

Mrs. Don Huff Series Winner

By finishing third in the final of seven tournaments, Mrs. Don Huff won the regional series of the Salem Elks Duplicate club this week. Mrs. Charles L. Newsum fell from first to third place, while Mrs. Paul F. Burris came up to take second position.

Winning teams in the last tournament were Mrs. L. J. Ashenmacher and Gilbert Groff, Mrs. Arthur W. Binegar and Mrs. W. M. Cline, Lee Frand of Canada and Dale Hutchinson of Corvallis, Sam Ramp and W. E. Kimsey, and Elmer O. Berg and M. A. Beyer of Mt. Angel. Others who finished among the first 20 of more than 60 players competing included Ellis H. Jones, Mrs. E. O. Berg, W. M. Cline, Lin Miles, Mrs. W. A. Barsch, Mrs. Sam Rapp, Mrs. E. E. Boring, Leonard Kremen, Mrs. Dewey Howell, Mrs. R. L. Park, Mrs. Gilbert Groff and Mrs. Leona Taylor.

In the weekly junior competition best scores were made by Mr. and Mrs. F. McLaughrey, Mrs. Carl Charnholm and Mrs. Armstrong, Gus Wallis and W. C. Wilson, and Mr. and Mrs. Al Crammers.

Ray Kemp, a recent graduate from junior ranks, won the sixth annual individual championship by posting best score after two sessions with 52 players competing. Mrs. Dagna Dudley was second, Lin Miles third, Mrs. W. M. Cline fourth, W. F. Leary fifth and Mrs. Edward E. Roth sixth.

In the mid-week tournament at the women's club Mrs. R. L. Park took over top spot in the series, but Mrs. Dewey Howell and Mrs. Harry Wiedmer had high score. More than 50 local players are expected to compete in five days of western championships at the regional meet in Portland over the coming week-end.

Living coral can exist only at shallow depths in the sea.

"BE YOUR AGE"

Salem 20-30 Club's Civic Drama Festival will be resumed Thursday night at 8:30 with the performance of "Be Your Age" at Parrish Junior High Auditorium. This is second of the club-sponsored series of three plays presented by a professional company. "Be Your Age," is a family-type comedy in which the young folk have "a terrific time" bringing up father.

Masonic Families To Hear Leader

DAYTON — Freemasonry will make history in Dayton, Ore., March 4. For the first time in more than 100 years of Masonry in Oregon, the families and friends of Masons will meet together to receive Thomas E. Lampkin, Grand Master of Ancient Free and Accepted Masons in Oregon, on his official visit to District No. 4. Masons, their families and friends from Yamhill County and many parts of Oregon will assemble in the Dayton Union High School, at Dayton, on March 4, at 8 p.m.

Never before have the wives and friends of Masons been invited to meet and hear the grand master on one of his official visits. Such occasions in past have always been held a secret within the tiled walls of a Masonic lodge.

Every Masonic lodge, Eastern Star chapter, Rainbow Assembly for Girls, and DeMolay Boys in District four, is working on the arrangements for this unusual

Englewood PTA Carnival Friday

The Englewood school Parent-Teacher association's annual carnival is slated at the school Friday beginning at 7:30 p.m. with a variety program designed to please both students and parents.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Davis, general chairman of the carnival, announce the program will include a TV show, house of mystery, cake walk, bazaar, fish pond, police safety exhibit and other attractions.

Proceeds from the carnival are devoted to the year's budget of the various youth organizations of the school and a large attendance is anticipated.

Tugman to Speak at Lebanon Conference

LEBANON — William Tugman, editor of the Eugene Register-Guard, will be keynote speaker at the citizen's conference on education on the Lebanon union high school on March 6.

Speaking later in the day will be Rep. Don Husband, also of Eugene, who served on the house committee on education at the last session of the Oregon legislature.

Invitations will be sent to more than 200 persons in Linn and Benton counties.

A LOT OF CHORES

GARDNER, Mass. (UP)—Nearing her 105th birthday, Mrs. Victoria Bonislowski still is able to do farm chores.

meeting or are preparing parts for the musical program. Rev. Myron C. Cole, grand chaplain, will deliver the address of the evening.

FAMOUS SIMMONS 84th anniversary MATTRESS...

Reg. $59.50 Value

$39<sup>00</sup>

High quality... low price! You get both in this extra special 84th Anniversary mattress. Features: famous 312 coil Auto-lock construction, durable Rayon cover, layers of fluffy upholstery... also fine sag-proof French edge, air ventilators, gold cord handles. All this beauty and comfort at a special celebration sale price. Hurry in and marvel... then order!

Matching Box Spring $39<sup>84</sup>

Both full and twin sizes While Quantity Lasts.

Only $1<sup>00</sup> DOWN

GOOD HOUSEKEEPING INC.

467 Cout St.

Open Friday Evening 'til 9

REPEATED BY POPULAR DEMAND

WE'LL LUBE YOUR CAR FREE!

IF YOU WILL TRY OUR POWERFUL PRIDE OF OREGON GASOLINE!

BUY 10 GALLONS OR MORE AND PRESENT THIS COUPON

GIANT COUPON VALUE

FREE LUBRICATION

A 1.75 VALUE!

When you buy 10 gals. (or more) Pride of Oregon Gasoline at Smiling Jack's and present this coupon you'll receive a lubrication certificate good for 1 FREE Lubrication whenever your car is ready.

(Coupon Void After Sat. Feb. 20)

OPEN 9 A. M. TO 9 P. M.

HURRY! THIS OFFER LIMITED

PHONE 3-9600

SMILING JACK'S

B.F. Goodrich

CORNER CENTER AND CHURCH STS.