PIN PATTER

We are presenting the first in a series of Personal Portraits of Salem bowlers to acquaint you with some of the outstanding bowlers of the city, regardless of average, age, ability, etc. Our Personal Portrait No. 1 concerns Dick Phipps.

Dick was born in Seneca, Nebraska, some twenty-nine years ago and spent his early childhood there. In the middle thirties his folks moved to Oregon and Dick was forced to accompany them where they settled in Salem. He went to school at Leslie and Sal-em High and graduated from that institution in 1943. He immedi-ately entered the Navy, serving in San Diego, Pearl Harbor and Midway and was discharged in 1945.

Dick started bowling in 1942 and his very first year bowled on the Nicholson's Insurance team which won the Commercial Lea-gue championship that year. He howled again in 1943 but then was out for the war years. He came back to bowling in 1947 and, with the exception of 1050, has been at it ever since. Dick has been a 180 average bowler most of that time but since buying into the Capitol Lanes last year has managed to devote more time to bowling with the result

time to bowling with the result he is now carrying a 202 average.
In 1951 Dick won both the City Singles crown with 668 and the Northwest title with 664. He teamed with Keley Allen of Portland to capture the Ideal Classic doubles in Seattle with 1636 of which Dick's share was 788 for the four games. Then, just two weeks ago Dick finished fourth in the Rose City Classic with 1602 for the 8 games.
Dick is throwing a powerful hook ball and is practically a cinch to finish high in every tournament he enters. We're sorry we don't have a true picture to use but when the boys in the back room start retouching a picture they sometimes get carried away.

Another match coming up this Sunday afternoon between Tony Another match coming up this Sunday afternoon between 100, Vittone's Black Bandit of the Capitol Alleys and a team from Corvallis. Bowling for Tony will be John Glodt, Junior Ryan, Walt Gardner and Bob Dyer. A women's team composed of Gloria Vittone, Helen Glodt, Norma Lawless, Marie Bradley and Mary Colvin will be bowling a women's team from Corvallis at the same time. Speaking of matches reminds us that the two Ramage's teams had at its last Sunday afternoon at the Capitol with the Capitol Alleys outfit coming out on top in a close match. They will bowl the second half this Sunday afternoon at the U-Bowl. The only change in the state tournament this week saw Cascade

Plywood of Lebanon jump into first place in class B teams last night as they fired 2691. The previous high was set the second week by Randy's Grandpa's of Tillamook with 2650. Shooting toweek by Randy's Grandpa's of Tillamook with 2650. Shooting to-night will be two of the top teams of the state, Jack Soelberg's Tim-ber Structures outfit and Kelcy Allen's Albany Lanes quintet, both of whom are from the fast Intercity Classic league of Portland. Gerlinger Carrier, the defending state champs, have added Dick Phipps in place of Mike Merrell and will be trying to repeat next week.

The jackpot doubles at the U-Bowl was broken this last week by Dick Phipps and Frank Evans as they spilled the pins for a 1315 vince Matt came through with assault and Frank "Round Man" Evans connected for 696. I don't think it was very fair of Bob to let Frank bowl four games when the rest of us only got to bowl three.
