MEMORIAL TO A COSTLY VICTORY

The Stars and Stripes never are lowered at this memorial atop Mt. Suribachi on Iwo Jima where U.S. Marines raised the flag of victory Feb. 23, 1945. The fighting for the Pacific isle cost 20,000 casualties. The Air Force, which today maintains the landing strip on Iwo, raises a new flag above the memorial each week because ocean winds tatter the banner in that time.
