PIN PATTER

By BENN VALDEZ

The picture we use this week isn't that of public enemy No. 1 or even No. 2 but shows the mug of Bob Lawless, our sponsor of the city tournament.

Bob, who has his own business contracting for masonry work, is a good bowler in his own right and has only been sponsoring for a short time. All of our sponsors are great guys but Bob is one of the outstanding ones here in the city.

Speaking of the city tournament, we have an apology to make to all the gals whose pictures we took Thursday night. It seems we had a shutter lag (that's technical talk for I don't know how to operate the darn thing and the pictures didn't come out) and were unable to use any of the pictures we took.

Another sponsor who we would like to salute this week is Bob Ramage of Ramage's Beverage who sponsors more bowling teams here in the city than any other sponsor. Bob is a long time sponsor here in Salem and, at one time, fathered a team in the Major League.

At the present time he has teams in every house in the city and two teams in McMinnville. At some time in the not too distant future he plans on getting all of the teams together here in Salem and having a private tournament. Ought to be lots of fun for everyone.

The top ten in the city shows little change this week except for the addition of Bob Ryan and Bob Langhoff who have moved up into the select group. Still leading the pack is Dick Phipps with 200, followed by Pinky Hartwell 195, Larry Oslund 190, Tom Brennan 189, Dean Henderson 188, John Glodd 187, Frank Evans 182, Bob Ryan 187, Bob Langhoff 182, and Bob White 183.

The U-Bowl Women's Sweepstakes will conclude tomorrow night at midnight with four lucky women to be some pesos richer and one gal will have a new pair of shoes or a new bowling bag. Leaders in the absolutely free event so far are Edna Hopfinger 604, Marion Lienhard 578, Gertie Carr 574, Ardith Gould 564, and Vi Kitzmiller 557.

Leading the women's top ten in the city is Charlotte "City All Events Champion" Posselt with a 164 average. Following her in the elite is Ginny Garbarino with 163, Dot Albright 160, Fran Alexander 159, Phyllis Curry 158, Kay Krejci 154, Alberta Thompson 153, Beryl Muehlaupt 152, and D. van Dell 152.

Ducks Now Tied for N. D. Crown

CORVALLIS, (UP) — Oregon State college joined the University of Oregon at the top of northern division of the Pacific Coast Conference basketball ratings last night by trouncing the Ducks 52-41 here before 9936 fans.

Lofty Wade Halbrook, Oregon State center, scored 22 of his team's points to help swamp the poor-shooting Webfoots.

Coch Coach Slat Gill used the same starting lineup he used to defeat Idaho during the last series at Moscow and Oregon managed to get into the lead only once and to tie the game only twice during the first half.

The Beavers pushed their lead as high as 20 points in the third quarter. Halbrook made most of his points in the first half, accounting for the 10-point lead his teammates enjoyed at the halfway mark.

Max Anderson for Oregon drew runner-up scoring honors with 12 points but made most of them in the last quarter.

Oregon used a zone defense against the high-reaching Beavers and kept Anderson and Ed Halberg around Halbrook in an effort to slow down the seven-foot, three-inch center.

Ron Fundingsland, Oregon State guard, twisted a knee early in the game and was not expected to see action when the two teams meet in Eugene tonight.

Oregon staged an 11th-hour rally in the final minutes of the game when Anderson made two shots good to narrow the margin of the final score, but Halbrook finished the game with a good free shot to give the Beavers an 11-point edge.

Wolves Topple EOCE, Conference Deadlocked
MONMOUTH — The Wolfpack from Oregon College of Education downed the Eastern Oregon College of Education Mountaineers, 76-61, here last night.

The Wolfpack's win threw the Oregon Collegiate conference into a tie, with both teams having league records of three wins and two losses. This tie will be broken tonight, however, as the second game of the series is played at Monmouth.

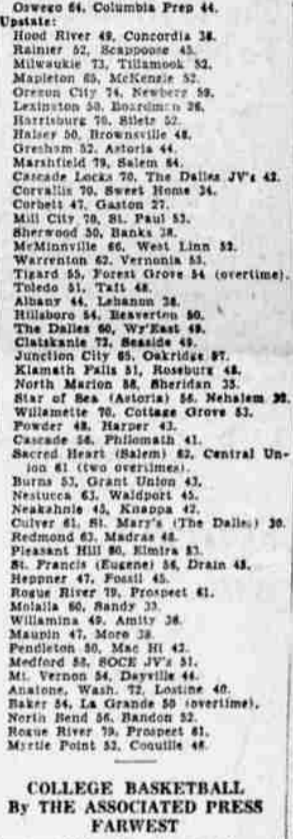

With Chuck Pinion hitting and Frank Grove rebounding, the Wolfpack proved too tough for the taller Mountaineers. Larry Chamberlain and Darrel Davis played a ball control game to help OCE hold the Easterners to their lowest score to date. The locals led at every quarter stop, 19-17, 36-32, and 58-47.

Chuck Pinion dropped in 23, Bob Frantz added 15, and the remaining starters, Frank Grove, Larry Chamberlain, and Darrel Davis, each broke into the double figures for the Wolves. Pryse and Adrian each hit 13 for the losers.

In the preliminary game the Cottage Grove team beat the OCE JV's, 70-35.

Willamette Squad Takes on Pacific In NW Conference
The Willamette University Bearcats will travel to Forest Grove tonight to take on the Pacific University Badgers in the only Northwest conference game on tap for the weekend.

The Willamette squad has been taking it easy for the past two weeks and should be eager and ready to go tonight in this game which should, by the record, be a breather for the team.

Expected to be in the thick of action in tonight's game are forwards Pete Reed and Dick Hoy, center Tom Gooding, and guards Duane Shield and Jerry McCallister. As Reed suffered an injured shoulder in practice, he may see only limited action. In that event, he will be subbed for by Jack Bishop, a Salem freshman.

Following this weekend's fray, the Bearcats will play Lewis and Clark February 5 and 6. The first game is scheduled to be played in Salem, the second in Portland.

Sacred Heart Remains Atop Capitol After Score

By DON WICHMAN

The hardest fought Capitol League battle this season took place at the Salem Army last night between the two first place contenders, Sacred Heart Academy and Central Union High school.

The Central squad had a slight edge in height and kept on edge in pointage throughout the first half, but the Cards set up a pace that crushed the odds and came through with a resounding 62-61 victory in a double overtime duel, setting them in a solid first place position.

Leo Grosjacques' Cardinals couldn't seem to get a hold of themselves in the first quarter and the Union boys pulled ahead 18-12, being led by a hard shooting right guard, Marc Nelson, who pushed through 12 of their points. In the second period, the Cards started hitting a little better, but still the opponents kept the lead, 27-24.

In the third quarter, Sacred Heart put its talents to work and pulled ahead 46-43, but cooled off enough in the last stanza to let Brunk tie it up 56-56 for Central with no more than two seconds to go.

Into the three minute overtime, the Cards sank four foul shots and Central knocked off a free shot along with a pair of floor tosses for another tie at the second gun, 60-60.

The second and last overtime lasted only a matter of seconds. Under the ruling of referees Lightner and Williams, the first team to score two points was to take the win and inevitably the number one spot in the league.

Out of the jump, Fred Staab fouled Gordy Brunk, who holds the title of being the second highest scorer in the league. If Brunk was to make both shots, Central would win — the first went in, the second rolled out. STA took the ball out, Vince Matt dribbled down floor, pushed it up and through the hoop for the Cardinal win. Matt holds first place in scoring in the league, and also was high for Sacred Heart last night with a total of 17. Big Jim Moriarty came in a close second with 15 and top scorer for Central was Nielson with 14.

The last time Sacred Heart played Central the game went into a tie, and an overtime, and likewise a win for Sacred Heart. The victory gives SHA a 5-1 win-loss record, and the loss sends Union High into third, with Staab taking second after a win over the Salem Bible Academy last night.

The Sacred Heart JV's, having led most of the way, were over-run in the last quarter to lose out to the Central Bees, 46-43. Sacred Heart plays the non-league Woodburn Bulldogs at the Armory tonight.

Cascade Beats Philomath 56-41
PHILOMATH — Cascade High school edged a notch closer to a tie for third place in the Capitol league by defeating Philomath, 56-41, here Friday night.

Cascade will play Stayton Tuesday in a makeup conference game and a victory over second place Stayton would move the Cougars up.

Quartertime scores were 13-8, 33-17, and 46-30, all in favor of Cascade. Neil Kinon of Cascade scored 16 and Bill Brown 12. For Philomath, Del Loran netted 15. Taking the JV prelim was Cascade, 44-27.

Stayton has a makeup game at Cascade Tuesday, when a victory for Stayton would mean a tie for first with Sacred Heart.

A second quarter letdown by Salem Academy followed an 18-17 first quarter lead as the Eagles squared away for 20 points in the next quarter to lead 37-25. At the three-fourths mark, Stayton was ahead 57-41.

Roger Nielsen earned 24 points for Stayton and his teammate Wayne Minton added 20. Virgil Fadenrecht, usually leading scorer for the Academy, found the net for 27 points from his guard position.

The preliminary found Stayton winning, 45-44.

Journal Carrier Quintet Loses
WOODBURN — The Capital Journal Carriers were defeated by St. Lukes Thursday night, 35-27 in the junior game of the Woodburn winter recreation league basketball.

In the senior division the Valley Mt. Co. defeated the S.P. Mart 53-15 to retain their unbeaten title. The Woodburn Jaycees won over the May Furniture Co. 57-32.

Games scheduled for next week are Monday, Feb. 1, Free Methodists and MacLaren school, at 6:45 p.m. in a junior game, and T.E. "Fighting Five" will face S.P. Mart in the senior division.

Cards Get First Negro, Pay Much
ST. LOUIS — The St. Louis Cardinals, who explained the absence of Negro players on their roster by saying they were waiting for a good prospect, apparently have found their man in a big, strapping first baseman named Tom Alston.

To make Alston the first Negro on their roster the National League Cardinals, who unanned players who will be optioned in time for the coming season, and first baseman-outfielder Dick Sisler from Columbus, Ohio, Redbirds.

Fights Last Night
NEW YORK (St. Nicholas Arena) — Harold Johnson, 178 1/2, Philadelphia, outpointed Jimmy Slade, 182, New York, 10.

Breakfast Club To Hear Lightner On PCC Teams
Al Lightner, Pacific Coast conference basketball referee, will relate how coaches prepare for the "big game" when he speaks Monday morning at the Salem Breakfast Club at the Senator hotel.

Lightner said that his talk will include the interesting Northern Division picture, what methods are tried to stop certain stars and how underdogs like Washington State can defeat highly rated ones like Idaho.

The 7:30 breakfast and program, open to the public, also will include a question and answer period after Lightner's talk.
