

Card Party Planned by AL Unit

A card party Friday night, March 5, at the Woman's club house was planned at the social meeting of unit No. 136, American Legion auxiliary on Thursday night. The ways and means committee under the direction of Mrs. Henry Sierp will be in charge of the party.

Business discussed before the yearly initiation of new members included the announcement that Mrs. Joseph Marcroft and unit president, Mrs. Carol Robinson, presented flag codes to the Keizer and Willard schools last week.

The sewing group will meet on Tuesday at 10 a.m. at the home of Mrs. Theodore Ullakko for all day sewing. On Saturday, March 13, at 10 o'clock, the junior auxiliary plans to meet to make favors for the junior conference in April.

Ann Starr and Carol Boehn of Englewood school were present and showed the proper display of the American flag. Miss Boehn also played two accordion solos.

Mrs. Theodore Ullakko was the ritual team captain and the following were initiated: Mesdames Frank McKinney, Leon Hansen, Robert Baker, Harry Hendricks, William Swigart, Marvin McClain, William Fraser, Clyde Warren, Henry Sierp, Gerald Van Hess, Joseph Marcroft.

Guests at the meeting included Mrs. J. W. Marcroft, Sr., Portland; Mrs. C. M. Craig, Mrs. Virgil Simmons, Mrs. Lester Perry, commander, pioneer post No. 149, all women post, American Legion, Mrs. T. D. Graham, Mrs. Harriot Belcher, and Miss Alberta Shoemaker, also of No. 149; Mrs. Floyd Hain, Mrs. Don Moser and Mrs. Fredric Smally.

Wed Recently—Mr. and Mrs. Elton Jones (Dorothy Mitchell), above, were married February 12. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fayette T. Mitchell of Turner and Mr. Jones is the son of Mrs. Thomas Berry of Turner. (Artz studio picture)

Miss Floyd Is Recent Bride

DALLAS—Wed Sunday evening at a double ring ceremony in the First Christian church were Miss Glendoris Floyd of Dallas and Private Ross Dyer, Dallas. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George W. Floyd and Mr. Dyer is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Dyer of Dallas. A pink and white theme was used in decorating. Four baskets of pink snapdragons, white stock and greenery and lighted tapers were arranged as a background at the altar. Clusters of white and pink snapdragons tied with satin bows marked the pews down the aisle.

The Rev. Orville Mick read the vows at 8 o'clock. Mrs. Robert Dornhecker sang, accompanied by Mrs. Carl Wright at the organ.

The bride was given in marriage by her father. She wore a wedding dress styled with a portrait neckline and fitted bodice of imported Chantilly lace brought in two panels in redingote effect over skirts of tulle and slipper satin, ending in a full sweeping train. The fingertip veil of silk illusion cascaded from a scalloped net bonnet trimmed with pearls. The bride carried a cascade bouquet of white carnations and stephanotis centered with an orchid caught with satin streamers and accented by white velvet hearts. Her only jewelry was a strand of pearls, gift of the bridegroom.

Proceeding the bride down the aisle was her sister as matron of honor, Mrs. Jim Riggs, in a dress of blush pink. The two bridesmaids, Mrs. Keith Griffin and Miss Velma Dyer, sister of the bridegroom, wore identical dresses of blush pink satin. All wore matching pink mitts and scalloped bonnets like that worn by the bride. Their bouquets were heart-shaped framed with white lace and carnations with white streamers falling from a center cluster of pink and white carnations.

Miss Marilyn Stallings and Miss Elouise Griffin lighted the candles. Their frocks were like those of the bridesmaids. Their fowers were wristlets of pink carnations.

Sylvia Del Dornhecker was flower girl. Her dress was a duplicate of the other attendants' and she carried a basket of rose petals. Ricky Cooper was ring bearer.

For her daughter's wedding Mrs. Floyd wore a two-piece dress of blue crepe with white accessories and a corsage of pink carnations. Mrs. Dyer, the bridegroom's mother, wore a blue crepe frock with pink accessories and a pink carnation corsage.

Jim Riggs, brother-in-law of the bride, was best man. Ushering were Keith Griffin, Earl Gibbs and Leland Bird.

A reception followed the ceremony when the young couple greeted the guests in the social rooms of the church. Baskets of white stock and pink snapdragons carried out the pink and white theme. The bride's table was covered with a white nylon cloth and centered with a large four-tiered wedding cake encircled by pink carnations.

Cutting the cake was Mrs. Clarence Smith assisted by Mrs. Elton Salisbury. Pouring coffee was Mrs. M. C. Strand, housemother at the Kappa Delta sorority house in Corvallis. Mrs. Clyde Gibbs presided at the punch bowl. Assisting about the rooms were Miss Maurine Milk, Miss Verna Wade, Miss Laurice Dashiell, Miss Joyce Bartell and Miss Beryl Parrish. Miss Sally Smith and Miss Mary Lou passed the guest book.

For going away, the bride donned a navy blue suit with navy and baby blue accessories, pinning an orchid to her jacket. Following a brief honeymoon the couple left for Camp Chaffee near Fort Smith, Arkansas, where Mr. Dyer is stationed.

Coming Projects In BPW Club Noted

SILVERTON—Several projects were planned at the Tuesday evening meeting of the Business and Professional Women's club at the home of Mrs. Frank Giroux.

A progressive dinner will be Tuesday evening, March 30, the proceeds to be applied on the budget for the foreign student scholarship fund.

Mrs. Charles Mason told of the intermediate-aged Girl Scout troop, of which Mrs. Alan Brown is the present leader, needing a sponsoring organization. The members voted favorably on this suggestion. Mrs. Virginia Hughes was appointed liaison member of the B&PW club for the scouting project.

Mrs. Larry Carpenter, public affairs chairman, has arranged for the Tuesday, March 3, regular meeting to be a 7 o'clock dinner program at Toney's, the speaker to be the Marion County superintendent of schools, Mrs. Agnes Booth. Reservations should be made two days previously with Mrs. Frank Giroux.

The annual senior high school girls' tea is announced for Sunday, May 2, with Mrs. Helmer Brokke and Miss Edith Ross, chairmen.

In the "silent auction" staged as a budget builder at the meeting, a sum of $16.50 was realized.

Miss Plumb Is Bride

WOODBURN—A wedding of February 20 was that of Miss Pauline Faye Plumb, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Cecil L. Plumb of Woodburn, and Andrew M. Herzberg, son of Mrs. Carol I. Herzberg of McMinnville. The single ring ceremony was at 2 p.m. at the Woodburn Methodist church with the Rev. Ormal B. Trick officiating.

Baskets of orchid stock and daffodils decorated the church. Miss Rosella McCarthy was soloist and also played the wedding music.

The bride was given in marriage by her father. She wore a gown of Chantilly lace over satin, ballerina length, and fashioned with Peter Pan collar, buttons down the front and three-quarter length sleeves. She carried red roses and white freesias on a white Bible.

Miss JoAnna Hickerson of Salem was maid of honor wearing a lime colored dress fashioned with a satin bodice, high neck, buttons down the back and net skirt over satin. She carried a nosegay of yellow-throat baby orchids.

Cecil L. Plumb, Jr., brother of the bride, served as best man for Mr. Herzberg.

For her daughter's wedding Mrs. Plumb wore a light blue dress with white accessories and orchid corsage. Mrs. Herzberg, mother of the bridegroom, wore a wine colored dress with white accessories and orchid corsage.

A reception at the Wayne Z. Stevenson home in Salem followed the ceremony. The couple left for San Diego, Calif., where Mr. Herzberg is stationed aboard the USS Romulus. For traveling Mrs. Herzberg wore a navy blue dress with pale blue accessories. Prior to her marriage Mrs. Herzberg worked as a clerk-typist in the secretary of states' office in Salem.

Beta Theta Pi, chapter of Willamette University, travelled to British Columbia last week-end and came back with top honors in scholarship and the song fest. The sixteen man chorus of this chapter won for the seventh time in eight years.

Norway Hit by Heavy Snowfall

LONDON—Capricious winds whipped destructive gales around the British Isles Friday, brought icebound Norway its heaviest snowfall of the year and turned warm with rain further south to start breaking up the deep freeze that had clogged northern Europe's seaports.

Germany's North Sea and Baltic ports, icebound for weeks, welcomed the breakup, and icebreakers began freeing ships which had been locked in the frozen seas.

More than three feet of snow in southern Norway clogged roads, drifted to six feet in places and broke down communication lines. The winds turned to heavy gales around the British Isles and churned up huge waves in the North Sea, the English Channel and the Irish Sea, damaging property and ripping down communications lines along exposed coastal areas.

Silvertown JC's Home Show Set

SILVERTON—At the Tuesday evening business session of the Junior Chamber of Commerce members at the Washington Irving club rooms with Dick Hartley, vice-president, substituting for Bill Hanson, president, two important Jay-Cee projects were fully discussed and plans started for work.

For the first time in Silvertown, a Home Show will be an attraction. The younger forum men are to sponsor a showing during one afternoon and two evenings. The Home Show is to be at the Silvertown armory April 8, afternoon and the two consecutive evenings, April 1 and 2, Thursday and Friday.

The program is an encouragement for both adult and youth display of property and materials, such as furnishings, built-ins, gadgets and con eniences that would make home life more interesting and pleasant.

Larry Crennell is to serve as stage chairman; Dick Hartley as floor chairman; and publications chairman, Bob Howell and Jim Nelson.

During the entertainment hour at the Tuesday meeting, Larry Crennell showed a film on the Indianapolis speedway race, and Bob Edgerton showed slides taken during the masquerade party of the Jay-Cees and Jay-Cettes.

A more inclusive project is the National Health Week of March 1-7, a Jay-Cee event to be observed by the local club. The effort will be made for all chapter units to unite with state and county health agencies.

Mail Service To Be Theme

The Federal postal service will be the theme of the Chamber of Commerce luncheon meeting Monday noon at the Marion Hotel and the speaker will be Paul D. Bentley, inspector in charge of the Seattle division of the Post Office Department.

Bentley will talk about the department as a service and business organization. The program will be sponsored by the Salem Marine Corps League.

The program is a project of the Marine Corps League as a tribute to the Post Office Department for its leadership in the employment of disabled war veterans.

Bentley began his career with the postal service at Claremont, Calif., in 1917. In 1934 he was one of a group selected to supervise the transfer of $2 1/2 billion in gold from the United States mint in San Francisco to the mint in Denver.

Albert Gragg, Salem postmaster, will be presented a plaque in recognition of the department's employment policy. The presentation will be by Clyde Brummel of the league who will also introduce the speaker. Commandant of the Salem chapter of the league is Ray Eshleman.
