LOS ANGELES—Oregon State boasts a lead of six departments of North division basketball statistics in conference games through Feb. 15.

Wade Halbrook leads in scoring, field goal marksmanship and rebounds. His teammate, sophomore Jay Dean, paces free throw shooters, and the Beavers as a team lead in field goal percentages and defense.

Halbrook's point average for 12 games through February 13 was 22.3 on 94 field goals and 77 free throws for a total of 287 points. Next in line were Ron Bennink, Washington State, 17.9; Dean Parsons, Washington, 14.0; Dwight Morrison, Idaho, 13.8; and Bill Rehder, Washington State, 12.9.

Halbrook's field goal percentage was 48.2 percent on his 94 goals in 195 tries, ranking him ahead of two Oregon men, Ed Halberg, 45.7 per cent, and Max Anderson, 40.7 per cent. In the rebound department, Halbrook averaged 12.3 per game for 10 games for Parsons and 9.8 for Morrison.

Dean's free throw percentage was 82.8 percent on 24 points in 29 tries. Other leaders were Barney Holland, Oregon, 81.6 per cent, and Harlan Melton, Idaho, 78.8 per cent.

cent as a team, having hit 252 of 693 field goal tries, to Oregon's 36.2 per cent. The Ducks excel from the free throw line with 64.1 percent while Idaho has the lead in scoring with 65.3 points per game.

Oregon State has allowed but 52.4 points per game to opponents and has held foes to 31.4 percent on their field goal attempts. The Beavers also have the best rebounding game with 437 to their foes' 379.

Two Northern Division series are scheduled this weekend with Oregon State journeying to Washington State and Oregon to Washington.

Circuit's Entries All In Action

With only one and a half games separating first and last place teams, all Northwest conference quintets will pound the hardwood floors Friday night knowing that their efforts could open the way to the championship.

Linfield (4-6) will drive over from McMinnville to play Willamette (5-4) Friday night to see if the Beavers' streak of losses to Pacific (three in a row) can be extended somewhat. Then Saturday night the rivals will try it at McMinnville.

Elsewhere, College of Idaho (4-5) will be at Lewis and Clark (5-5) both Friday and Saturday and Whitman (5-4) will be at Pacific (6-5) for two nights.

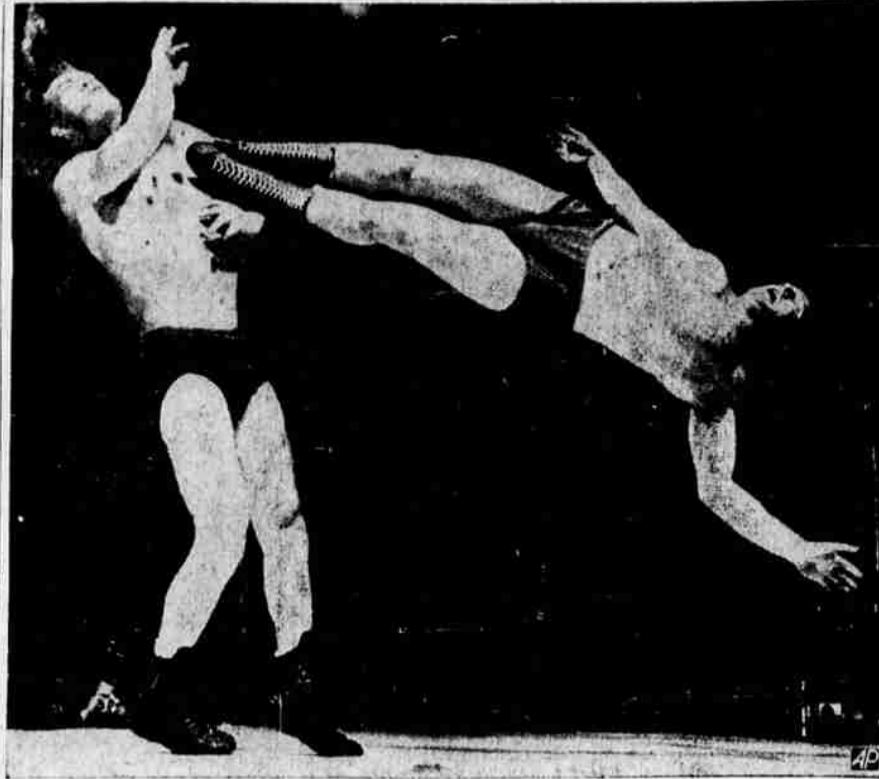

May Juggle Lineup

Coach John Lewis hinted Wednesday that he will produce a switch or two in his starting lineups as he tries to improve the team's ball handling. He said he might start Dale Gustafson, sophomore from Harrisburg, at guard and Bill Covard, senior forward.

Dave Gray is back in limited action after injuring his back in the Pacific game here last Friday.

Linfield Jarred Lewis and Clark, 23-74, last Saturday or else the Pilgrims would be in first place. Coach Roy Helser pointed out he needs a sweep of the five remaining games to win the title but the Wildcats can play the spoiler's role to the hilt.

Dave Sanford heads the Linfield scoring list and Milt Krueger and Ray Olson are next, Olson being the best rebound man.

Arcaro to Ride Calumet's Duke's Lea in '54 Derby

By GAYLE TALBOT
NEW YORK (AP)—The time has come around again to spread the alarm that the Jones boys, father and son, have a Kentucky Derby horse, and that Eddie Arcaro has promised to ride it for them May 1 at Louisville.

This combination up to now has batted exactly 1,000 per cent in the 3-year-old classic. Four times Arcaro has straddled a Calumet colt trained by Ben the elder and son Jimmie, and each time the world's richest jockey has trotted him back to the winner's circle.

Passed Last Year

Last year, for a heartening change to the other stables, the Jones boys and Calumet passed their hand, not believing they had a horse capable of running with Native Dancer. But now they are back, and this is the customary warning issued by this bureau.

Their colt's name is Duke's Lea. His pappy was the famous sire Blenheim II, whose previous progeny included the great stretch-running Whirlaway, winner of the 1941 Kentucky Derby. This one also likes to come from away back.

The reason you might have heard very little about Duke's Lea until just lately is that he ran only one time last year, in April, and didn't do any good then. The Jones boys started turning him loose only recently out in California.

After a few trial spins, the newest Calumet threat came up to lose by a nose. Since then he has run away with three straight races, including a four-length victory in his most recent outing on Tuesday, a six-furlong affair in which he packed high weight of 120 pounds and finished eased up under Arcaro.

Favored Saturday

Now Duke's Lea is, of course, favored to win the $106,000 Santa Anita Derby this Saturday. This race stretches out to a mile and one-eighth, only a furlong short of the Kentucky Derby route, and should indicate how far the colt likes to run.

Jimmy Jones, who learned from his revered father to tell nobody nothing, is quoted from out there as saying that Duke's Lea apparently can "go a distance." Coming whence it does, that is roughly equivalent to saying he looks like a second Citation, whose earnings enabled Ben Jones to buy another bank.

Staff Begins NCAA Ticket Sorting Work

CORVALLIS — Business Manager Jim Barratt and his staff started the arduous task this week of filling out applications for the Western Regional NCAA basketball tournament, to be held in Gill Coliseum on March 12 and 13.

Applications were accepted on Monday, February 8, and within eight hours time a sell-out crowd was assured for both nights. Unfortunately, hundreds of applications had to be returned without acceptance.

Although several clubs loom as favorites to reach the Corvallis tourney, none have definitely gained a berth as yet. The Pacific Coast conference champion gets a berth here, as does the Skyline conference kippin'. Idaho State already has been named by the NCAA committee to meet a team-at-large from the area, possibly the strong Seattle university quint.

The winner will come here, as will another winner of the team-at-large versus the Border conference champion.

Reeves Peters is chairman of the NCAA selection committee, other members being Hank Iba, Oklahoma A & M; Stan Watts, Brigham Young; and Tippy Dye, Washington.

Lewiston Signs Cameron, Bergan

LEWISTON, Idaho, (AP)—The Lewiston Broncs baseball club announced Monday the signing of Clint Cameron as player and assistant manager for the 1954 Western International League season. Cameron hit .305 as a catcher for Lewiston last year.

Another player signed Monday by the Broncs was Nick Bergan, a reserve infielder. Bergan saw only limited action with Lewiston last season.

OSC Wrestlers To Go to WSC

CORVALLIS — The toughest test of the season awaits Jim Dixon's Oregon State varsity wrestlers Saturday, when they take on the defending champions of the Pacific coast Washington State college—in a match at Pullman.

OSC Leaves For Pullman To Play WSC

CORVALLIS — Oregon State's league leading basketball team left Thursday for a weekend series at Washington State that has an all-important bearing on the northern division race.

Coach Slats Gill said he planned to start a lineup composed of Tex Whiteman and Jay Dean, forwards; Swede Halbrook, center; and Ron Fundingsland and Larry Paulus, guards. Alternating with that group in practice this week were Forward Tony Vlastela and Guard Ron Robbins.

The Beavers tripped the Cougars twice in Corvallis two weeks ago, but expect a much rougher time on the WSC home floor.

Biggest Orange problem is to stop high-scoring Ron Bennink, although Bill Rehder and several Cougars have scored consistently in recent games.

Other Beavers on the traveling roster are Ted Romanoff, Jerry Crimins, Reggie Halligan, Johnny Jarhoe and Bill Toole. Oregon State planned to stay overnight in Spokane's Ridpath hotel Thursday night and then board a bus down to Pullman Friday morning.

Marion Motors Gains Lead Tie In City League

Marion Motors moved into a tie for first place with the Salem YMCA last night with a City Basketball league victory over the Marine Reserve, 63-20. Each has a 9-1 record.

Wolgammott's lost its game with St. Paul, 51-46, to allow the idle Aumsville Firemen to take over third place while Wolgammott's eased to fourth with a 7-4 record.

The other game found the Salem Sophs winning their second game of the campaign, 48-37, at the expense of the Naval Reserve. The two now are tied for sixth.

Demaret, Harper Lead Texas Open

SAN ANTONIO, Tex. (AP)—Sub-par rounds were a dime a dozen Thursday as a mighty field moved out in the first 36 holes of the $12,500 Texas Open.

A couple of old-timers along the ret of Kiemessa Lake, N.Y., and Chandler Harper of Chattanooga—paced the field.

Demaret and Harper each showed Brackenridge Park's regulation figures to be something of a joke Wednesday as they fired 9-under-par 62's in the final tuneup rounds.

Five defending champions are in the field of 128 pros and 18 amateurs who will play the first 36 holes then be cut to the 60 low scorers and ties for Sunday's final rounds.

300 Well-Wishers Greet Manager Storey at Fete

By A. C. JONES
(Capital Journal Sports Editor)

Harvey Storey, said there really isn't a halo around his head after all the praise heaped upon the new Salem Senator manager before 300 baseball followers last night at the Marion Hotel Gold room.

Thoroughly welcomed as player-pilot, the 37-year-old veteran ventured to predict: "We will win more than we will lose. I won't say we will win the pennant but the winner will have to beat Salem. The year is important to me and Hugh Luby (general manager) and to everyone in Salem and we hope it will be Salem's best year."

To Be Husting Club

Pointing out he does not know who will be on the club roster yet, Storey said he could guarantee it will be a "good, hustling ball club. I hope we still have young players despite the new veteran rule because I don't want to have any slower than I am."

Storey was introduced by Eddie Basinski, Portland Beaver second baseman and former teammate of Storey's. Basinski, who "forgot" his violin in Portland, lauded Storey as "one of three 100 percent men I have known in 11 years of baseball, on the field and off, one who never did anything which hurt anyone but who was the main cog in the 1947 Portland team. I feel grateful and honored to have known him. He will touch your lives as he did mine, for he believes in the virtues of life."

Bob Blackburn, Portland Beaver sportsleader who introduced Basinski, said he admired Storey's ability to produce in the clutch and tagged him as a "born leader."

Bob Abel of Tacoma, president of the Western International league, said "I know you have a playing manager who knows the answers" and recalled when

LSU's Pettit Finds Stellar Play Shaded

NEW YORK (AP)—Bob Pettit of Louisiana State would have been the talk of college basketball this season, if Frank Selvy had been out of the picture.

Furman's Selvy, of course, is the leading scorer in major college competition with a 42-points per game average and with almost every important record in his possession.

But Pettit, according to the latest NCAB figures is second with a 33.1 average.

Bob's average is higher than anyone ever has posted except for Selvy this season.

There are other statistical departments in which Selvy doesn't hold the lead. Niagara's Charlie Hoxie and Larry Costello are the most accurate shooters in major competition, Hoxie sinking 57.9 per cent of his shots from the floor and Costello 86.2 per cent from the foul line. And Connecticut's Art Quimby is still the No. 1 man in rebounding, hauling in 23.3 a game to 22.2 for Charlie Lack of Marshall and 22 for LaSalle's Tom Gola.

Durando Thinks He Can Repeat Over Castellani

NEW YORK (AP)—Ernie Durando has a simple philosophy about boxing.

"If I can catch and hit a guy, then I've got him."

Having caught and belted Rocky Castellani the last time, the Bayonne, N. J., Bruiser feels very confident that he can do it again Friday night in Madison Square Garden.

"I'm going to try and knock him out again," he said as he finished his training in Stillman's Gym. "I'd like to make it real sensational."

Told that Castellani was a 2-1 favorite despite Ernie's seventh-round technical knockout in their last fight, Durando said:

"That's okay with me. I'm the best underdog fighter you ever saw. I was an underdog against Castellani two years ago. I was a 4-1 underdog to Charley Humer in Paris last October and I knocked the Frenchman out in the sixth round. Any guy I can hit solid I can knock out."
