Plan March Opening 92-Year Old Pioneer For Dallas Theater Woman Passes

DALLAS—Early in March, weather permitting, is the time tentatively planned for the opening of the Dallas Motor-Vu theater, Don Wernli, manager, announces. Tentative bookings have been made for the first weekend in the month. Improvements are being made on the grounds which include the addition of more lights at the entrance and more fencing. The theater is located on South Fir Villa road off the Dallas-Salem highway.

NEVADA CITY, Calif. (AP)—Funeral services were set here Tuesday for Mrs. Olive Ann Keal, 92, who aided the pioneering of Northern California and Oregon.

Born at Yreka, Calif., Mrs. Keal married Tom A. Bagley in 1879 and moved to Oregon. After Bagley's death in 1902, his widow became postmistress at Takilma, Josephine County, Ore., serving for eight years.

Survivors include a daughter, four sons and 13 grandchildren.
