Ransom Money Traced Down

ST. LOUIS (AP) — The St. Louis Post-Dispatch reports about $20,000 of the missing Greenlease ransom disappeared from Carl Austin Hall's briefcase between the time of his arrest and the counting of the money at a district police station the following day.

Hall, before his execution in the kidnap-slaying of Bobby Greenlease, told authorities he had about $20,000 in the briefcase when arrested Oct. 6.

The newspaper, in a copyrighted story in Sunday morning's editions, said when two special officers counted the recovered money Oct. 7 at the station, the briefcase was empty.

Less than half the $600,000 ransom paid Hall and his accomplice Mrs. Bonnie Brown Heady, was recovered in two suitcases brought with the briefcase to the station with Hall.

Your 1953 Income Tax

District Director of Internal Revenue R. C. Granquist today announced that the 1953 edition of "Your Federal Income Tax" has been published and that copies now are available.

This publication is issued each year by the Internal Revenue Service to assist taxpayers in filing their individual income tax returns," Director Granquist said. "The official title of the booklet is "Your Federal Income Tax, 1953."

"In this year's edition, many of the provisions of the most important income tax regulations which have recently gone into effect are fully explained," he continued. "In addition, the booklet discusses in detail Revenue Service rulings, representative court cases, and numerous questions which often arise when completing tax returns."

"Individuals and firms desiring may obtain them from the Superintendent of Documents, Government Printing Office, Washington 25, D.C., at a cost of 25 cents for a single copy," the director explained. "A 25 per cent discount is allowed on purchases of 100 or more copies consigned to a single destination. In order to facilitate delivery of the publication, the documents to have all orders filled within 24 hours after they are received."

For the convenience of taxpayers desiring to order copies of the booklet, order blanks are available in the office of the District Director of Internal Revenue, at Portland, Ore.
