losing twice over the weekend to the Marshfield Pirates at Coos Bay, return home for a crucial Big Six battle with the Corvallis Spartans Tuesday night.

Corvallis, led by 6-7 Dave Gam-bee beat Salem earlier in the season by 14 points. The Spartans were also beaten by Marshfield and Eu-gene. After Tuesday night's game, Harold Hauk's Vikings face a rug-ged two game home stand with Grants Pass Friday and Saturday. Close in 3rd Quarter Saturday night Salem lost 78-64 after losing Friday night, 79-64. Marshfield took the lead midway in the first quarter and led all the rest of the way. Only in the third quarter did Salem get the chance to overtake Bruce Hoffine's Pirates as they moved within one point.

With 5½ minutes gone in the game it was 6-6 and Salem led for a minute on Bob Wulf's scoring. Marshfield held a 22-17 first quar er lead, mostly because of guard Ron Jones who poured in 12 points. The home team extended their lead

Jim Knapp hit a field goal and later added a free throw to trim the Pirate lead to 46-45. But that of three quarters.

23 points to 16 for the Vikings. Marshfield hit around 40 per cent of their shots both nights.

Salem center Bob Wulf took scor ing honors with eight field goals bowling: and five free throws for 21 points. Jim Knapp had 15 and Tom Pick-ens and Gordy Domogalla each had 11. Pickens played both a fine de-fensive and offensive game. For the winners guards Bob Ayre and Ron Jones each hit for 20 points while sophomore Sandy Fra-ser had 14. Wayne Young, center, came next with 12. It was the 14th win against 4 losses for the Marshfield squad. They also beat Salem
