The Wolgamott's Service Sta-tion basketball team will return to City league action Tuesday night against the Salem Sophs at 9:30 after placing fourth last weekend in the Toledo AAU In-vitational tourney. Wolgamott's lost its opening game, 37.36, Thursday night to the Toledo Hilltoppers, then won Friday from the Toledo Ghost-writers, 80-40. Saturday night the Salem entry defeated Eddy-ville, 62-46, with Don Nims scor-ing 20 and Dick Norton 18. Roy Simmons, boxing coach at Syracuse University, also serves as majority leader of the city of Syracuse council.

WVL, Marion County B Finish Schedules This Week

2 Districts To Launch Tourneys

Tuesday night baskethall games will remove the suspense in the Willamette Valley league, which ends with the key battle being between first-place Dallas and fourth-place Molalla.

The only other unfinished league is the Marion County B. which will wind up Friday night.
Mill City already has won the title beyond recall.
Playoffs Scheduled

There are two playoff contests scheduled for district tourney berths — Amity vs. Yamlill at Linfield, and Perrydale vs. Falls City and Valsetz at Monimouth for a spot in the Polk ocunity B tournament. Dayton will be at North Marion as a Varantee North Marion in a Yawama makeup contest. Dallas could cause a two-way tie for first with Silverton by losing to Molalla while Silverton wins from Estacada. But if Dal-las wins, the WVL crown will remäin in Dragon hands no matter what the others do. Gervais looks to have the edge or the fight for second in Mar-lon County B. concluding against OSD and Sublimity (ninth and eighth), while Jefferson plays Chemawa (sixth) and Detroit District 11 to Open District 11 competition will open Friday at Salem high school, matching Stayton (Capitol Second place) and Cascade (Capitol fourth) at 7 p.m. and Salem (Big (Six))
