How do you choose?

Have you ever wondered how you choose the food you eat, your new spring hat or kind of tie you wear? Is it just to please yourself, your own eye or sense of taste or do you also think of others... how will they like your choice? Now why, for instance, do so many choose Olympia Beer? Is it the name? The name is held in high regard. Is it the flavor? The flavor's light, refreshing, and best of all, dependable. Is it the famous water from the artesian wells—the water that makes the difference in Olympia's character? Or, is it the appreciation you receive when serving Olympia to your guests... that feeling of approval that you've chosen well... for them? Perhaps it's all of these things, all added together, that go to make a choice.

Enjoy OLYMPIA BEER
