Special Week Events Planned

By BARBARA JACKSON (Capital Journal Correspondent)

Students will participate in Christian Resources Week beginning Monday, as the Willamette campus prepares for its annual religious observance, in connection with Brotherhood Week in Salem. Launching the program will be an address by Miss Muriel Lester of London, who will speak in the First Christian church Sunday afternoon. During the week there will be three chapels, and the movie, "The Years of the Kingdom" will be shown. Speakers will visit the living organizations Wednesday night for informal discussions after dinner.

Elections have been taking place on the campus, and Lewis Hampton of Salem was named president of Cardinal Key, upper-semester men's honorary. Assisting Hampton will be Kent Holmes of San Carlos, Calif., as secretary-treasurer, Carol Emerson of Corbett was elected president of the Future Teachers of America. Bob Howe of Camas, Wash., is the new vice president, and Alice Girod of Salem is the secretary. Bob McConville of Salem was selected president of the A.R.O.T.C. cadet honorary. Larry Pritchett of Lebanon was elected delegate to the national convention in Omaha, Neb., April 16 and 17.

A recital will be given by Miss Celia Koch, instructor in cello and theory in the College of Music, Monday evening in the recital hall at 8:15 o'clock. The public is invited to attend. Tuesday the faculty invited students in to their homes in the first of a series sponsored by the Hazen Foundation.

Miss Grete Bride At Portland Rehearsal

LEBANON—A wedding which took many local people to Portland last Saturday was that of Miss Gretchen Ellmer Grete, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Raymond F. Grete of Portland, and Dale Martel Scroggin, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Scroggin, of Lebanon.

Only members of the families attended the early afternoon rites at the Church of Our Madeleine where the Rev. George J. Campbell read the service at a flower decked altar, but many friends were bidden to the reception later at the home of the bride's parents in the afternoon from 3 to 5 o'clock.

For the nuptial ceremony the bride wore a white cotton lace ballerina length dress with fingertip silk illusion veil secured by a pearl embroidered lace crown. She carried white hydrangeas and a white Bible. Her only attendant was her

HISTORY TOLD

Y-Teen Notes

By ANNE HELTZEL (Y-Teen Member)

Started in Germany and England simultaneously about 1855, the first YWCA was further developed in London by Miss Emma Roberts among her own friends "for their mutual benefit and for that of any young women in their respective spheres whom they might be able to influence for good." It was started in the United States after the Civil War by Mrs. Marshall O. Roberts to bring young women together in prayer.

Salem's YWCA began at an organizational meeting in the spring of 1914, and in April, 1916, the first younger girls' group met. Y-Teens has expanded from that first club to a present 22. Miss Scott was appointed first Girls' program director in 1920. Miss Gloria Kainu is our present director.

First called Girl Reserves, the Y groups were organized to provide recreation and education to the girls of high school and junior high age, and in 1938 served 244 girls. Now the YWCA benefits 800 Salem girls. The Y-Teens and Tri-Y clubs have the cooperation of school authorities.

Y-Teens is a wonderful opportunity for us to try out and develop our skills. The slogan and motto are "To face life squarely" and "To find and give the best."

While all junior and senior clubs are nationally termed Y-Teens, here in Salem seventh, eighth and ninth grade girls are known as the Y-Teens, and Tri-Y is the high school group.

At the present we have nine Tri-Ys and 12 Y-Teens, six at Parrish Junior high, three at Leslie Junior high and three at West Salem Junior high. Until this year Salem high had only eight clubs, but interest in Tri-Y increased so that a new one, Julia Briganti, was established.

As everyone can see the Y is ever-expanding and the need for new facilities is ever-present.

sister, Mrs. John C. Jones, who wore a frock of apple green lace and net with matching cap.

Lyon Lawrence of Lebanon was best man, and John C. Jones ushered.

Pouring at the reception were Mrs. L. D. Leslie of Fall Creek, grandmother of the bridegroom; Mrs. Charles E. Perrell, Portland, the bride's grandmother; Mrs. Lawrence Pageter, Mrs. Kenneth Wolfe, Mrs. Lee Isaac and Mrs. Alfred B. Gentry, all of Portland.

For her trip to Birmingham, Ala., the bride wore a light blue suit with brown accessories and a brown orchid corsage.

The bride attended the University of Oregon where she is affiliated with Delta Gamma sorority.

Her husband, also a former student at the state university, is a member of Phi Kappa Sigma. He is currently stationed with the U. S. Signal Corps in Birmingham, in which city the couple will make their home after March 1.

Betrothal Announced

The engagement of Miss Nancy Catherine Crow, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Adrian B. Crow of Fresno, Calif., to AIC Richard W. West, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. West of Salem, was announced recently at a luncheon in Fresno. The bride-elect is a freshman at Fresno State college. Mr. West is a graduate of Multnomah college in Portland and is now stationed at March Air Force base. No date is set for the wedding.

Garden Clubs in South Salem Meet

SOUTH SALEM—Social activities on Tuesday in the Liberty Salem Heights area were the Garden club meetings.

The Wee Weeders Garden club met at the home of Mrs. Helen Grabenhorst on Scenic View drive Tuesday afternoon for a dessert.

Mrs. A. J. Schalk, president, conducted the business meeting. Mrs. Ray Alderlin reported on the progress being made on the club library. "Secret Pals" exchanged valentines distributed from a gaily decorated box. Mrs. John Marr was the guest speaker, and she spoke on "Roses Are Fun."

She discussed the choosing of a suitable place, types of soil, planting, various types of hybrid tea roses, climbers, trimming and summer problems.

Guests were Mrs. Louis Richter and Mrs. Donald Dawson. Others attending were Mrs. Gerald Knepper, Mrs. Harold A. Rosebraugh, Mrs. Louis Kurth, Mrs. Wilbert Kurth, Mrs. O. E. Haugen, Mrs. Robert Norris, Mrs. Berli Davis, Mrs. Wayne Sipe, Mrs. Oscar White, Mrs. Roland Seeger, Mrs. Harold Alderlin and Mrs. William Hughes.

Mrs. Lewis Bartlett was hostess to the South Hills Garden club on Tuesday evening at her home. Mrs. H. G. Kelley was the assisting hostess.

In the business meeting Mrs. Frank Dye and Mrs. Kenneth Graves reported on the Salem Garden council meeting. They explained that the garden clubs are to raise funds to further the garden center in Bush Pasture park. Each club will be asked to participate in the project.

On the program, E. J. Harms of the Green Thumb Florist demonstrated winter arrangements in difficult containers. Each member was to bring her most difficult container and greens found in their yard. He showed what could be done with the greens available at this time of the year.

Mrs. Sam Ruhl was a guest.

Jaycee-Ettes Are Active

SILVERTON—Mrs. Kenneth Brown and Mrs. Harlan Roth entertained at the Brown home, Tuesday evening, for the members of the Junior Chamber of Commerce auxiliary. Twenty-two members and one guest, Mrs. Lee Collier, were present.

Because of the Silvertown Centennial being dated for the month of August, the Jaycee-Ettes are changing the time for their annual flower show from midsummer to Saturday, May 1, at the Eugene Field school auditorium.

This year's proceeds from the show are to be applied on a budget for procuring playground equipment at the city park suitable for preschool and primary age children.

Awards will include general sweepstakes for the most points; for the best horticultural specimen; and for the most artistic arrangement.

Junior ribbons will be awarded, also a multicolored ribbon for the outstanding entry for the whole show.

Committee personnel includes: General chairman, Mrs. Dave Demeter, Mrs. Jim Jones. Publicity, Mrs. Lloyd Taylor, Mrs. Bill Wentworth. Classification, Mrs. Bob Edgerton, Mrs. Kenneth Brown. Card classification, Mrs. Bill Hanson, Mrs. Jim Ekman, Mrs. Bill Duncan. Invitations, Mrs. Gerald Arrington, Mrs. Muri Anderson. Judges, Mrs. John Middlemiss, Mrs. Dick Gentskow, Ribbons, Mrs. Olaf Paulson, Jr. Posters, Mrs. Denzel Legard, Mrs. Keith Anderson. Registration, Mrs. Clarence Brownell, Mrs. Harlan Roth, Mrs. Bob Sites and Mrs. Bill Williams. Classify at Show, Mrs. Bob Edgerton, Mrs. Kenneth Brown, Mrs. Jim Nelson, Mrs. Philip Clites, Mrs. Jim Jones, Mrs. Dave Demeter. Printing and distribution, Mrs. Larry Cronnell and Mrs. Dick Hartley. Containers, Mrs. Dick Gentskow. Point judges, Mrs. Olaf Paulson, Jr., Mrs. Jim Nelson, Mrs. Wallie Flager, Mrs. LaVerne Bergerson. Noon hour clean-up, Mrs. Larry Cronnell. Hostesses, Mrs. Denzel Legard, Mrs. Keith Anderson.

On Wednesday evening the Centennial Aquacade chairman, Mrs. Phil Clites, Mrs. Bill Duncan, Mrs. James Ekman and Mrs. Milt Baum, took 30 young women from Silvertown to the Salem "Y" where "screening" for special water sport and swimming activities for the Centennial aquacade was conducted.

At another date Wednesday, February 24, the other Silvertown women, numbering more than 90 altogether, will go to Salem for screening and tryouts.

Women of the local Jaycee-Ettes who were guests of the Woodburn group Thursday evening, gave a report of the event.
