IT'S NOT UNCOMMON

and not impolite, either, to read during lunch and dinner in the Hotel Marion Dining Room.

We encourage it. And even provide the material! I bet it looks kind of funny to the casual passerby, though. Everybody in the room with their noses right in their soup. Maybe it'd better explain what they're doing.

We added some historical place mates to the tables and these diners are merely reading as they eat. They say they enjoy it, too!

You can bring a book, though, if you want to.
