DAVE BECK 'FEELS HIS OATS'

Dave Beck, president of the International Brotherhood of Teamsters, at the Miami meeting of the union's execu-tive board has refused to assent to the no-raiding pact drawn-up by the American Federation of Labor and the Congress of Industrial Organization and the machinery proposed by the AFL with which his union is affiliated, to manded that other unions "surrender" 50,000 drivers and warehousemen now in their ranks which they refused to do, and stands pat against the no-raiding pact.

There is nothing surprising for in this Beck is running true to form, for he has resorted to raiding other unions, including those of the AFL, by both raiding and "goon" tactics of sabotage, violence and arson during his regime as Teamsters' boss in the northwest. Oregon will not soon forget the reign of terror he inaugurated in the middle 30's in Orgon, broken up by Governor Charles H. Martin and the conviction and imprisonment of some 38 of his goons by Martin's special prosecutor, Ralph E. Moody.

Beck evidently intends to continue the violent methods by which so many of the union leaders built up their self-perpetuating power-mad heirarchy in years past, including John L. Lewis. He ignores both Wagner Act (1935) and its successor, the Taft-Hartley Act (1947) which placed the choice of which union, if any, an employe wishes to join, in the hands of the employe himself and not the union leaders, the intent being to end the dictatorship Beck seeks to revive.

Since 1935 the labor relations acts have provided elec-tion machinery, utilized when a question of representation Thousands of such elections have been and still arises. are being held to eliminate disputes.

The anti-raiding proposal sponsored by both the AFL and CIO doesn't interfere with but supplements the present labor relations law and permits union members to change allegiance from one union to another by majority vote. Unless the labor board certifies as to the choice of an agent in collective bargaining, that organization cannot avail itself of NLRB's service.

That Beck, like Lewis, regards the Teamsters union, as Lewis does the United Mineworkers, as personal property and members as pawns, is further shown by the actions of both in handling their union funds. Lewis made a $500,-000 loan to the Roosevelt campaign, and also heavy donations to the outlawed dockmen's union in New York harbor, and has recently, it is reported, to have ordered a heavy cut in the union's welfare funds.

At Miami a protest has been filed against a loan of Teamsters' funds amounting to $1,500,000 to the Freuhof Trailer Corporation. The protest was made by Martin Crouse, former Teamsters' business agent at Yakima, who charges the loan violated a constitutional clause prohibiting investment of more than $50,000 of union funds to any one firm. Beck claims he is authorized to make any investment for the union so long "as the investment is sound." Evidently he considers himself, like Lewis does, the sole judge of security as well as of choice of unions. -G. P.

BILLY AND THE BRITONS

Billy Graham, the famous American evangelist, is never at a loss for words, but he used one too many in an ad-vance publicity release on his forthcoming evangelistic campaign in England and has nearly half the people over there hopping mad at him before he even starts soliciting their souls' salvation. Before the Rev. Graham's arrival in Britain an advance statement bearing his name was put out. One section of it read as follows:

"When the war ended, a sense of frustration and disillusionment gripped England, and what Hitler's bombs couldn't do, socialism with its accompanying evils shortly accomplished. "England's historic faith faltered. The churches still standing gradually emptied.

One can imagine the reaction of England's Socialists to One can imagine the reaction of England's Socialists to have all the moral and spiritual ills that always follow in on the other hand, the military are the wake of war laid at their doorstep like another "Hoover depression."
