Canada Cannot Bid on Lumber

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Foreign Operations Administration, reversing an earlier policy, has decided against permitting Canadian mills to bid on 10 million board feet of timber the United States plans to send to Formosa, Rep. Mack (R-Wash) said Tuesday.

Mack said FOA director Harold Stassen has advised him the agency has decided lumber trades specified in the original bid were too high and new specifications on lower grades are being prepared. He estimated purchase price of the lumber would be around one million dollars.

Mack's statement said only American firms will be permitted to submit bids when the new calls goes out.

FOA's original decision to permit Canadian mills to bid on the lumber brought protests from Washington congressmen. They said the Formosa order would increase employment in U.S. mills and contended only American industry should be used since the United States is financing the FOA program.

Mack said he believed Washington and Oregon mills would supply most of the lumber, under the new specifications, because of their geographical advantage.

Other speakers will include soil and seed men from Oregon State college.

The meeting will open at 10 a.m., and will be over by 3 p.m., is was announced by O. E. Mikesell, county extension agent.

Timberline Debts Results in Court Suit

OREGON CITY (AP) — Creditors, attempting to collect more than $10,000 claimed due in unpaid bills from the management of Timberline Lodge, have sued in Clackamas County circuit court.

A number of food supply companies are among the creditors.

Asylum Granted to Young Czech Airman

BONN, Germany (AP) — American authorities granted political asylum Tuesday to a young Czech air force corporal who crash-landed in West Germany accidentally last week and then changed his mind about going back to his Communist-governed homeland.

The corporal is Georg Skorm, 22, one of two crewmen aboard a 14-year-old training plane that plumped down in an open Bavarian field near Bayreuth Friday.
