ABOARD THE THUNDERBIRD — We are anchored off Magdalena Bay, a body of water about 17 miles across, big enough to hold all of the Navies in the world.

It's a gorgeous moonlit night. No sound now that the motors have been shut off, save the yelping of Mexican dogs in the little fishing village on the mainland. Six lads rowed across from there this afternoon, and we spoke Spanish. They brought us lobster (langosta) and cabrilla, a big type of sea bass. We had lobster cocktail tonight and broiled steaks from the deep freeze.

It was a wild night last night.

Four Corners

FOUR CORNERS — Club elections are news this week. On Monday night the Community Center Association chose Jack Groves for president of the organization for 1954; vice-president, Allen Gordon; second vice-president, Mrs. C. C. Robinson; secretary, Mrs. Harvey Meyer; treasurer, L. A. Morris.

On Tuesday evening the Rod and Gun club elected Tom Jones, president; vice president, Dale Jeffries; secretary-treasurer, Lawrence Lee; executive officer, Ted Miller; indoor range, Bob Allen; outdoor range, Lester Mattson; community center representative, Harold Hallman. A film, "Behind the Trophy," put out by the Oregon State Game Commission was shown.

The Firemen's auxiliary met Tuesday evening with Mrs. Dale Jeffries as hostess in her home. Assisting hostess was Mrs. Willis Shipman. Studying first aid work were Mrs. Frank Herschfeld, Mrs. Ted Miller, Mrs. Jess McInay, Mrs. Emery Hendrickson, Jr., Mrs. Charles Warren, Mrs. Leroy Mooers, Mrs. A. E. LaBranche, Mrs. Dave Behm, Mrs. Allen Gordon, Mrs. Morris Jones, Mrs. Ivan Brown and a guest, Mrs. Mary Trombley.

Silverton

SILVERTON—Continuing into the second week are services at Revival Center, North Second St., in the 900 block, in the recently completed sanctuary of the new church of which Rev. Don Hale is the resident pastor. The Center is inter-denominational with all groups welcomed at the meetings. The visiting evangelist who speaks each evening at 8 o'clock is Ray E. Pheph from Mariastown, Tenn.

F. M. Powell received word Thursday of the critical illness of his older sister, Mrs. Lucila Cornett, who is under care at the home of her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Clinton Straney of Albany.

Mrs. Cornett fell, fracturing her hip eight months ago, never having completely recovered. She was under special treatment at the Albany Memorial hospital for many weeks.

Dennis, the 2½-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Bob Morford, is a surgery patient at Silverton hospital, having entered Wednesday. His condition is reported as normal.

MT. ANGEL—Statue of St. Joseph by Frances Rich, famous sculptor, which will be dedicated at Mt. Angel Abbey by Very Rev. Damian Jentges Sunday, Feb. 7.

Religious Art Exhibit Ready

MT. ANGEL — Art entries of world famous artists in the field of religious art will be featured in the exhibit, "Chalices, Chasubles" and the Crucifix," scheduled to open at Mt. Angel seminary, Feb. 6.

More than 30 unusual crosses and crucifixes have been received, representing the work of such artists as Antonio Sotomayer of San Francisco, whose latest caricatures are appearing in the Saturday Review of Literature; David Tolerton, well known sculptor of Big Spur, Calif.; Francis Rich, renowned sculptor, whose statue of St. Joseph, which will be placed in the crypt of the abbey church, is scheduled for dedication on Sunday, Feb. 7, at 2 o'clock; Keith Monroe, one of the 11 American prizewinners in the international sculpture competition, The Unknown Political Prisoner, which was sponsored by the Institute of Contemporary Arts in London; Carl Merschel, famous Chicago sculptor; and Ruth Cravath, well known San Francisco sculptor, whose works are found in many churches in California, and examples of modern altar crosses by Lambert-Rucki, famous Parisian sculptor. The exhibit will include over 40 chalices, some of which are being loaned to the abbey by several priests in Portland and which are rare works of art. About 20 vestments will be on view, together with yardage for vestments from the famous Goben weavers in Kyoto, Japan, and of Scalmandre' of New York. The vestments will be the work of the Dominican nuns at the monastery of the Angels in Hollywood, and of Sister Mary Clare, O.P. at Mission San Jose' in California. Chasubles from Germany, France and Prinknoosh abbey, England, will round out the collection. The exhibit will open at noon on Saturday, Feb. 6, and remain open Sunday and Monday afternoons until 6 o'clock each day. On Sunday, Feb. 7, the new statue of St. Joseph, executed by Frances Rich, will be blessed by the very Rev. Damian Jentges, abbot of Mt. Angel abbey.

Each day of the exhibit, short illustrated lectures on the Chalices, the Chasuble, and the Crucifix, will be given by the Rev. F. R. Kennard, of the cathedral in Portland; William Justema, art director of St. Joseph's magazine, and Very Rev. Martin Polard, of Mt. Angel abbey, respectively.
