By DAVE BARROWS
There are no welcome mats out for visitors in the Northwest conference. Only four games have been won away from home in the circuit this year, one being Willamette's conquest of Linfield earlier.

And Saturday night it was a case of the home team being too tough again as Willamette dropped its second conference struggle, this one a 76-67 dumping by Lewis and Clark at Portland.

Zone Defense Stops WU
It reversed the Bearcats' brilliant comeback Friday night at home in winning 74-67. Willamette will play a Friday-Saturday series with Pacific this next week end, swapping courts again.

Saturday's downfall was in a rough, hard-fought game with plenty of contact which at times resembled a free-for-all. The Bearcats' inability to hit from the outside was the deciding factor as Lewis and Clark used a zone defense most of the evening. This stopped the hook shots of Tom Gooding, WU center, who ended with one field goal and five points, compared to his 22 on Friday. This goal came when the Pioneers switched into a man-for-man defense in the last few minutes.

Willamette had trouble getting the ball in to Dick Hoy and wasn't getting many inside shots either. Hoy paced the losers with 20, while Pete Reed and Jerry McCallister got 13 each.

Lewis and Clark jumped to a quick first quarter lead and was never behind. M. I. Schroeder and Ken Servas were the big artillery in this attack. Schroeder had eight of his 12 in the first period and Servas notched 25 points to go with his 24 of the night before.

Quartertime scores were 21-14, 42-33 and 56-47, all for L. & C. The Salem quintet drew within four points early in the fourth at 57-51.

Fresh Win, 75-63
The frosh made it two in a row over the Lewis and Clark first-year quint, to give the Bearkittens a 2-2 conference record.

Bill Turley, ex-Jefferson high school star, led the frosh of Willamette with 18 points. The frosh have a game at Albany high school Tuesday night and will host the Pacific frosh Friday.

Middlecoff and Furgol Meeting In Golf Playoff

PHOENIX, Ariz. — Cary Middlecoff, a seasoned man of many playoffs in golf, and Ed Furgol, who has never been in one, met Monday in the extraneous round of the $10,000 Phoenix Open.

The two tied off at the Phoenix Country Club over the 18-hole route, and a sudden death finale if they are still deadlocked at the end of the 18 holes.

Middlecoff, 32-year-old former National Open champion from Memphis, was the solid favorite to defeat the 38-year-old St. Louis pro.

They wound up in a tie at the end of the regulation 72 holes of the main show Sunday.

Furgol came from behind with a last round 68 to tie Middlecoff, who shot a par 71, for a 72 hole total of 272.

Satchel Wants Above $10,000

LOS ANGELES — Satchel Paige says it will take more than $10,000 to lure him to the Modesto club of the Class C California Baseball League.

Paige said here he hadn't heard officially from the Modesto president, Tom Mellis, who announced Saturday he was offering that much to the veteran Negro pitcher, recently released by the American League Baltimore Orioles.

Geronimo! California's Bob Albox (11) comes down for a one-point landing as his teammate, Bert Mastroy (30) battles with USC's Chet Carr (13) for the ball in game at Berkeley. High scorer for the game was Carr who sparked the Trojans to a 53-49 victory over the league-leading Bears. (UP Telephone)

Salem Man 2nd in State 'A' Singles, 2 Teams Rate

ALBANY—Two Salem bowling teams moved into the upper circles of the state tournament over the week-end at the Albany Bowling Lanes.

Orval's Used Cars of Salem carded 2604 to gain third spot among Class B teams, while Trailways Cafe of Salem hit 2573 for seventh in Class B.

Art Upston of Salem was hot for two of his three-game series in Class A singles to take over second place with 635. He rolled games of 210 and 244, then ran into a succession of splits for a final game of 181.

Meanwhile, Elwood Bolser and Ed Talbot, Salem, held on fifth in Class C doubles with 1087. Bill Cook is sixth and Mel Nichols eighth in Class C singles, and Mel Nichols clings to first in Class C all-event with 1649. Pete Price, Salem, third in Class C all-events with 1608.

Only four Salem teams rolled during the week-end. There are two more week-ends remaining for the tournament.

Portland State edged Oregon College of Education 54-52 and Eastern Oregon defeated Oregon Tech 82-72 in Oregon Collegiate Conference basketball games Saturday.

Spl Hannon scored a field goal in what officials said was the final second of the game to give Portland State its victory.

Bob Livingston, OCE coach, said Sunday he will protest the game. He contended the winning shot was fired after the quarter should have ended. The protest will be lodged with Stephen Epler, conference president, who also is director of Portland State.

The game was close throughout although Portland held small leads at the end of each quarter. Don Porter, leading conference scorer, paced the Portland attack with 28 points. Bob Frantz had 19 for OCE.

Eastern Oregon, the conference leader, had little trouble downing Oregon Tech. EOCE's Ted Schadewitz was high scorer with 28 points—19 more than Keith Thompson turned in for the losers.

The only conference game scheduled this week pits Portland State against Oregon Tech at Klamath Falls.

Seattle Hopes To Win 24th Tuesday Night

SEATTLE — The Seattle University Chieftains, their toughest hurdles behind them, will try to stretch the nation's longest basketball winning streak to 24 straight Tuesday night in a meeting here with College of Puget Sound.

The Chieftains, ranked No. 6 in the latest Associated Press poll, cleared a major obstacle Sunday night by topping Gonzaga 70-58 to sweep a two-game series at Spokane. They won Saturday night 71-49.

After Puget Sound, the Seattle five will rest two weeks, then close out their schedule with a pair of games here with Portland University. The Chieftains already boast victories over the two schools and expect to wind up their regular season with 26 straight wins and a single defeat. They were beaten by Wichita in the first game of the season.

Joe Pehaniak and Stan Glowaski teamed Sunday night to help the Chieftains to victory No. 23. Pehaniak dropped in 18 points and Glowaski 16. Jerry Vermillion was high for Gonzaga, also with 16.

Polinski-Miller Win Pin Money

Mary Polinski and Francis Miller were weekly winners of the $10 Duck Pin Bowling prize at the B & B Bowling Court Sunday with a total of 1067. Polinski had 587 handicap (551-36) and Miller 480 (438-42).

In other play Francis Miller and Troy Crabtree, 1023; Chuck Neilast and Herb Neilast, 1010; Herb Neilast and Francis Miller, 1007; Eddie Lepper and Harold Evenden, 992; Eddie Lepper and Earl Rempel, 893.

Northwest Gets One AAU Spot

SEATTLE — The Pacific Northwest will have only one team in the annual AAU basketball championship at Denver this year.

Tournament officials said Saturday the field will be held to 32 teams and the Northwest will not be permitted its usual three entries.

Two playoffs will decide the Northwest entry.

The first will be held at Seattle March 4 between the Western Washington champion and Oregon's Hillie. The winner will meet the Inland Empire champion, either at Seattle or the home city of the Oregon team March 8. The survivor will enter the nationals at Denver March 15.

Pacific Drops Linfield 89-75

By United Press
Lewis and Clark today was pressing for the lead in Northwest Conference play after defeating conference-leading Willamette Saturday night, 76-67.

The Pioneer victory evened a two-game week end series at Portland. Lewis and Clark is tied with Whitman and College of Idaho for second place with a 4-4 record. Willamette has a 5-2 mark.

Pacific and Linfield fought long and hard Saturday night, and Pacific finally came out on the long end of an 89-75 score. Tall Clint Agee scored 41 points to lead Pacific.

Whitfield to Shoot for 4-Minute Mile

By ED CORRIGAN
NEW YORK — Now that Mal Whitfield has no more worlds to conquer in the middle distances, he has decided to shoot for the sky—the fabled four-minute mile.

The former Air Force sergeant who won both the 600 and 800 in the Millrose Games Saturday night, said today he would run his first eight-furlong effort at the Santa Barbara Relays in April.

"While the indoor season is on," he said, "I'm going to keep doubling up. That's the best training a runner can get if he is going to try what I intend to attempt."

The lithe Ohio State alumnus will stick to the middle distances during the indoor campaign, which ends late next month.

"I don't particularly like the mile indoors because the board laps almost always are shorter than the cinders," he said, indicating they were more suited to the middle distances.

He didn't say he would run the four-minute mile, which thus far has eluded the likes of Gordon Pirie, Wes Santee and John Landy. But he said he would give it a good try.

In Saturday's meet, he won the 600 in 1:10.7 and the half in 1:54.2. For him, neither constituted an exceptional performance. He needed someone to push him in both. Reggie Pearman, who beat him in the beginning of the season, didn't have it and finished a distant second in the 600 while Marine Carl Joyce was the runner-up in the 800.

Joyce Barthel of Luxembourg shared the honors with Whitfield by winning the Wanamaker Mile in 4:07.5, breaking the tape 20 yards in front of Fred Will.

DEAF SCHOOLS TO PLAY
The Oregon School for the Deaf will play the Washington School for the Deaf tonight at the O.S.D. gym.

The preliminary will be at 7 o'clock.
