Eve Arden Wins as Best Female Star in TV Series

HOLLYWOOD—Edward R. Murrow, Eve Arden and Donald O'Connor won the top awards of the Television Academy last night, but a pudgy English professor stole the show.

Murrow, who rose to fame with his broadcasts during the London blitz, was named the outstanding TV personality of 1953 by the Academy of Television Arts and Sciences.

Murrow's See It Now was also named the best news or sports program.

Miss Arden, the glamorous schoolmarm of Our Miss Brooks, was announced as the best female star of a regular series at the gala dinner in the Hollywood Palladium.

O'Connor, one of the comedians on the Sunday night Comedy Hour, won the academy's Emmy as the best male star.

None of the top winners was present. The biggest ovation went to Dr. Frank C. Baxter, University of Southern California professor who delivers Shakespearean lectures on KNXT. He received awards for the best public affairs program, and as outstanding male performer.

Continuing on a highbrow level, the academy named Omnibus as the best variety program over the shows of Sullivan, Jackie Gleason, Sid Caesar and others. The two most popular programs in the country repeated their wins of last year. I Love Lucy was selected the best situation comedy program, and tight-lipped Jack Webb's Dragnet scored as the best mystery, action or adventure program.

The other national awards or bests:

Dramatic program: U.S. Steel Hour.

Public affairs program: "Victory at Sea."

Children's program: Kukla, Fran & Ollie.

New program: Make Room for Daddy and U.S. Steel Hour (tie).

Supporting actor in a series: Art Carney of the Jackie Gleason Show.

Audience participation, quiz or panel program: This Is Your Life and What's My Line (tie).

Supporting actress of a series: Vivian Vance of I Love Lucy.

The TV academy awards are nominated by television editors throughout the nation and final selections are made by the academy's 550 members.

Lincoln Could Have Handled Any Present Day Wrestlers

WASHINGTON (UP)—There is no doubt that Abe Lincoln could handle any or several of the grunTERS that pass for wrestlers these days.

The 16th president, as the books will tell you, was more powerful than his fence post figure would lead you to believe. There is the oft repeated story about the time he challenged the town roughneck to rattle — for no money or chalk, even — someplace in Kentucky. The future President, it says in several books, flexed himself, walked across the dusty street and picked up his opponent.

Gov. Knight III, Cordon to Speak

PORTLAND (UP)—Sen. Guy Cordon (R-Ore) is scheduled to speak at a Lincoln Day rally of Republicans here Friday night in the place of Gov. Goodwin J. Knight of California.

Gov. Knight sent word Thursday that laryngitis would prevent him from speaking here. The senator agreed in Washington, D. C., to catch a plane that is scheduled to arrive here an hour before the time of the speech.

Fire Chief Test At Woodburn

WOODBURN—Interviews with applicants for the proposed position of full time fire chief for the city of Woodburn and the Woodburn rural Fire Protection district will be held Saturday, Feb. 13, starting at 2 p.m. at the fire hall here.

Dr. James Deagen and Jess Fikan will represent the city council with President Lynn Simon and David St. John present from the district board of directors to conduct the interviews.

A salary of $4000 per year has been suggested, the new chief to replace one of the three drivers now working on the dispatcher system and the part time chief of the joint fire department.

North Howell

NORTH HOWELL—Dinner guests on Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Espe were their daughter and family, Mrs. Loren Rolie and children Rod, Kelly and Rick from Salem.

Recent guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Andy Hall were Mr. and Mrs. P. B. Johnson of Oreno, Neb.

Mr. and Mrs. Andy Hall visited Sunday in Portland at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Hatrick. They came to help their granddaughter, Kathy, celebrate her birthday anniversary. In the afternoon the Halls visited at the home of their friend, Mrs. W. A. Taylor who is 86 years old.
