Many Students In Bible Class

SILVERTON—At the Monday evening meeting of the Silvertown week-day Bible Association at the Washington Irving club rooms, with Rev. Joseph A. Luthro presiding, assisted by Mrs. Estel Owen as secretary.

Only six pupils from the Eugene Field school do not attend. Miss Needles teaches Bible classes in the Canby schools on Thursdays of each week.

The city of Silvertown donates the building room for classes. The service stations and fuel distributors donate the oil for heating the class rooms.

The association expressed appreciation to A. E. McCullough, school caretaker, who looks after many duties in the Bible work.

New officers elected Monday night were: Pastor Joseph A. Cooper, president; Rev. Paul W. Henry, vice president; A. Ferguson, secretary; Olga Johnson, treasurer.

Visitation and open house will be March 8, 9, 10 for parents to attend on the days that their children are in class.

On Friday evening, April 2, a program will be given when Miss Needles will make presentations to deserving students.

The Bible classes will be completed May 21. Pastor Luthro, retiring president, installed the new officers.
