Mr. and Mrs. Clement Hendrickson of Salem visited the Hale Hendrickson family Monday evening. Later they all went to Newberg to visit the men's father.

Dean Schmitz and Kent Crowley are on the wrestling squad at OTI and Melvin Lehman is on the freshman wrestling squad at OSC. These boys got their start in wrestling at the Dayton High School.

Donald

DONALD—Raymond Peterson in company with Wayne Snyder of Portland, called in a former buddy of theirs at Oswego, Bud Langehans, Wednesday evening. These fellows were all stationed together in India during World War II. They were there for three years. Mr. Snyder lives in Pendleton, but at present is attending an irrigation school in Portland.

Mrs. Ben Quinn of Donald had as a guest last week, her grand nephew, Col. Robert "Bobby" Smith. He has just returned after spending five years in the service in Germany, and he is home on leave, but must report back for duty some time this month. He is scheduled to be released from the service in October. Bobby was born and reared in the Butteville area.

Sunday afternoon callers in the Lin Cromwell home were Mr. and Mrs. Charles Emiler of Portland. Mr. Emiler formerly worked for Mr. Cromwell.

The Womens' Benefit Association of Donald had its regular meeting and installation of officers Thursday evening, Jan. 28, with the state officers from Portland doing the installing.

Mrs. Merle Learfield and Mrs. Charles Gregory took their obligations and will come in with the class later.

Mrs. Lin Cromwell of Donald gave a stork shower honoring her sister, Mrs. Aaron Wilson, the former Mickey Peterson, on Sunday.

Mr. Wilson has been promoted to private first class now, and the couple are living at Ft. Lewis, Wash. Mrs. Wilson left for Ft. Lewis to join her husband.
