Friday and Saturday — Oregon at Washington; Oregon State at Washington State.

MOSCOW, Idaho — The Idaho Vandals, still hoping for at least a share of the Northern Division Pacific Coast Conference basketball pennant, gained ground on front-running Oregon State Tuesday night with a 45-42 decision over the Washington State Cougars.

The win moved Idaho within a game and a half of the Beavers, with three games left on their schedule. The Vandals wind up their season next week, playing Washington State at Pullman Tuesday and Washington at Moscow Friday and Saturday.

Washington State's tight zone defense kept Idaho in trouble through most of Tuesday night's game. The Vandals were never ahead more than two points, and once trailed the Cougars by six points. WSC led 22-21 at the half. Dwight Morrison's 10-foot push shot and Bob Garrison's free throw, both with only seconds left in the game, gave the Vandals their margin of victory.

WSC's Ron Bennink took scoring honors with 16 points. Morrison bucketed 13 for Idaho.

The two teams went down to the wire neck and neck. It was tied 11-11 at the end of the first period. WSC was out in front 22-21 at the half and at the end of the third quarter it was again tied 35-35.

With four minutes to play, Idaho edged out ahead 42-41 and then went into a stall but Cougar Forward Ron Bennink tied it 42-42 with a free toss.

Vandal Center Dwight Morrison then took over the leading role and registered a field goal and a foul shot to close out the game.

Reynolds Talks Yankee Contract

NEW YORK — A rather skeptical Allie Reynolds was scheduled to talk contract with the New York Yankees Wednesday as the champions sought to sign another of their big stars for 1954.

The Big Chief, his work on the pension fund committee completed for the time being, expected a hard tussle with Roy Hamey, the Yankees' trouble shooter.

"Do you think I can get what I want?" he asked. "Frankly I don't know." Allie reportedly is looking for a $42,000 pact.

The Yankees had considerable success in their contract negotiations Tuesday. They bagged left pitcher Eddie Lopat and third sacker Gil Medscoff. Lopat, a 16 game winner in 1953, signed approximately $25,000. Gil will get an estimated $18,000.

Lesser, Partner Still in Running

PALM BEACH, Fla. — Favorites were still in the running as the 19th annual Everglades Golf Club Matched Foursomes Golf Tournament went into quarter finals Wednesday.

The Stone-Cleary duo defeated Mrs. Freda Nolan of New Castle, Pa., and Ed A. Cooney Jr. of Brae Burn, Mass., 1-up in 20 holes.

Please Jim Whitmore, Salem center, appears to be begging the ball to come to him in a scuffle under the basket last night at Albany. At left, No. 17, is Phil Burkland of Salem, while at right is Dave Shelby, Albany center. Reaching in from behind is a player identified as Rex Stamps, Albany forward.
