Backstop Bids From 5 Firms

The bids of five concerns for the installation of a number of basketball backstops in the new South Salem High School were taken under advisement by the building and grounds committee at the conclusion of an abbreviated meeting of the school board late Tuesday.

It is expected the contract will be awarded at a special meeting called for Monday night, March 1.

The E. P. Finnegan company of San Francisco submitted a low figure of $10,550 without taking into consideration two alternates of $380 and $210. The latter figure is for the installation of two all-glass backstops in the main gymnasium.

Frank D. Cohan and associates of Portland agreed to install the equipment for $10,775.45. Other bidders were: Northern School Supply Co. of Portland, $12,285.42; W. H. Cress company of Portland, $14,005; and the Bryan W. Burch company, $15,569.

A representative of the Finnegan concern said his company was one of the principal manufacturers and installers of backstop equipment in California, although the Salem job was one of their first large prospective contracts in Oregon.

Cohan pointed out that his company was an Oregon concern. Gill coliseum at Oregon State college, was one of the larger contracts his firm had secured, he added.

Both the Finnegan and Cohan companies agreed to hire local labor in the installation of the equipment, with the exception of a supervisor.

Expected bidding in connection with the revamping of the stage at Leslie junior high school did not develop, a delay having been necessitated.

Awards Given Young Scouts

Numerous awards, including one of the Eagle variety, were distributed during a Boy Scout Court of Honor Monday night by Troop 6 and Pack 6 of St. Joseph's Catholic Church. The program, which was concluded with a no-host dinner, attracted approximately 20 persons.

Dr. D. L. Callierate was master of ceremonies, with the Eagle award going to James V. Hoffman, son of Mr. and Mrs. Orris Hoffman, 530 East Ewald avenue. Presentation was made by W. W. McKinney, president of Cascade area council.

Second class awards were presented by Committeeman Frank Hamilton to Michael Gallagher, James Mason, Michael Lowry, Victor LaRoche and Kenneth Rupp.

Committeeman Douglas Thompson distributed merit badges to Kenneth McFarland, John Ham-
