

Want Marciano, Moore Says after Taking Maxim Challenger Is Floored Two Times

Challenger Is Floored Two Times

By BEN FUNK
MIAMI, Fla. (AP) — Light heavy-weight champion Archie Moore, having finally disposed of Joey Maxim as a challenger, clamored Thursday for a crack at Rocky Marciano's crown.

That target, however, may prove to be as elusive for Archie as the light heavyweight title chance he pursued so many years. Chances are Moore will either fight Harold Johnson of Philadelphia or go back to South America on another exhibition tour.

Marciano's opponents this year probably will be Dan Bucceroni in March and Ezzard Charles in June or September. Indications are the champ's manager, Al Weill, is working on a schedule that leaves Moore strictly out.

The powerful Moore smashed Maxim to the canvas twice Wednesday night as he scored his third and by far most decisive victory over the Cleveland jabber, the only man he has ever fought as a champion.

He lifted the title from Maxim in St. Louis Dec. 17, 1952, and successfully defended it against Joey in Ogden, Utah, June 24, 1953. When he finally got his title shot, Moore, now 37, had been fighting for 16 years and had been a contender about 10 of those years.

"I think this one ended my series with Joe," Moore said with a big grin in his dressing room Wednesday night. "I'd like to fight Marciano now, but I'll take on Harold Johnson, if they'll get up the money."

Archie said he also would like to go back to Argentina, where he fought two profitable exhibition bouts last summer.

Before the fight he went three days without food and did four miles of road work Wednesday morning to get down to the 175-pound limit. He admitted he tired in the late rounds.

The spectators couldn't tell it, though, as the grim, determined Moore chased Maxim around the ring, driving home powerful lefts to the head and body and vicious overhead rights to the jaw.

In the eighth, a right to Joey's chin dropped the ex-champion for a count of six. Another savage right put Maxim down for a seven count in the 11th, and in the next four rounds, Joey was just fighting to survive. Maxim was cut over the right eye in the seventh.

A surprising late shift in the odds sent Moore into the ring a 6-5 underdog. The switch probably resulted from the champ's weight-making troubles and a separate maintenance suit by his wife, Alice, which tied up his purse.

He barely made the 175 pound limit at the noon weigh-in. Maxim weighed 174 1/2.

Last Two Rounds Lost For TV Fans in Area

PORTLAND (AP) — Television fight fans here last night missed the last two rounds of the Archie Moore-Joey Maxim light-heavyweight title fight because of a previous network arrangement, a television company spokesman said today.

There is only one TV channel on the coaxial cable between Sacramento and the Northwest, thus two programs cannot be transmitted at the same time. CBS did the fight telecast and had made arrangement to use the cable until 8 p.m. NBC had reserved use of the cable after that. The time ran out in the 13th round.

Officials at KOIN-TV, which carried the telecast, said they had no advance notice the telecast would be cut off at 8 p.m. They said the telephone company called the station to give warning only two minutes before the cutoff.

In his first professional bout on Nov. 6, 1947, Dan Bucceroni knocked out Bob Payne in one round.

Cougar's Pelt Of Lyons Men Measures 6-9

ALBANY—Pelts of three cougars, one of them measuring 6 feet 9 inches from nose tip to tail, were brought to the Linn county clerk's office by three hunters from Lyons who had killed the cougars recently in the snow-covered mountains south of Lyons in Linn county.

Two of the varnents were the product of one day's hunting. Receiving in all $45 in bounties from the county were Cletus Nydinger, Carl Stavang, Jr., and Everett Limbeck.

In each case the cat was treed by dogs and killed with .22 calibre rifle bullets.

Collecting a $3 bobcat bounty also was A. E. Hardesty of Albany, who caught the animal in a mink trap on the Calapoopa river a short distance south of the city limits.

The state will pay the cougar killers an additional $150 on their pelts while Hardesty will collect an additional $2.50 for his bobcat.

Ducks Claim Beavers Get Role of Series Favorites

UNIVERSITY OF OREGON, Eugene—Oregon's Cinderella role in the 1954 Northern Division basketball race may come to an abrupt halt this week-end when the Ducks meet the favored Oregon State Beavers at Corvallis Friday night and McArthur Court Saturday evening.

Coach Bill Borchers' Webfoots currently have a record of five victories in six starts and hold a one game lead over the Beavers, plus an extra half game bulge over Idaho, the other challenger for the championship. A double loss would drop the Ducks out of the lead for the first time this season and a split would enable them to hold on to the top spot for another week.

To Idaho Next Week
This is the first of a tough string of games for Oregon. The Ducks get Washington State at home next Tuesday and Wednesday with only two days of rest.

After the Beavers, they must travel to Idaho, then Washington at Seattle and finally another pair with Oregon State.

This week-end Oregon will bank on its shooting to offset the tremendous height advantage enjoyed by Oregon State. Led by Swede Halbrook at 7-3, the Beavers not only have nearly a three-inch man advantage in the probable starting line-up, but can command an equal amount of talent from the bench.

Oregon State, too, can shoot and the two team averages are practically the same for the first six league games. Coach Borchers' biggest headache will come from Halbrook's tremendous scoring ability and rebounding and the threat offered by Tony Vistelic's hook shots and the outside accuracy of Ron Robins, Johnny Jarboe and Reggie Halligan is only a shade less dangerous.

The Ducks expect to make no changes in the starting lineup which picked up two wins over Washington. Ed Halberg, one of the five best shots in the country, will team with Jerry Ross at forward and Max Anderson will complete the front line.

In the backcourt the Ducks will start two veterans, Capt. Wenger and Barney Holland. Four other Webfoots, Ray Bell and Bob Stout at forward and Bob Hawes and Howard Page at guard, seem assured of considerable action as the Ducks make their bid for an upset.

In the preliminary game Friday night, Coach Don Kirsch's Ducklings go with the varsity to Corvallis to try for win number two over the Rooks and on the next evening they meet Clark JC in the preliminary at McArthur Court.

Both pavillions are assured of a sellout. General admission tickets have been on sale since Tuesday and about 1,500 will be available the night of the game with the box office opening at 5:30 p.m. There have been no reserved seats on sale for the past five days.
