Eight New Gray Ladies Announced

Ready to complete their training course for volunteer work at the Oregon State hospital are eight new Red Cross Gray Ladies. They have been attending 12 hours of classes, have been supervised in eight hours of ward experience and have assisted at a visit of the Red Cross bloodmobile. Now they will also participate in the two programs of the Red Cross at the state hospital: ward parties in wards where there is little planned recreation, and cosmetic therapy in wards where women need to take an interest in their personal appearance. The completion of the training course does not mean the end of training for these volunteers, however. All Gray Ladies at the state hospital must attend periodic classes where discussions of psychiatric care are given.

Since the beginning of the Red Cross volunteer program at the state hospital, 27 women have given more than 2,000 hours. The active members of the corps at this time numbers 22.

According to Mrs. Gordon Shattuck, chairman of volunteer training for the Marion county chapter, the following Gray Ladies will complete the course: Mrs. Steve Anderson, Mrs. Murray Brenaman, Mrs. Merritt Butler, Mrs. George Goforth, Mrs. Hollis W. Huntington, Mrs. E. C. Jaqua, Mrs. Otis Van Blaricom and Mrs. Wallace Wharton.

YOU GET

"BONUS QUALITY"

MILK

at no extra cost

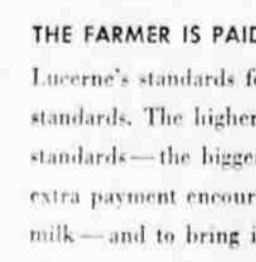

because of Lucerne's unusual farmer-dairy program

Lucerne "Bonus Quality" Milk is milk that's always well above legal standards for purity, flavor and cream-content

THIS "BONUS QUALITY" BEGINS ON THE FARM
Lucerne sends its own fieldmen to advise the farmer on the selection, care, and feeding of his herds... and to see that the highest degree of sanitation is maintained in caring for the herds and in handling the milk. And to safeguard the milk from farm to you, Lucerne uses the most modern methods known to dairy science.

THE FARMER IS PAID EXTRA FOR "BONUS QUALITY" MILK
Lucerne's standards for milk quality are substantially above legal standards. The higher milk scores—according to Lucerne's standards—the bigger bonus the farmer gets from Lucerne. This extra payment encourages farmers to work toward "Bonus Quality" milk—and to bring it to Lucerne.

YOU CAN PROVE LUCERNE'S "BONUS QUALITY" YOURSELF
Just taste it. Day after day it has the same rich, rich flavor. That's because Lucerne is uniformly richer than our State law requires.
Yet because Lucerne is distributed the low-cost way—through stores only—it costs you nothing extra. With all the extra care and the extra cost that goes into "Bonus Quality" Lucerne, it still sells for the lowest price permitted by law.
