Thomson Is Traded To Braves

NEW YORK, UP — Bobby Thomson, 30, was called the an-swer to Milwaukee's pennant prayers today, while Braves' of-ficials shrugged off any sugges-tions that the Giants may have outslicked them for the second time in four years by acquiring pitchers Johnny Antonelli and Don Liddle.
"I'm tickled to death," said Milwaukee Manager Charlie Grimm over the six player deal that brought him Thomson and catchbrought him Thomson and catcher Sam Calderone from the Giants in exchange for left handers Antonelli and Liddle, catcher Ebba St. Clair, infielder Billy Klaus and an estimated $50,000 in cash.

The entire Milwaukee front office took on a World Series' atmosphere when the deal was finally consumpted also vosted by ing the arrival of Thomson, whose dramatic homer against the Dodgers in the 1951 playoff won the pennant for the Giants, the Giants, themselves, were elated over the sorely needed help to their pitching staff.

Elsewhere in baseball, the Chicago White Sox signed infielders Nellie Fox, Neil Berry and Rookie Joe Kirrene, making a total of 31 players under contract to them for 1954.

The Chicago Cubs signed five players, pitchers Turk Lown, Jim Brosnan, John Pyecha and Don Watkins plus infielder Chris Kitsos, while the New York Yankees signed outfielder Hank Bauer and pitcher Steve Kraly. Cleveland sold veteran pitcher Lou Brissie, 29, to its Indianapolis farm team in the American Asso-

Jim Dykes Believes Orioles To Rise in New Environs

By BEN OLAN
NEW YORK & Jimmy Dykes a guy struck out or popped up took a look at the Baltimore situation today, inhaled on his always-present eigar and predicted, "We're gonna move up there."

The affable manager of the newest American league entry claims he's inherited a "good" club from the St. Louis Browns, one which will improve partly because of fan support.
