

Wed 50 Years—Mr. and Mrs. Arthur A. Churchill, above, observed their golden wedding anniversary on February 17. The couple were married in Portland 50 years ago and lived on the east coast for many years before returning to Oregon to live in Salem in 1930. A few friends were invited in for the anniversary observance.

Installation Event

A number of guests attended the meeting and installation ceremonies last week when the Young Matrons club installed Mrs. Jean Monsanto as president.

Paul Brandon, James Hurd, Al Harford. Dessert following the meeting was served by Mrs. James Lies, Mrs. John Meier and Mrs. Thomas Meier.

RAF Receives Atom Bombs

LONDON (AP)—Atom bombs are now being delivered to Britain's rapidly expanding Royal Air Force, Prime Minister Churchill's government announced Monday. An Air Ministry budget memo also disclosed that British jet fighters are being equipped with guided rockets to strengthen defenses against enemy atom bombers.

It said recent successful rocket tests in the Australian desert foreshadow the most important developments in air defense since the invention of radar. The memorandum, prepared for Parliament by Air Minister Lord De L'Isle and Dudley, said Britain's air budget for 1954-55 calls for increased spending on aircraft and armament. It includes large deliveries of swift and hunter jet fighters, the first deliveries of top secret swept-wing valiant medium jet bombers and allows for the first time for some atomic bombs.

Call Bricker Bill Hodge-podge

WASHINGTON (AP)—Sen. Wiley (R-Wis) today denounced as a "hodge-podge" whitehouse approved changes the Senate has voted in a proposed constitutional amendment to curb treaty powers. Wiley, who heads the Senate Foreign Relations Committee, said in an interview he believes one change—to require all past and future treaties to be made in "pursuance" of the Constitution—"would raise Cain in the courts."

This proposal, adopted by a 44-33 vote of the Senate last week, would make all past and future treaties subject to court review on their constitutionality. It was combined with proposals to require Senate roll-call votes on treaties and a requirement that treaties and other international agreements conform to the Constitution to make up what now is known as the administration's bill.

Theater Held up For $2200 Loot

LOS ANGELES (AP)—Movie patrons watched a comedy at a theater while two bandits put on their own melodrama in the manager's office—and left with $2200. David Draper, assistant manager, told police he was approached by a gunman yesterday and forced to open the safe. The gunman took $1500 and then demanded the receipts from the box office.

Lacking the keys, Draper was forced to call the manager. Meanwhile, Draper was tied up and two movie patrons who wanted to lodge a complaint with the manager, plus a curious newsboy, were herded into the manager's office.

Los Angeles Editor GOP Publicity Director

WASHINGTON (AP)—James Bassett, 41-year-old political editor of the Los Angeles Mirror, today was named director of public relations for the Republican National Committee. Bassett, who was Vice President Nixon's publicity director in the 1952 campaign, succeeds Robert Humphreys, who was promoted to campaign director, a new job. The shifts were interpreted by party spokesmen as an effort to step up the 1954 congressional election campaign by relieving Humphreys of what was termed

GRANDMA WINS ATOM ORPHANS

Robert, 6, at left, and Michael Rosenberg, II, sons of executed atom spies Julius and Ethel Rosenberg, hug their grandma, Mrs. Sophie Rosenberg, after a New York court placed them in her custody Feb. 20. The Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Children had charged that the children, who had been living with a New York couple, were "exploited for financial propositions." The state supreme court placed the children in their grandmother's care pending further children's court litigation. (AP Wirephoto)

Silverton Man Starts New Business After Retirement

SILVERTON—An interesting story concerning a well-known Silverton man, comes in the Thursday, February 4, edition of the Bluffton News of Bluffton, Ohio, due to the alert, more-than-70-years-old gentleman making a first visit in something like 30 years to his home town in the mid-western state.

The description of the first visit back to Ohio, and the surprise of his family and friends there is under a heading reading:

"Amos Amstutz, Retired, to Enter Business at 65." The editor's introduction reads: "If you've been wondering how you're going to pass the time after you reach retirement, or how you're going to make a social security check stretch from one month to another, take a tip from Amos Amstutz."

According to Mr. Amstutz, concerning the social security stretch, when he finds the income from his sales are more than he is permitted under the Social Security rules, he sends the amount back to the government.

The Bluffton writer uses the word "entrepreneur" in respect to this matter of entering business at 65. In dictionary English, this means: "An employer in his character of one who assumes the risk and management of business," and Mr. Amstutz does just that. Five years ago he closed his Silverton machine shop business.

He did his own designing of all shop machinery, works from the basement of his home, and the small shop in the rear of the family residence. As a member of a home craft

Knowland Sees Big Vote For Chief Justice Warren

WASHINGTON (AP)—Sen. Knowland (R-Calif) predicted Monday that Chief Justice Warren will get an "overwhelming" vote of confidence when his appointment to the Supreme Court comes before the Senate.

Knowland, the Senate Republican leader, said in an interview he expects the Senate Judiciary Committee to approve Warren's nomination at a meeting Wednesday. Approval would send the appointment to the Senate for action probably Friday.

The California senator said he thinks most of his colleagues will agree with him that unevaluated and unsupported charges read into the record of a Judiciary subcommittee last week over the protests of some members are "not worth any serious consideration."

These included unsworn accusations that as governor of California Warren had been under the influence of "a notorious liquor lobbyist," had appointed dishonest judges and had followed the Marxist line.

The subcommittee approved Warren's nomination Saturday by what some members said was a unanimous vote. But Chairman Langer (R-ND) and Sen. Eastland (D-Miss) said they had voted only to check the matter to the full committee, of which Langer is chairman.

The subcommittee acted after hearing testimony by deputy Atty. Gen. William P. Rogers and Warren Olney, assistant attorney general in charge of the Justice Department's Criminal Division.

A committee transcript later showed Rogers testified that a series of charges had been made by Roderick J. Wilson, described by Rogers as "a fugitive from justice." Rogers said it was regrettable that "the chief justice can be maligned by a man who is a fugitive from justice for perjury."

STASSEN PROMISES HELP MANILA (AP)—Harold Stassen, director of the U.S. Foreign Operations Administration, Monday promised the Philippines American help in meeting its economic problems and in fighting communism.
