Gospel Minister Court St. Church

G. Fred Hoy, west coast evangelist and nationally known gospel preacher will begin a series of revival meetings at the Court Street Christian church on Sunday, Feb. 14, at 10:50 a.m. Before his entrance into the field of evangelism, Hoy served as pastor of the First Christian church of Inglewood, Calif., for 11 years. For the past eight years Fred Hoy has held meetings for both large and small churches from coast to coast. The meetings will feature special music nightly from local talent as well as out of state guests. Typical dynamic messages which will be heard during these meetings are "When Is He Coming?", "Tried Men," "The I Think Religion," and "If I had Just One Sermon to Preach."

Gospel Meetings at Mennonite Church

The Pratum Mennonite church will be engaged in a series of Gospel meetings with the Rev. H. P. Fast of Reedley, Calif., as the guest speaker.

Beginning on next Wednesday evening, February 17, the services will continue every evening except Saturday. Service time will be 7:30.

The Rev. Fast, pastor of a church in Reedley, is engaged in a daily radio broadcast called "Bible Treasures Time." In addition to this he is chairman of the Board of Missions in his denomination—a member of the board of directors of Grace Bible Institute of Omaha, Nebraska, and is constantly in demand as a Bible teacher and evangelist. Much of his teaching and preaching ministry is enhanced by use of large canvas charts. He will be using a chart in the series here, entitled: "God's Plan in the Light of Prophecy."

In addition to the illustrated messages there will also be a variety of special musical numbers throughout the series.
