

Vacancies in Schools of AF

Numerous vacancies for elementary and secondary teachers and principals in the U. S. Air Force overseas dependent school program are anticipated in England, France, French Morocco, the Azores, Newfoundland and Tripoli for the 1954-55.

Qualification requirements for these positions are:

Elementary and secondary teachers, a bachelor's degree from an accredited college or university with at least 18 semester hours in education and a valid teaching certificate. A minimum of three years' teaching experience is required. A master's degree may be substituted for one year of experience.

All individuals must be either currently in the teaching profession or not out of the profession more than one year, during which time they must have been furthering their education. Rural school teaching experience is particularly desirable.

Age requirements: Men, 23-55, and women, 23-45. Salary for grade school teachers $3410 to $4160, plus allowance; high school teachers: $4250 to $4855, plus allowance; principal: $5060 to $5810 plus allowance. For further information regarding these positions, the State Employment Office located at 710 Ferry Street, Salem, may be contacted.

Prevent Heart Disease

Cardiac involvement (heart trouble) is preventable. To reduce the possibility of encountering heart disease:

1. Keep weight normal
2. Exercise but avoid excess
3. Keep calm. Avoid worry and nervousness
4. Keep stomach and bowel action normal
5. Avoid mucus and gas forming foods
6. Heart health depends upon good general health
7. Perhaps the most important single factor in maintaining heart health is proper nutrition. The heart tissues (all tissues for that matter) cannot be expected to function normally if the diet does not contain ALL needed vitamins, minerals, and enzymes. Therefore, follow the best nutritional program in order to insure better and longer heart health.
8. Have a Naturopathic examination to KNOW how healthy your heart is now.

HERE FOR MARINE INSPECTION

McEwen on Wheat Board

Ralph McEwen, wheat farmer from Athena, has been appointed by Governor Paul Patterson to serve on the Oregon wheat commission. He will replace Jens Terjeson who resigned from the commission effective February 15.

McEwen has farmed in Eastern Oregon for the past 10 years and prior to that was a cereal chemist with a large Pacific Northwest milling company. He served as president of the Oregon Wheat Growers League during 1948.

Recently McEwen has also been appointed by Secretary of Agriculture Ezra Benson to serve on the national grain research advisory committee.

While attending Whitman college at Walla Walla, Wash., he majored in chemistry. Later he narrowed his studies to cereal chemistry while enrolled at the Dunwoody Cereal Institute in Minneapolis and participated in specialized courses in milling and baking.

Hollywood Again Sets up Organization

Salem's Hollywood Business Association, long inactive, has been revived.

A meeting at the Willamette Valley Bank Monday night was largely attended by businessmen who indicated a determination to restore the Hollywood shopping district to what is considered its rightful place in the community.

To accomplish these plans are being made to make the district more attractive, to get more facilities for the district and promote modern merchandising methods and services. The organization also will cooperate with other civic bodies for the development of a greater Salem.

New officers of the organization are: Bob Batdorf, president; Al Flicker, vice president; O. R. Eckersley, secretary; G. C. Meeks, treasurer; Ted Johnson, Earl Mootry, Fred Davis and Cet Rawlins, board of directors.

State Featured in Vocational Journal

Vocational Education in Oregon is featured in the February issue of the American Vocational Journal, just off the press.

The lead article of eight pages, illustrated with pictures and cartoons, tells the story of vocational work in the state.

The American Vocational Journal is published monthly by the American Vocational Association, Inc., Washington, D.C.

Fair Weather Disappearing

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Spring-like weather which prevailed for the past several days in the Eastern half of the nation appeared on the way out Wednesday as cooler air moved into Eastern states.

Rain and snow accompanied the chilly weather in the Northeastern states. The cooler air was expected to extend over most of the Eastern area although mild weather prevailed early along the Southern and Central Atlantic Coast.

Record temperatures for the date and for February were reported Tuesday in several Eastern cities. Readings were in the high 60s and 70s whereas Midwest readings dropped 20 to 30 degrees from Monday's balmy marks.

The wet belt in the Northeastern region extended from the Eastern Great Lakes region and upper Ohio Valley eastward to the Atlantic Coast and from Virginia northeastward into New England. Light snow was confined to Northern New England. One of the heaviest falls was 4 inches at Burlington, Vt. More than 2 inches of rain fell in Buffalo, N.Y. Rain also fell on the West Coast from Central California northward through Washington. Generally fair weather was reported in most other parts of the country.

Lost Flier's Estate Large

On September 8, 1952, Morris W. Pitts of Tacoma and two young sons took off from Salem airport in a single-motor private plane. They were never heard from again. In Tacoma the estate of Pitts, a business man, has been appraised, on the supposition that he is dead, and totals $63,862.06, according to an inventory filed with the Pierce County clerk Tuesday. The petition for administration proceedings, filed because Pitts left no will, said the weather was bad at the time of the take-off and he was advised not to take off. He was 33. His sons were Ronald, 13, and Michael, 8.
