

Capital Women

Edited by MARIAN LOWRY FISCHER

Surprise Honors Newlyweds

A surprise party was given Saturday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. McManus honoring their son, Udeff J. McManus, and his bride, the former Marcia Cox. About 25 attended the Saturday gathering.

Mr. McManus and Miss Cox, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Cox of Eugene, were married January 22, the service being in the offices of Judge Val D. Sloper who officiated. Attending the couple were Mr. and Mrs. Al Laue and Mrs. McManus.

The couple are at home at 475 North Capitol, Salem.

Initiation for Theta Rho Group

Theta Beta Iota, Theta Rho, met at the IOOF temple last week to initiate eight new members.

New members include the Misses Nancy Clemons, Joan Newell, Sally Billings, Siggie Converse, Carol Griender, Deanne Norton, Audrey Norton and Julianne Cline.

Mrs. Ellen Edmundson, chairman of the board of control, was a special guest. A program was presented by the Misses Carol McLeod, Shirley Taber, Diane Dependehner and Jean Roth, accompanied by Miss Judy Seely.

Refreshments were served after the meeting with the birthday theme being used in honor of the group's 4th birthday.

Pythian Meeting Silvertown Event

SILVERTOWN — A number of guests were honored at the recent meeting of Home temple No. 21, Pythian Sisters.

Escorted and introduced was Mrs. Carrie Broxson of Milton-Freewater, grand chief of Oregon.

Also escorted were Mrs. Albert Grinde, Silvertown, past grand chief; Mrs. Ann Brown, Dallas, grand manager; Miss Betty Jean Bergner, Salem, grand guard; Mrs. Emma Snyder, Aurora, past grand chief; Mrs. Helen M. Wrightman, Silvertown, past grand chief and past supreme representative. Each honored guest was presented a corsage by Mrs. Delbert Iverson of Home temple.

On Monday, March 1, all officers and members of the degree staff, are to meet at the hall, at 2 p.m., for rehearsal for the March 4 evening meeting when new members are to be initiated. The refreshment committee for the March 4 meeting includes Mrs. Ida Cooley, Mrs. Lizzie Cooley, Mrs. J. Cook and Mrs. J. D. Drake.

Members of Home temple are to host a card party at the K.P. hall, Saturday evening, March 6, the public asked to attend. Canasta, 500, and bridge will be played. Mrs. Delbert Iverson, ways and means committee chairman, is directing plans.

Pythian Program

Sixty members and friends of Central lodge No. 18, Knights of Pythias, and Centralia temple No. 11, Pythian Sisters celebrated the 90th anniversary of the founding of their order. A 6:30 no-host dinner was at the Beaver hall on Sunday.

Highlight of the evening was a one-half hour radio program. The program originated from Washington, D. C. Actor Raymond Massey gave the history of the Knights of Pythias.

Sen. Robert C. Hendrickson of New Jersey spoke on juvenile delinquency. Speaking from Portland were Art Gleason and Walter Gleason, grand secretary of the Knights of Pythias. They introduced the little league baseball team in Oregon.

Supreme chancellor Sheldon Roper of North Carolina introduced the highway courtesy campaign and announced the speech contest for high school students on "Motor Manners and How to Promote Them." Other speakers were Dale Stump of Columbus, Ohio, H. B. Shaw from Alberta, Canada, and Governor Alan Shivers of Texas.

Music during the program was provided by Freddy Martin and his orchestra from Las Vegas, Nevada.

Honored guests at the local meeting were George Holt, past grand chancellor from Vancouver, Wash., and Don R. Judson, grand chancellor of Oregon.

Insurance Group

Insurance Women's association met last week at the Marion hotel Gold room, Valentines decorating the dinner tables.

Dr. Reginald Parker of Willamette university law school was speaker to discuss "Recent Developments in Negligence Law."

During the business session, Mrs. Sid Rising, program chairman, named a committee for the March meeting which is to be a carnival event. Mrs. G. B. Gadeholt reported on the plans for the bosses breakfast in April.

MEETING this evening (Monday)

is Salem unit of Oregon State College Mothers club at the home of Mrs. Richard A. Meyer, 944 Belmont, at 8 o'clock. Mrs. James Hardy, Mrs. Arthur Woods and Mrs. Kenneth Waters are the committee for the meeting. Members are asked to take articles for the country store sale. Mothers of all OSC students and alumni are invited to attend.

Marriage Of Duo Announced

Announcement is being made of the marriage of Miss Margaret Alice Smith, younger daughter of Dr. and Mrs. G. Herbert Smith, Salem, to Joseph McClain Hardman, son of Mr. and Mrs. R. R. Hardman of Portland.

The wedding was an event of January 2 at Vancouver, Wash.

Both young people are attending school. The bride is a senior at University of Oregon school of nursing in Portland. She attended DePaul university and Willamette university preceding her work at the school of nursing.

Mr. Hardman is a senior at Willamette university college of law. He was graduated from Reed college and attended Columbia university college of law before coming to Willamette.

Some Notations . . .

By M. L. F.

Several Salem women have been invited to take part in the 18th birthday celebration and membership tea of Portland unit of the Republican Women's Federation of Oregon on Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Robert E. Dant, Portland . . . Hours are between 2 and 5 o'clock.

Mrs. Paul L. Patterson, wife of Oregon's governor, has been invited to stand in line with officials of the unit. Mrs. Roy T. Bishop, state federation president; Mrs. L. E. Reeves, president of the Portland unit, Mrs. John Bate, Mrs. Dan and Mrs. Eleanor M. Feldman . . .

Invited to pour are Mrs. Earl T. Newbury, wife of the secretary of state; Mrs. Sigfrid B. Unander, wife of the state treasurer; Mrs. James W. Mott of Salem, vice chairman of the republican state central committee; Mrs. Marshall Cornett, Klamath Falls, republican national committee woman from Oregon; Mrs. Fred L. Peterson, wife of Portland's mayor; Mrs. Rudie Wilhelm, Jr., Portland, wife of the speaker of the house; Mrs. Jess J. Gard, Mrs. Eugene Marsh of McMinnville, wife of the senate president; Mrs. Lee Patterson, Mrs. Ralph H. Calk, Mrs. Frederic W. Young, Mrs. Louise Humphrey.

Invitations are out from Miss Echo Yeater and Mrs. John M. Williamson for a tea next Sunday, February 28, at the home of Miss Yeater, the affair to be an "aloha" to Mrs. Mary Thomas, who returns this week from a trip to Hawaii . . . Hours are between 4 and 6 o'clock. Mrs. Thomas and daughter, Susan, have been in the Islands the past three weeks.

Miss Louise Owens, who is attending Mills college for her freshman year, has a lead part in the spring term play to be given at the college. The play is "Sir Fopling Flutter," a comedy . . . Miss Owens expects to come home for the college spring vacation to visit her parents, the Elmer Worths . . .

Mrs. Wallace Hug was in Portland for a few days the past week as guest of Mrs. Frank Owens, formerly of Salem . . . Mrs. Owens invited Mrs. Hug and other friends to be her guests at the luncheon and style show given at the Portland Yacht club, one of the guests being Mrs. Jack Baker of Seattle, friend of Mrs. Hug . . . Cmdr. and Mrs. Hug and son are here for a time after two years in New York City. Cmdr. Hug awaiting his assignment next month . . .

WOODBURN—Mrs. T. M. Baxter will be hostess to members of St. Mary's Episcopal guild for the 1:30 p.m. luncheon Tuesday at the Episcopal parish hall.

Wed Feb. 13—Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Sandberg (Annette Ripp), above, were married February 13 at St. Boniface church, Sublimity. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Ripp of Sublimity and Mr. Sandberg is the son of Mr. and Mrs. W. V. Sandberg of Stayton. (McEwan studio picture)

Martha Washington Tea at Woodburn

WOODBURN—Despite the stormy weather approximately 125 guests attended the 46th annual Martha Washington tea, sponsored by Woodburn Woman's club at the library Friday afternoon. A goodly sum was realized to buy new books for the library. Many were present from out of town including guests from Portland, Eugene, Oregon City, Salem and Hubbard.

A welcome to the guests was given by the president, Mrs. James Lamb, followed by allegiance to the flag, the invocation by Mrs. Fred Rogers, and group singing, with Mrs. Donn Miller at the piano. Several piano solos were played by Mrs. Miller, and a summary of the library for the past year was given by the librarian, Mrs. Estella Kerns.

Mrs. A. F. deLapinasse gave an impromptu talk. Doris Smith, of the Portland Civic theater was the special guest and gave a dramatic reading "Life With Mother" by Krause Lindsay.

Tea was served in the library. The tea table was covered with a candy stripe cloth, centered with violets and red candles in Westmoreland milk glass holders which were loaned to the club by the May Furniture company. Presiding at the urns were Mrs. A. E. Austin, Mrs. E. J. Allen, Mrs. J. Melvin Ringo and Mrs. Alvah G. Cowen. Colonial costumes worn by many of the members added a colorful touch to an interesting and successful event. Decorations on the Colonial theme were arranged about the club rooms and the library.

Post Meets

Mrs. Wilbur Wichman, Mrs. Florence Cameron and Mrs. Genevieve Bohse were appointed on the nominating committee at the Friday night meeting of Pioneer Post No. 149, all woman post, American Legion.

The 9th birthday of the post was planned for March. A dinner will be a feature event. April 10 was the tentative date set for the memorial tree planting project.

MRS. IRVING M. ZELZER entertained at her home last week at an informal buffet dinner for her son, Richard Zeller, who is band instructor at George Fox college in Newberg. Members of the band were present at the affair.

Garden Club

SALEM HEIGHTS—The Friendly Neighbors Garden club met last week at the home of Mrs. Myron Butler.

The members answered roll call by telling the name of the town and state where they were born and the different ones they have lived in since. Mrs. R. H. Parks told of a trip to Lebanon when a group from the club surprised a former member, Mrs. Glen Ivie. On the trip were Mrs. William Hall, Mrs. Carl Gustafson, Mrs. Darlene Coon and Mrs. A. A. Larsen. Mrs. Darlene Coon reported on the Salem Garden council meeting.

In charge of the program was Mrs. Helen Grabenhorst, and the speaker was Mrs. Aaron Schalk who talked on trees.

At Star Event

A Washington's day program was presented at the meeting of Trinity chapter, Order of Eastern Star, Friday night at the West Salem city building.

Special guests included Mrs. Alice Leamer and Clifford Jones, worthy matron and patron of Naomi chapter, Dallas; Miss Helen Hughes, worthy matron, Adah chapter, Independence.

Shower Given

Mrs. James A. Nickel was honored guest for a shower and party given Friday at the home of Mrs. Gaylord F. Howard.

Feting Mrs. Nickel were Mrs. Melvin Gilson, Mrs. Keith Moss, Mrs. Robert Pubrick, Mrs. Alberto Sanchez, Mrs. Richard

Miss Gammon, Mr. Purdy Wed Here Saturday Night

Wed Saturday evening at a service in the First Baptist church were Miss Lavurne Gammon and Robert E. Purdy. The bride is the daughter of Mrs. Carl Gammon and Mr. Purdy is the son of Mrs. J. Edgar Purdy.

Rose and white stock in baskets with bows of deeper rose, and lighted candles decorated the church for the service. Dr. Lloyd T. Anderson, pastor of the church, read the vows at 8 o'clock. For the music, Cecelia Freeby sang, Gerard C. Brown, brother-in-law of the bride, played the violin and Lois Plummer Schmidt played the organ.

Carl Kliever, brother-in-law, gave the bride in marriage. She wore a beautiful dress of imported French lace over white faille, the lace scalloped to border the sunburst pleating that extended down the front of the skirt. The bodice was designed with a slight stand-up collar and long sleeves. The fingertip veil was caught with orange blossoms to a half crown of tulle, lace edged. For her flowers the bride carried a nosegay type of bouquet of stephanotis and an orchid.

In Pink Shades
The attendants were in rose pink and American Beauty frocks. Mrs. Evelyn Bartlett was matron of honor, her dress of the rose pink faille taffeta. Her bouquet was a nosegay of pink carnations with tufts of matching nylon.

Misses Darlene Engdahl, Phyllis Ahalt and Mary Polales were bridesmaids. All were attired in American Beauty shaded faille taffeta and their nosegays also were of the pink carnations with the tufts of nylon. All four attendants wore headpieces of leaves matching their frocks.

The bride's mother wore a gray-blue dress with pink accessories and corsage of camellias with seed pearls. The bridegroom's mother wore navy blue lace with pink accessories and corsage of pink carnations.

James Purdy of Seattle was best man for his brother, Pete Reding, Wayne Rawlins and John Perkins were groomsmen, Robert Messing and Ray Davis the ushers.

At Reception
The reception was in the fireplace room of the church. Cutting the cake was Mrs. George A. Purdy of Portland, aunt of the bridegroom, and Mrs. Lester Knips of Portland, aunt of the bride. Pouring were Mrs. Gerard C. Brown and Mrs. Carl Kliever, Astoria, sisters of the bride. Others assisting were Mrs. Ellis Sanders, Miss Sophia Polales, Miss Carolyn Mishler, Miss Christine Harada, Miss Joan Smith, Miss Marcia Smith, Miss Florabelle Gordon. The bride's table was set with a pink cloth and flowers were rose pink and white stock.

For going away the bride wore a navy blue and white knit suit with navy accessories, pink coat and white orchid corsage.

The couple will be at home at 2142 North Commercial.

Pledges at WU Listed

Winter term rushing ended on the Willamette university campus on Saturday night and 18 were pledged to the four sororities.

The pledges are as follows: Alpha Chi Omega, Misses Patricia Hostetter, Canby; Lorraine Kaila, Chehalis, Wash.; Carol Kaufman, Salem; Catherine Schewerin, Portland; Jean Snow, Milton-Freewater; Eleanor Taylor, Sacramento, Calif.; and Marjorie Wilson, Hebo;

Chi Omega, Misses Donna Mae Sederstrom, Coos Bay; Shirley Ulinder, Pothach, Idaho; and Winifred Waltz, Forest Grove;

Delta Gamma, Misses Dollie Cummings, Woodburn; Joanne Jene, Donna Leonard, Milwaukie; Arda Lien and Laurel Herr, Salem;

Pi Beta Phi, Misses Karen Jensen, Tillamook; Penny Lilles, Portland; and Gwen Standifer, Bend.

WRC Meeting

Mrs. G. W. Walker was installed as treasurer of Sedgwick group, Woman's Relief Corps, No. 1, on Friday afternoon at a business session.

The arrangements for the district No. 3 convention on March 19 were discussed. District No. 3 is composed of McMinnville, Tillamook, Newberg, Marion auxiliary, Veterans of Foreign Wars, will serve the convention luncheon.

Y-Teen Group

The Leslie Junior high ninth grade, Y-Teen group elected officers this past week. Miss Ann Finley was elected president.

Other officers elected were Miss Barbara Kuper, vice president; Miss Marilyn Zeller, secretary; Miss Nancy Ferguson, treasurer; Miss Julie Robertson, sergeant-at-arms; Miss Jane Stien, worship chairman.

The group gave a party on Saturday night at Lausanne hall on the Willamette campus.

Guests included Mrs. Lyle Sullter, Mrs. Lewis Appleton, Mrs. Henry Otto, Mrs. Scott Foster, Mrs. Roy Lockenour, Mrs. Phillip Schramm, Mrs. Jack Lee, and the hostess.

BSG Events Of Spring Are Listed

It is to be a busy spring for Beta Sigma Phi chapters in Salem. The city council, made up of representatives of all four local chapters, met Saturday evening, Mrs. Ellis White being hostess to the group at the home of her mother, Mrs. G. A. Ostrin.

The four chapters are to meet for a joint program on March 2 in the Credit Bureau offices, Mrs. James H. Turnbull, county education director for the American Cancer society, to show a film. Preceding the program there will be a business session at 7:30 p.m.

The style show of the chapters will be April 2 at the Marion hotel, the fashions to be shown by Lipman and Wolfe company. At the Saturday meeting, Mrs. Tom Deal announced an orchestra had been signed to play for the show

Lodge Event

Willamette encampment and ladies encampment auxiliary met for a no-host dinner Friday night at the IOOF Temple. Regular lodge meeting followed.

A highlight of the past month was the presentation of a past chief matriarch's jewel to Mrs. Clarence Townsend by Miss Wilda Siegmund.

The refreshment committee named for March 5 includes Mrs. William Gardner, Mrs. Ray Webb, and Mrs. Lora Grones.

The encampment presented a short program after the meeting.

Sew and Save with

A New Book on "ZIG ZAG SEWING MADE EASY"

Just Off the Press

Only $1.00 While They Last

We Also Have a Better Thread for Zig Zag Sewing

We Repair and Adjust All Makes

We Cover Buttons - Buckles

Just Bring Your Material

We do not do alterations or sewing. However we will gladly recommend someone in your neighborhood who has a Pfaff who will sew for you.

By your own test, prove to yourself That PPAFF Is Best!

Come in and See Them at

Myron's

153 So. Liberty Open Fri. Evens. Ph. 3-5773

No matter what make of machine you have, bring us your sewing problems and we will do our best to help you.

Let Us Sew and Save FOR YOU!

Custom made Draperies AND Slip Covers

At Miller's Furniture

Make your home sing—with the colorful splash of fresh, new slip-covers and sun-drenched draperies. Let us sew and save for you . . . You can give your home a bright spring air with our custom-made draperies and slip-covers.

* You choose the fabric and style from our large collection . . . We guarantee expert workmanship and perfect fit. Come to Miller's Third Floor.

Just Say "Charge It"—Convenient Terms

Furniture at Miller's

THIRD FLOOR

WHAT? BRAND NEW TIRES

BY

GOOD YEAR

ONLY $11.65 Plus Tax & Exchange

600.16

and Green Stamps

IT'S TRUE! TURN TO PAGE 9

Here's a wonderful buy!

SINGER

AS A PORTABLE $109.50

AS A CABINET $144.50

FREE SEWING LESSONS • Easy Terms • Liberal Trade-In Allowance

Phone for a free home demonstration or visit your

SINGER SEWING CENTER

Listed in your telephone book only under SINGER SEWING MACHINE CO.