Varied Activities Are Listed

By ANNE RITCHEY (Capital Journal Correspondent) UNIVERSITY OF OREGON, Eugene (Special)—Sharon Heider was on campus Tuesday afternoon. She will go to Salem Friday to be in the wedding party of Connie Hilton who is to wed Eddie Bauer. Connie went to Oregon last year. The Heart Hop is set for this Saturday, to serve as the observance of Valentine's Day for the campus. It is a girl-ask-boy dance, sponsored by the YWCA sophomore cabinet. A "King of Hearts" is traditionally crowned at this dance, and this year the finalists for the honor are Bob Berry, Bruce Purvise, Dick Bruce, Ron Griffiths, Milan Foster and Wes Ball. The YWCA president, Cathy Siegmund, will crown the king. Last week's games against Washington State college were marked, according to those who analyze sports events, by singularly bad playing on the part of the Oregon five. Everyone thinks this will shoot our chances for the Northern Division title, since we have to tangle with Oregon State again in a couple of weeks. George Shearing played here on campus Wednesday night. He is, as few people realize, totally blind. There was lots of campus enthusiasm for his appearance, his records rating tops. Dorothy Peterson, a girl seldom in the more obvious corners of the campus because of her many hours spent at the music school, was in the Student Union "fishbowl" last Saturday morning, at a meeting of the Student Union Board. Interviews for new members of the rally board were last Tuesday night in the Student Union. The board has a new chairman, Sally Stadelman, through petition, and selected five new members from the 35 who petitioned. Last Friday night there was a Student Union fishbowl mixer, which was the last one for the term. It wasn't as well-attended as some have been, but was lively. Salem people there were Gloria Stolk, Roger Weaver and Pat Deeney. Salem people who have been in the infirmary lately are Plum Brown and Helen Callaghan. The epidemic of colds and "flu" that plagued the campus for awhile isn't so bad now, and visitors are allowed in the infirmary again. Miss Edna Stokes, Carson hall's house mother, is still in the hospital. She won't be able to return to her duties, and meanwhile several different women have been serving as house mother.

Married January 30—Mr. and Mrs. Orville Lee Johnson (Jessica Louise Kinsey), above were married in Salem January 30. The bride is the daughter of Mrs. Norma B. Shaw of Salem and Mr. Johnson is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Lee Johnson of Chico, Calif. (McEwan studio picture)

Mrs. Phillips Is Hostess to Society

SILVERTON—Twenty-two members and two guests attended the meeting of the Trinity Lutheran Dorcas society, Friday evening, at the home of Mrs. James Phillips. Mrs. Harlan Moe was co-hostess. Mrs. L. A. Meyer was worship leader and Miss Evelyn Torvend presented the second lesson of "The New Woman." Plans were completed for the annual birthday party which will be Thursday, February 18, 8 p.m., at the church. Twelve tables will be decorated to represent the 12 months of the year and those attending will sit at the table noting their birth date and contribute a penny for each year of age. This project is to help support a native Bible teacher in Madagascar. Mrs. James Phillips is program chairman and has asked Dr. Francis Clark of Oregon College of Education at Monmouth to be guest speaker. He will speak on "Quest for Peace of Mind." Dr. Clark is on leave from St. Olaf college, Northfield, Minnesota. There will also be musical numbers. Plans are being made to attend the mid-Willamette Circuit Wom-

AT OSC Initiations Reported By Groups

By Alice Lehman (Capital Journal Correspondent)

Oregon State college, Corvallis (Special)—The big week-end of the year for all dads of OSC students is coming this Friday and Saturday. Luncheons, basketball games, plays, displays and numerous other events have been planned for the fathers. "Cove" as it has been named by the Memorial Union committee was opened last Saturday night. This new attraction is a recreational center for the Memorial Union which will provide space for dancing and tables for the coffee drinkers. More initiations were held this past week. From Kappa Kappa Psi, men's national band honorary, comes the news of initiation of two Salemites, Robert Scott and Arvin Cross. Robert Scott was also initiated into Delta Tau Delta, national social fraternity. On the women's side of the ledger we also find initiations, Joann Ricketts, Marcia Maple, formerly of Salem, and Clarice and Claudia Waters are wearing their new pins from Pi Beta Phi. Lenore Phillippe, another Salem girl, is a new member of Delta Gamma sorority.

Coming up the week-end of the 17th and 18th is the annual Seahorse water show. This year the title is "Holi-Daze" and the theme for all parts of the show will follow this title. Many Salemites will appear in the show. Concert goes in the Corvallis area were well pleased Tuesday night with the performance of the Vinaver chorus. The group was composed of 11 singers and the conductor, Chemje Vinaver. "This time of year always brings election time for living groups. Wally Nelson of Salem was recently elected president of Phi Sigma Kappa, national social fraternity. Lloyd Hamlin, also of Salem, was elected secretary of the same house. Theta Chi, national social fraternity, recently installed George Caspar as chaplain.

SILVERTON—Mr. and Mrs. Duane Bloch (Iona Dallam) are being felicitated on the birth of their first child, a son, Tuesday afternoon, February 9, at Silvertown hospital. Grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Howard C. Dallam, Mr. and Mrs. William Bloch, all of Silvertown, and Hermann Bloch, great-grandfather, also of Silvertown.

en's Missionary Federation workshop to be at Immanuel Lutheran church at Woodburn Tuesday, February 23, starting at 10 a.m. Those attending are asked to bring a sack lunch. Coffee will be served by the Woodburn ladies.

Club to Purchase Shrubs for School

WOODBURN — There was a good attendance at the regular meeting of the Woodburn Garden club Tuesday night at the library club rooms when Mrs. Ingvay Edlund of Monitor, state chairman of corsage making, was present and gave a demonstration on the making of corsages and exhibited materials. Mrs. James Livesay was appointed chairman of the corsage making art for the Woodburn club and any one interested in instruction or materials may contact her. Mrs. Roy Kuns was program chairman and was in charge of the question box with many of the questions answered by members. Films were shown on the selection of the "All American Roses" from test gardens each year. Refreshments were served by Mr. and Mrs. Frank Covey and Mr. and Mrs. Harold Colgan. Valentine decorations were arranged on the table and about the room. For the next meeting, March 9, Mrs. Ray Glatt will be program chairman and hostesses will be Mrs. J. C. Kelley, Mrs. C. A. Wilkins and Mrs. Howard Leighty.

MT. ANGEL—On the occasion of her daughter Dorothy's eleventh birthday anniversary, Mrs. William Beyer entertained at a

Formal of Junior CDA Next Monday

MT. ANGEL — "The Sweethearts Swirl" is the theme for the Valentine formal of the Junior Catholic Daughters of America on Monday evening, February 15, at the St. Mary's school auditorium in Mount Angel. Dancing will be between 9 and 12 o'clock. Urs Wolfer and his orchestra to play. The formal is sponsored by the Mount Angel and Woodburn courts of the Junior Catholic Daughters of America. Young people from the neighboring communities are invited.

Junior Women Meet

LEBANON—Mrs. Roy Gardner showed a collection of her hooked rugs to the Junior Woman's club last week at the meeting at the home of Mrs. Jack Dillard. The speaker demonstrated the making of the rugs and showed patterns, dye and materials. Named as representative to the city safety council was Mrs. Robert Kane who will attend the meetings. Plans were made for a social evening in the armory day room on Saturday evening, Feb. 20. Husbands will be invited. Mrs. Charles Sevey is chairman for the event.

40th Anniversary

MT. ANGEL—Mr. and Mrs. Louis Roygens celebrated their 40th wedding anniversary Sunday, and observed the occasion with a special mass at 6:30 o'clock in St. Mary's church. At noon they were hosts at an anniversary dinner served in their home. A decorated wedding cake, topped by the numeral 40 in silver, centered the table where covers were placed for the honored couple, Mr. and Mrs. Roygens and Mr. and Mrs. Alphonse Maes of Hillsboro, Mrs. Alyce Dierckx of Forest Grove, Mrs. R. J. Welton and Mr. and Mrs. William Bean. During the afternoon friends and neighbors called to extend congratulations. Cards were enjoyed during the evening, and additional guests for the evening were Mr. and Mrs. Richard Foltz, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Platz and Mr. and Mrs. Louis Weissensels.

BPW Club

LEBANON—Careers and opportunities for women was the topic of the February fireside meeting of the Business and Professional Women's club meeting at the home of Mrs. Leneve Davenport, Tuesday night. Miss Isabel McLennan, Australian exchange teacher, told of the professional and educational opportunities of that country. Also speaking was Miss Mell E. Carter, city librarian, who stressed the need for equality in salary levels. For the dinner meeting on February 17, Mrs. Grace Swap, chairman of the international relations committee, has arranged for students from Norway, Denmark and Sweden to appear on the program.
