OREGON FIELD

By BOB BROWN

On Wednesday night we saw one of the most thrilling wild-fowl movies we have ever seen. Called "The Canada Goose," the picture was presented by Ducks Unlimited as part of their program at the Salem IWLO hall. The folks who attended may forget some of the remarks made by the speakers, but most of them will remember for some time the almost epic story of the Canada goose. It would be useless to describe the picture in detail— suffice it to say that if you ever have the opportunity, by all means see this film . . .

DOGS TO COMPETE
Retrievers will again be streaking over the fields this coming Sunday when the Willamette Valley Retriever club holds another of their monthly picnic trials at Camp Adair. More and more folks are becoming retriever conscious these days, and joining such clubs as the WVR. In fact, so catching is the field trial bug, that even our rival outdoor editor (who shall remain nameless) has joined the club! This Sunday's meet starts at 10 a.m., and if you have a retriever pup, bring him along . . . special training classes will be offered for novice dogs and novice trainers.

COAST STREAMS SOON TO CLOSE
The game commission reminds you that coast streams close to angling for two months, beginning March 1. However, the commission emphasizes that steelhead can still take fish from such streams as the Clackamas, Molalla, Sandy and Hood rivers west of the mountains, and the John Day, Grande Ronde, Umatilla and Powder rivers on the eastern side.

Speaking of coast fishing, the Fish Committee of the Oregon Division, IWLA, will meet here in Salem at the local chapter clubhouse Sunday to discuss proposed legislation affecting coast streams. The public is invited to attend the meeting, which begins at 11 a.m. Should be a chance to get additional information on some very controversial issues. Rowlin Bowles, Portland attorney who spearheaded the fight to prevent Pelton Dam on the Deschutes, will conduct the meeting.

Viks Hope To Avenge Early Loss

Salem high meets Eugene in a key Big Six battle at Salem tonight. The Vikings will be seeking revenge since Eugene downed Salem earlier in the season at Eugene. The Axemen are currently ranked second in the state and must be given the edge over the Vikings.

The high scoring Axemen, now fighting it out for the title in the Big Six, have their entire starting lineup back from last year's team that finished second in the state, losing to Marshfield in the finals.

Gene Stott and Don Ainge are slated for duty as forwards, Norm Willoughby is the center, and Jack Henkel and Wendell Rasor are the probable starting guards. Willoughby is one of the leading prep centers in the state.

Milwaukie Next
The Vikings, with a 12-8 season mark against some of the toughest teams in the state, will probably use Phil Burkland and Tom Pickens' at the forwards, Bob Wolf at center, and Gordy Domogalla and Jim Knapp at the guards. Knapp is leading the team in scoring.

Harold Hauk's Vikings will be playing their last Big Six game of the season. They must meet high ranked Milwaukie Tuesday at Milwaukie in the final game of the year. Then they assume the favored position in the district tourney at Salem.

In tonight's junior varsity game Lee Gustafson's Salem JV's meet the Eugene JV's in a 6:15 clash. The Eugene squad beat Salem in the first game between the two teams this year at Eugene.

Salem will probably have Don eh and Marv Rhine at the forwards, Dale Jones at center, and Bob Tom and Dan Luby at the two guard posts. The varsity game will start at eight.

Salem Varsity—Tom Pickens, forward; Phil Burkland, forward; Bob Wolf, center; Jim Knapp, guard; Gordy Domogalla, guard.

Eugene Varsity—Gene Stott, forward; Don Ainge, forward; Norm Willoughby, center; Jack Henkel, guard; Wendell Rasor, guard.

Salem Junior Varsity—Don Zeh and Marv Rhine at the forwards; Dale Jones, center; Bob Tom, guard; Dan Luby, guard.

YMCA Wins District AAU Title 70-51

Salem YMCA will represent Marion county (district 6) in the state AAU basketball tournament at Hermiston, Feb. 27, playing the District 5 champion at 1 p.m.

The YMCA earned the right by whipping Marion Motors in the district finals, 70-51, at Leslie high school last night by taking an early lead and extending it all the way.

Farrel Winkleback is manager of the winners and Frank Jassman for Marion Motors. Last year Wolgamott's was chosen to enter the state but there was no district playoff, Vern Gilmore, commissioner, explained.

At halftime the Y was leading 36-27. Making most points for the Y were Dal Bates and Waldo Unruh, 13 each. Bob Miller posted 10 for Marion Motors.

Lineups:
Salem Varsity—(31) Marion Motors Zvezda (9), F (9) McCallister, Mase (3), F (0) Bertram Unruh (13), G (5) Chanda Bates (8), G (8) Jassman Kiekel (9), G (10) Miller

Reserves: Salem—Isaac I. Winkleback, E. Conley, B. Butler, A. Marion Motors—Henslee R. Patton, A. Havensick, 2. Bradley, I. Officials: Woods and Richardson.

Canadian Leads Texas Open Golf

SAN ANTONIO, Tex. (AP)—The so-called "unknowns" featuring Rudy Howarth, Canadian who is a wrestler's build but an easy touch with a golf club whose blazing 61 bested the field by a stroke, dominated the top places as the $12,500 Texas Open moved into its second round.

Howarth, stubby young man from Windsor, Ontario, made Brackenridge Park's par 71 a shambles Thursday in the first round and so did 90 other players in the greatest par-tweaking spree this ancient tournament ever saw.

The second round started with only a five-stroke difference from Howarth down to 11th place and with 18 golfers figuring in that spread. Among them were a few of the "name" players on the winter tour and the leaders had quite a "foreign" look.

In a tie for sixth at 64 was Peter Thompson of Melbourne, Australia, and resting at 65 was Canadian Jerry Kesselring of Toronto.

DERBY CHAMPION
HERNANDO, Miss. (AP)—A pointer named Mayhem, owned by Claude Hinton of Tuscaloosa, Ala., is the 1954 derby champion of the U.S. Field Trial Assn.

Mayhem was named winner of the stake for 2-year-old birdsongs Thursday.

NCAA, NIT Add Tourney Entries; Sely Rides High

By RIP WATSON
NE WYORK (AP)—The annual grabbing game between college basketball's big postseason tournaments is on in earnest today with the National Invitation Tournament running up a 6-4 lead.

The National Collegiate Basketball Championships gained some ground on the NIT yesterday, naming two teams to the one selected by the invitation tournament. The NCAA actually has an advantage.

The NIT reneared the halfway point, naming Niagara immediately after the Purple Eagles put on a stylish display in whacking New York University 72-54 in Madison Square Garden.

Oklahoma City in
Earlier in the day the NCAA announced that Oklahoma City would play Bradley on the latter's court March 9 in a first-round game. The winner will meet the Big Seven champion, which draws a bye in the second round. Colorado and Kansas currently are tied for the Big Seven lead.

Yesterday's selections leave the NIT with two teams in the top 10 of the latest Associated Press poll, two in the second 10 and two unranked. The NCAA so far has one top 10-er, one in the second 10 and also two unranked.

Along with Niagara, the NIT has Duquesne, No. 1; Western Kentucky, No. 4; Wichita, No. 15, which trimmed St. Louis 79-73 last night; Dayton, No. 17, and Louisville.

The NCAA has Seattle, No. 7; Oklahoma City, No. 16; Bradley, and Idaho State.

Kentucky, ranked just behind Duquesne, took another step toward the NCAA last night by turning back Tennessee 90-63 for its 20th victory without defeat. That makes the Wildcats 11-0 in the Southeastern Conference to Louisiana State's 9-0 mark. If they keep on winning, they'll play off for the conference title and ensuing NCAA berth.

Seattle, like Bradley and Oklahoma City a Western "at large" team, will meet Idaho State at Corvallis, Ore., March 9 in an NCAA first-round game. The winner will play the Pacific Coast Conference champion, which could be any one of a half-dozen teams.

Sely's Near Sweep
Frank Sely moved one step closer last night to a grand slam of major college scoring records by tossing in 45 in Furman's 83-49 win over Mercer. His 21 free throws made his career total 625, bettering the 611 mark of Walt Dukes, Seton Hall's 1953 All America center.

The one mark still to go for Sely is the season free throw record of 332 set by Johnny O'Brien, also a 1953 All America player. Sely has 296, with four games and the Southern Conference tournament still to play.

In other games on last night's skippy schedule, Maryland, No. 11 team nationally, got a basket by Gene Shue and two fouls by Bob Kessler at the end to turn back Georgetown 53-50, and Colorado A&M, No. 19, trimmed Colorado State 68-56.

Bruins to Meet Stanford, Bears To Play Trojans

LOS ANGELES (AP)—The basketball race in the Southern Division, Pacific Coast Conference approaches the critical stage this weekend, with UCLA striving to push ahead of co-leader California.

The UCLA Bruins, who moved into a tie with California by sweeping two games with the Bears last week, journey north to play Stanford, California, with its star, Bob McKeen, apparently none too healthy, engages Southern California here.

Naturally, the Uclans want the Trojans of USC to at least split with McKeen and Co., but they can expect trouble from the cellar-bound Stanford team.

If McKeen is back in form—he's the second leading scorer—USC will be hard pressed to improve its 4-4 record. California and UCLA have 5-3 records and Stanford is out of the race with 2-6.

2 Leagues To Finish Up Tonight

Tonight's skirmishes will be the last for two high school leagues—the Capitol and Yawama—and in the Willamette Valley and Marion County B the situation has become decisive.

North Marion already has accepted Yawama honors; Sacred Heart academy needs only to heat last-place Philomath tonight at the Salem Armory to pocket the Capitol title held last year by Stayton; Mill City can put away another Marion B crown by whipping Scio; and Dallas needs wins in the last two games to keep the WVU championship, unless both second-place quintets lose tonight (Estacada and Silverton).

The WVU and Marion B will finish up next Tuesday.

GAMES TONIGHT:
Willamette Valley League
Canby at Dallas
Estacada at Mt. Angel
Standy at Silverton
Woodburn at Molalla
Capitol League
Central at Salem Academy
Carvade at Stayton
Philomath at Sacred Heart
Yawama League
Sherwood at Amity
North Marion at Dayton
Yamhill at Banks
Willamette at Sheridan
Marion County B
Gervais at Jefferson
Mill City at Scio
St. Paul at Detroit
Grays at Chemawa
Sublimity at OSU

PSC'S Porter Holds to Lead

Don Porter of Portland State scored 37 points in two games last week and had no trouble keeping his Oregon Collegiate conference lead with 222 points and an average of 24.6.

Otherwise there was considerable juggling of the first six positions. EOCK's Schadowitz dropped from second to fourth in an idle week, Wyatt of OTI climbing from fifth to runnerup on 30 points in two games.

Sulphur of OTI scored 31 in two contests to gain from sixth to third.

Vik Matmen In Big Six Meet Today

Intersquad competition has resulted in selection of two entries in each division for Salem high school in the Big Six meet which opens today in Albany.

Coach Hank Juran said that the tourney will finish Saturday, with his Vikings defending champions. Schools entering are Albany, Corvallis, Springfield, Bend and Salem.

The district tourney will be in Salem Feb. 25, with two from each division going to the state meet.

Juran and his assistant Al Gray named the following for the Big Six:

- 96 pounds—Dean and Dave Vanek.
- 105—Dave Morgan.
- 115—Roger Morse and Leroy Williams.
- 123—Jerry Booz and Calvin Lang.
- 130—Dick Pearson and Ronald Coon.
- 136—John Cummings and Clifford Bressler.
- 140—Bob Cameron and Harry Juel or Dave Adams.

- 157—Wright Noel and Jack Stylfler.
- 166—Lane Caswell and Vern Coates.
- 178—Jim Berger and Herb Juran.
- Heavyweight—Dave Clundiff and Jerry Walling.

Helser, Durham To Be Guests Of SBC Monday

Linfield college will send coaches Roy Helser and Paul Durham to speak to the Salem Breakfast club Monday morning at its meeting in the Senator hotel.

Ken Potts, program chairman, said their topics will include football, basketball and baseball, perhaps with some discussion about plans of Fullback Ad Rutschman, who has received a pro bid.

Helser is a former Portland Beaver pitcher and is basketball and football coach at Linfield. Durham is football mentor and athletic director.

Brenner Whips Turner by TKO

VANCOUVER, B.C. (AP)—Bill Brenner, 161, of Vancouver won a four-round technical knockout over Earl Turner, 161, of Richmond, Calif., here Thursday night when Turner was unable to answer the bell for the fourth.

The California fighter was down near the end of the third round. In preliminary bouts, Len Walters, 126, of Vancouver decided Jerry Struz, 129, of Portland, over the six-round route; Earl McDonald, 149, of Vancouver, decided Don Rogers, 146, of Portland; Curtis Knox, 165, of Spokane, decided Bob Seigfried, 171, of Berlin; Mike Manix, 126, of Cork, Ire., knocked out Buddy Hall, 136, of Fairbanks, in the third; Hall was substituting for Danny Burns of Seattle.
