

Box Car Gaming Dive Hit by Albany Police

ALBANY — A raid by city police and county officers on a suspected gambling site late Tuesday night resulted in the arrest of nine men for gambling and three women for vagrancy, Police Chief Ray Maddy reported Wednesday. All those arrested were negroes.

The officers, acting in collaboration with a Southern Pacific company agent, raided three gambling tables in Southern Pacific railroad cars about 9 p.m. The cars, not in use by the company, were stationed near the north end of Howard Dr., where Southern Pacific section gang employees live.

All 12 persons arrested pleaded guilty Wednesday before Municipal Judge William Bollman and were fined amounts varying from $25 to $100.

The crackdown was reminiscent of a raid at the same place March 9, 1951. Restoration of gambling activities in the cars brought on the new arrests.

The women came here Tuesday from Portland with one of the gamblers, Maddy said.

One of the men, James Williams, 29, Albany, was nabbed in both raids. Because he had been arrested for gambling once before, Williams not only was fined $50 but was ordered to spend 10 days in jail, Bollman said.

According to police reports the vagrant women were Dorothy J. Jackson, 31, Ruth Smith alias Velma Scott, 29, and Mercedes Dorothy Dobbins, 26. Each was fined $50 of which $25 was suspended.

Kenneth James Freeman, 28, Portland, was fined $100 on a gambling charge and on a similar charge Daniel Webb, Jr., 37, Albany was fined $50, with $15 suspended, leaving $35 for him to pay.

Fined $50 each, with $25 suspended in each case, also on gambling charges were Roscoe Scriber, 49, Albany; Booker T. Robinson, 49, Albany; Willy Allen, 36; James M. Jackson, 30; Tommy Hutch, 35 and Thomas Howell, 39.

All of the defendants either have paid or have made arrangements to do so.

Irate Taxpayer Pays Tax Claim in Bloodied Dollars

DES MOINES, Iowa (AP)—An irate taxpayer, who paid part of a $13,542 federal tax claim with a tub full of silver dollars over which he had poured two buckets of blood, threw the U. S. tax office into a furor here yesterday.

The taxpayer, Robert Friel, 27, of Council Bluffs, said he staged the dramatic incident to "raise hell" with tax collectors because he said they had harassed his parents during an investigation of his finances. He said he got the blood from a packing house.

He drew the ire of Iowa Internal Revenue Director Frank Halpin, who accused him of defacing U.S. money. But after the Secret Service ruled that the silver dollars were not defaced unless they were permanently damaged, Halpin agreed to accept the payment.

However, he insisted that Friel count it. That took Friel more than two hours. The payment added up to $4,997.

Friel, who said he had been in the construction and investment business before he got into income tax trouble, told newsmen the incident "was his way of protesting the 'harassment' of his parents because of his tax troubles. He said his father, F. E. Friel, suffered three strokes as a result.

Students, Faculty Tie in March of Dimes

Parrish junior high has taken in 130 dollars for the March of Dimes from two basketball games between Parrish teams and the faculty. The final game of the series will be held Monday between the faculty and the Cardinals.

In the first game more than a week ago the Parrish Pioneers edged the faculty 26-25 as the students contributed $79. Fifty-one dollars was given Monday as the faculty downed the Greys 55-32.

Out-of-Salem Folk On Heart Drive

Announcement was made today by Lloyd G. Hammell, general chairman of the Marion County Heart Fund Drive, of the appointment of two out-of-Salem committee members to do volunteer service in their communities.

Mrs. Thomas DeArmond, assisted by the Rainbow girls, will handle solicitation in Woodburn and surrounding area, and Mr. Thomas Bockelman of Mt. Angel will head a group in this district to recruit funds for the drive.

Milk Control Law Praised

ALBANY — If the milk control law were abolished, Oregon dairy producers would have no guarantee they could sell their milk, William Wiedel, state milk marketing administrator, told members of the Linn County Dairy Herd Improvement association at their annual meeting at the Riverside Community hall Tuesday.

"The law protects the producer in Oregon, while California dairymen, for example, do not have this protection," Wiedel stated. "I feel we have the finest law in the nation in this respect."

The state official emphasized the producer must realize he has a responsibility to produce his milk as stipulated in his contract.

During the morning program DHIA members elected Jim Ruby, RFD 3, Seilo, and Clarence Mullett, RFD 2, Albany as directors.

Two Highway Men Win Promotions

Two promotions were announced within the State Highway Department this week by R. H. Baldock, State Highway Engineer.

Gerald W. Wimer is being promoted from Division Officer Designer in Roseburg to District

Maintenance Superintendent at Coquille

He will be responsible for the planning and supervision of all maintenance of highways and bridges in the district from the California border to Reedsport and to Camas Valley on the east.

D. J. Sage, District Maintenance Superintendent at Coquille since 1936 is transferring to the Eugene District to replace A. J. Ford, who is transferred to the position of a Resident Engineer in that area.

Wilfred E. Cole, 2274 Hazel Avenue, Salem, is being promoted from Draftsman to Designer in the main Road Design Section in Salem.

Cole started as a chairman with the Highway Department in 1946 and has previously held the positions of Computer, Draftsman, and Senior Draftsman.

Two Hours Given For Court Argument

Chief Justice Earl C. Latourette has restricted attorneys in the reapportionment case to two hours argument when the supreme court holds a hearing on the appeal of Rep. David Baum of LaGrande, February 24.

Attorneys for Baum were given one hour to present arguments while the state, represented in this case by Attorney General Robert Y. Thornton and Secretary of State Earl T. Newbery, were given 45 minutes. The remaining 15 minutes will be taken up by attorneys for a number of interveners in the case who joined with the state in defending the act.

The state has until February 20 to file an answer to briefs already filed by Baum. The suit was appealed from a decision upholding the constitutionality of the act by Circuit Judge Rex Kimmel of Marion county.
