Chicago Grain

CHICAGO OP — All grains fell back on the board of trade Tuesday under light selling pressure inspired in part by the weather. While the Southwestern winter wheat belt did not get much moisting there was apple rain or snow ture, there was ample rain or snow in much of the Midwest and North-west. This brought quite a bit of selling into oats, corn and new crop wheat.

Soybeans also sank, largely be cause buying interest seemed to lag at current price levels. Bean meal continued to move ahead, setting a new 1954 high at $78.00

Wheat closed 14-1 % lower March 2.13 %; corn % to 1 cent lower, March 1.51 ¼; oats %-1 % lower, March 76 ¼-76; rye 2 to 2 % lower, March 1.18 ¾-½; soy-beans 1 ¾ lower to ½ higher, March 3.21 ¼-3.21, and lard 12 to 38 cents a hundred pounds lower, March 16,65p16.62.
