NW States to Gain Brody, Wife Head Benefit From Fund Great Books Group

WASHINGTON (AP)—Secretary of Interior McKay said Wednesday four Pacific Northwest states and Alaska will benefit from a nine million dollar fund collected by the Bureau of Land Management from mineral activities on federal lands in the last half of 1953.

Most of the revenue is for oil and gas leases, McKay said. Wyoming will receive $3,345,432; Montana's share will be $412,564; Idaho will receive $61,650; Oregon $4,012; Washington $1,016; and Alaska $46,573.

French officials say that traffic in the Place-Augustin in the center of the city makes more noise than Niagara Falls.
