ette quintet. Saturday night they will swap sites. Agee, the 6-6 center who climbed among the conference scorers with his 41 points in a Linfield game, is half of the threatening combination. Norm Hubert, leading the circuit in total points, is the other.

Agee is averaging 14.5 in ninle games and Hubert 17.7.

Lewis, whose best tactics against opposing stars have been to outscore them, indicated he would start his usual lineup of Captain Dick Hoy and Pete Reed at forwards; Tom Gooding at the post and Duane Shield and Jerry McCallister at the guards.

Hoy, Reed, Gooding and Mc-Callister all are averaging 12 points or better.

Friday night's mix will be at 8 o'clock after the 6:10 preliminary matching the freshman squads. Jerry Frei is Willamette frosh coach.
