman. McDonald took the first fall by having no mercy when Atlas turned his back on the Scotchman.

Atlas dared McDonald to put his full nelson on Atlas again after Referee George Dusette forced McDonald to break it the first time. When Atlas haughtily turned his back, McDonald dropped him and pinned him pronto. In the second fall, Atlas was disqualified for not breaking a full nelson on McDonald in the ropes and Atlas took a punch at Dusette, a lad for whom Atlas has low regard.

In the crowd-pleasing first match, the acrobatic Pepper Go-

Jesuit Colleges Ponder Reinstating of Football

LOS ANGELES (AP)—Catholic universities of the Jesuit order in California are seriously considering reinstating football, the Los Angeles Times reported Wednesday.

Sports Editor Paul Zimmerman wrote that students and alumni of Loyola of Los Angeles are working on the problem of resuming football and that alumni of Santa Clara University are meeting here Thursday night for the same purpose.

There are also indications, the Times said, that reactivation of the sport is being considered by the University of San Francisco and also St. Mary's although it is not a Jesuit school.

Football was abandoned by Loyola and San Francisco in 1951 and by Santa Clara in 1952.

Trabert-Seixas Team Defeated

SYDNEY, Australia (AP)—American Davis Cuppers Vic Seixas and Tony Trabert dropped a tight semifinal doubles match 6-4, 12-10, 10-8, Wednesday to Australians Clive Wilderspin and Neale Fraser in the Australian National Tennis Championships at White City.

They were the last Americans left in doubles play.

The finals will be an all-Australian go, with Wilderspin and Fraser meeting young Mervyn Rose and Rex Hartwig, who whipped veterans Jobi Bromwich and Adrian Quist, 7-5, 6-2, 6-3.
