

Russian Agent in Japan Granted Asylum in U. S.

TOKYO (AP)—An American source said today Yuri Alexandrovich Rastvorov, a Russian diplomat-intelligence agent, asked for and was granted political asylum by the United States.

The source, who refused to be identified, told The Associated Press it is almost certain that Rastvorov has left Japan and will be en route to the United States. A Russian spokesman accused the United States of kidnapping Rastvorov, second secretary of the Soviet mission to Tokyo, which Japan does not recognize. The object, he charged, was "provocation of the Soviet Union."

Official American sources in Tokyo said they knew nothing of the matter.

The break in the long silence on the cloak-and-dagger story of Rastvorov stirred speculation that the largest spy ring in Asia may have been cracked.

The affable 34-year-old Russian diplomat disappeared from the Soviet Embassy Jan. 24, on the eve of his scheduled departure for Russia.

There was speculation that the Russian had been flown Saturday to Okinawa, a huge U. S. base 700 miles south of here.

S. I. Rumov, spokesman for the Russian mission, called in Japanese reporters and issued a prepared statement accusing "the American espionage organ in Japan" of seizing and holding Rastvorov.

The U. S. State Department and Far East Command had no comment. Rastvorov was known to be an intelligence agent. The Russian diplomats had free run of Japan and have been in a position to gather information on U. S. bases. Kyoto news agency reported earlier that Rastvorov was being returned to the Soviet Union to explain how he hatched a spy assignment.

If You Are A SALESMAN
And want to get in on the ground floor with a line that is going to provide one of the best jobs in Oregon with an annual income of $10,000, not wishful thinking, we can discuss our plan in a personal interview. If you have a history of floating from job to job, or if you are only curious, we will both be wasting our time. Applicants must own serviceable automobile, be at least 21 years of age, have good references, and have a desire to advance themselves. Sales experience helpful, but not necessary. For personal interview contact Mr. Sando, Senator Hotel, Salem, between 10:00 a.m. & 5:00 p.m. on Wednesday, February 3.
