PIN PATTER

WELCOME TO THE 600 CLUB OF FOUR

Topping the headpin hitting parade this week were several members of the fair sex led by Phyllis Curry, who fired a huge 607 series Tuesday night in the U-Bowl Ladies Classie league. Phil piled up the big count with games of 161, 234, and 212 and joins a very select group of women here in the city. Our informant, Operative No. 13, reports that there are only four women in Salem who have joined the WIBC 600 club, the members being Aggie Meyer, Ginny Garbarino, Cas-

600 club, the members being Ag-gie Meyer, Ginny Garbarino, Cas-sie Bain, and Phyllis. The women covet the 600 arm patch just as the men do the 700 club patch. BONUS SWEEPSTAKES

The U-Bowl Ladies Bonus Sweepstakes concluded at mid-nite last Sunday with the following gals lugging home the loot. Edna Hopfinger garnered first place money of $40.00 with a 604 handicap total. Kay Krejci took second with 587 for $30.00; Marion Lienhard was third with 878 for $20.00; Joan Rounds had 577 for $10.00 and Gertie Carr grabbed last place with 574, good for a new Brunswick bowling ball. Congrats, ladies, but be sure none of the men con you out of your earnings.

GOOD TO THE LAST PIN While we are talking about the ladies, we might mention the closest finish we can remember took place in the Ladies City league at the Capitol. Chuck's Steak House and Bob Lawless' Masons tied for the first half championship and rolled a three game series to break the tie. After bowling the three games they were still tied right to th pin so anothr game was necessary. Chuck's Steak House triumphed 789 to 744 but none of the gals was too happy because their thumbs were just about worn out after all that bowling. How close can

Top Ten in the city saw the same gang in the first eight places with little change in the line-up except that Bob Ryan moved up a place with a big 811 series Wednesday night and five men find themselves tied for the last two places. Leading the pack with 200 and showing no sign of slowing up is Dick Phipps. Eating his dust, but not much, as they are too far back, are Pinky Hartwell 193; Larry Oslund 190; Tom Brennan 188; Dean Henderson 188; John Glodt 188; Bob Ryan 188; Frank Evans 187; and Ev Clark, Bob White, Duane Cushman, Ed Loyan, and Jack Olpey with 183.
