Silverton AL Unit is Active

SILVERTON—At the Monday evening meeting of Delbert Reeves unit No. 7, American Legion auxiliary, at Legion Hall, there was formal dedication of a large flag, given to the unit by Mrs. E. E. Taylor. The flag had been the property of the grandfather of Mrs. Carl Moser, Portland, a local member of the auxiliary.

Membership was reported at 106, with the quota of 166 to be the goal. Sewing club is to be Thursday, February 12, the place to be named later. A card of thanks was to be sent Mrs. Crete Creanell, mother of Mrs. Victor Howard who is serving as sewing club chairman, for a finished afghan donated for a hospital gift by Mrs. Creanell. The members of the unit are to meet Saturday, January 30, at Legion hall at 10 o'clock for a general clean-up of the club room and dining room.

Reported as attending the visitors' program in Salem Friday evening as guests of the all-women's post, Pioneer No. 149, were Mrs. L. P. Oehler, Mr. and Mrs. Gladwyn Hamre, Mr. and Mrs. F. M. Powell, Mr. and Mrs. Ernest L. Starr, Mrs. Mae Higginbotham, Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Hall, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Allen, Mr. and Mrs. Dewey Allen and Mr. and Mrs. Len Osterling.

Mrs. Lewis Hall is entertaining the past presidents parley Friday evening, January 29. The unit president, Mrs. L. P. Oehler, named her committee personnel to be in charge of the various functions of the district No. 2 conference to be at Legion hall, Sunday afternoon and evening, February 7, beginning at 2 o'clock.

Mrs. Ralph Francis is to be general chairman of the 6:30 o'clock dinner and will plan the individual favors for the guests. Assisting in dining room arrangements and serving will be Mrs. Ralph Gordon, Mrs. Gladwyn Hamre, Mrs. Earl Baker, Mrs. Larry Carpenter, Mrs. Len Osterling to decorate the tables will be Mrs. Dewey Allen and Mrs. Bruce Billings who will also be responsible for the placecards and the registration designation cards, and Mrs. Mina Cooper and Mrs. Nettie Noren assisting with the corsages. Mrs. F. M. Powell will serve as hostess.

At the registration desk and presenting the name card will be Mrs. Dewey Allen, Mrs. Robert Allen, Miss Ina Harold, Mrs. Gottenberg, and Mrs. Mina Cooper.

Pages are to be the four young women who attended Girls State as guests of the auxiliary, Miss Nancy Benson, Miss Nancy Peckham, Miss Betty Montgomery and Miss Donna Jackson.

On the ticket committee are Mrs. Victor Howard and Mrs. T. P. Heidenstrom. Under supervi-

Activities Noted For Star Chapter

WOODBURN—The regular meeting of Evergreen chapter No. 41, Order of the Eastern Star, was Monday night at the Masonic temple.

Honored in the east were Mrs. Harlow Dixon of Evergreen chapter, grand representative of the state of Maine, and Mr. and Mrs. Gail Wengenroth, junior past matron and junior past patron of Evergreen chapter.

During the business session the annual report of the Masonic and O.E.S. trustees was read and filed. A letter of thanks was read from the Masonic and O.E.S. home for Christmas donations to the home. The letter relative to contributions for the endowment of Mrs. Francis as kitchen committee are Mrs. Mae Higginbotham, Mrs. Ernest L. Starr, Mrs. Lewis Hall, Mrs. W. S. Sherman and Mrs. Bruce Billings. Mrs. Olaf Anderson will make the coffee. Mrs. E. A. Kern will be in charge of the rolls, and Mrs. Raymond Church and Mrs. R. C. Jorgenson of the dessert.

fund was re-read and discussed and the letter tabled pending more information as to conditions at the home.

It was announced that a no-host dinner for members and families will be at 6:30 p.m. preceding the next regular meeting on February 8. Appointed as the committee in charge were Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Burt, Mrs. Myrtle Hall and Mrs. Ruby Peyton. Decorations will be in charge of Mrs. Martha Reiling and Mrs. Glenna Treupel. Practice for the officers was set for February 7 at 8 p.m.

Under "good of the order" Mrs. Dixon talked on her work as grand representative and Mr. and Mrs. Wengenroth each spoke briefly. A gift was presented to Gail Wengenroth by Harlow C. Dixon in behalf of the 1953 central star. Thanks were voiced to Willard Atwood for repairing and re-decorating the card tables. Mrs. Thompson, worthy matron, gave a report of the visit of several members to the Willamette Valley Matrons and Patrons association at Sheed recently. She announced her theme for the year as "Faith." A meeting of
